National Confession Movement

Biblical Definition of Love

Eustace Mullins Remembered

KINGDOM FELLOWSHIP CHATROOM
During Live Weekly Radio Broadcast

NATIONAL CONFESSION MOVEMENT

We're planning for a big 10 days of a radio broadcasted telethon of confessing our National Sins during the last week of September this year.

We have several months to prepare the list of sins of our people. The sins ranging from taking just weights and measures (gold and silver) out of the money system, and replacing it with a fake credit, lent to us with interest, which is causing our economic collapse, to many other more grave moral sins, even reaching the levels capital offences (as have been held for the majority of America's existence) are now being not only tolerated but openly promoted in public.

We believe all members of God's church will be a part of this national confession and repentance movement in one way or another whether they join us for the live broadcasting or not.

National confession is Biblical and critical. Even the Israelites had a yearly full 2 days to be surrounding the tabernacle on their knees confessing the national sins. We won't be on our knees literally for two whole days, but will be in our hearts during this period that God says is a high holy day FOR EVER that He does a work in the earth as HIS DAY FOR EVER, not ours to change. This date is the Biblical day of Atonement, when the national confessions are done, and this was the only time in the year that the High Priest could then go into the Holy of Holies. We can then understand better what Jesus(Yahshua) has accomplished for us, now being able to enter into the holiest of places directly, with Jesus(Yahshua) now our High Priest. I believe it's important to understand Biblical National Confession to understand Christ. As Jesus said, "if you do not know Moses, you CANNOT know me." (John 5:45-46)

Luke 16:31 And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

The New Testament especially very much speaks in Kingdom terms, of those of our tribe around us being those who we are also accountable for, and must confess our tribal-neighbor's sins:

1John 1:9 "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us [our] sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

Americans Cannot Repent Because Americans Will Not Confess.

God has told our people that if we confess our sins he will forgive us. We all realize that without acknowledgement of the fault through identification of the fault, in as far as confessing it, we are then able to see what actions to repent of, and lay the ground work for the correct action in the future.

"But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet."—Ezek. xxxiii. 6.

1John 3:4 says "sin is transgression of the law". We must confess all the laws being violated not just a couple of them. I hope you understand why we notify you so early on for this effort of cataloguing all the sins.

Even in the 1960s there were laws in America that limited how much usury banks could charge people in interest. We had a just nation, but America has now been in full blown rebellion from God's law for at least the last generation until now as the new generation is being raised up.

There is no escaping the need for repentance of the national sins our people have tolerated for far too long. Each one of the small laws being violated on a major scale, also having been "institutionalized" rebellions from God's law in government in recent years. (Sin is transgression of God's law 1John 3:4. In order to repent of it we must confess what it is.....)

Definition of True Biblical Love Cannot Be Lawlessness

This subject is of vital importance because we're told to love God #1, this is the first of all the great commandments. God is THE WORD (John 1:1). The word IS His Commandments.

Which "definition of love" is shown in scripture: Loving God is obeying His word. If you love someone you don't deliberately disobey direct requirements.

Let us read the Bible's Definition of love, right out of the scripture. The most important and emphasized love.

LOVE DEFINITION: 2John 1:6 "And this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it."

LOVE DEFINITION: 1John 5:2 "By this we know that we love the children of THE LORD, when we love THE LORD, and keep his commandments."

We know that Christ kept all of God's commandments as we're told to also take up our crosses and follow those same commandments:

John 15:10 "If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love."

LOVE DEFINITION: 1John 5:3 "For this is the love of THE LORD, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous."

(showing once again what the definition of love is)

John 14:15 "If ye love me, keep my commandments."

LOVE DEFINITION: John 14:21 "He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him."

Loving Thy Neighbor As Stated In Leviticus 19:18

First of all within God's law in context, God's law only allows us to have neighbors of our own kindred, our people / brethren, and to live on 10 acres. This was understood when the word enemy was used in "love our enemies", speaking not of the foreign enemy, but "thine enemies shall be of thine own house".

We see the bible's definition of loving our neighbor, as commanded by God is to Rebuke him, Lev 19:17-18 “Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart: thou shalt in any wise rebuke thy neighbour, and not suffer sin upon him. Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people, but thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself: I am the LORD.” Forgive them quickly as “you’ve gained your brother”, as not to bear a grudge.

Eze 33:9 Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

Act 20:31 “Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.” True love is to rebuke & warn your neighbor! (But don’t forget love is kind, has self control, reminds them we warn them out of love, etc.) God is the supreme one we are to fear and will be accountable to on the great judgment day for all deeds done and words said while in the body.

We can't sit idle while our neighbor commits cultural suicide, or even commits any sin. Many promote the genocide, murder, annihilation and COMPLETE GENOCIDE of the white Christian people of the Kingdom CHRISTENDOM (European True Israel Tribal Nations), and do so unknowingly but simply because they have not obeyed God's commandment to be spoken out against it. If you cannot do it personally then consider tithing to one of the hundreds of churches out there that do speak out against it in at least some Biblical Spiritual fashion. We must say or do something to convict their hearts of any sin, but especially a big one like inter-racialism which is not only called a sin, but an abomination to Almighty God. There are big sins and little sins. Big sins like race-mixing facilitate a need for us to speak out bolder. Race mixing is worse than the sin of murder, as it takes a hostility against God's good creation at the core, to destroy it. (While we know God does allow Christian governments to kill the offenders through our judicial systems in capital punishment cases shown entirely in public and through other lawful means in a time of war.) This crime of race-mixing shouldn't go unspoken against or we shall be held liable ourselves before heaven, and found guilty of approving it.

Wherefore,

Tts 1:13 This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

and deal as Paul,

1Ti 1:20 Of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

and, 2Ti 4:2 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine.

and, Deu 13:11 And all Israel shall hear, and fear, and shall do no more any such wickedness as this is among you.

and, Deu 17:13 And all the people shall hear, and fear, and do no more presumptuously. but, 1Ti 5:1 Rebuke not an elder, but intreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren; and, 1Ti 5:19-20 Against an elder receive not an accusation, but before two or three witnesses. Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear.

Isa 58:1-2 “Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins. Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God.”

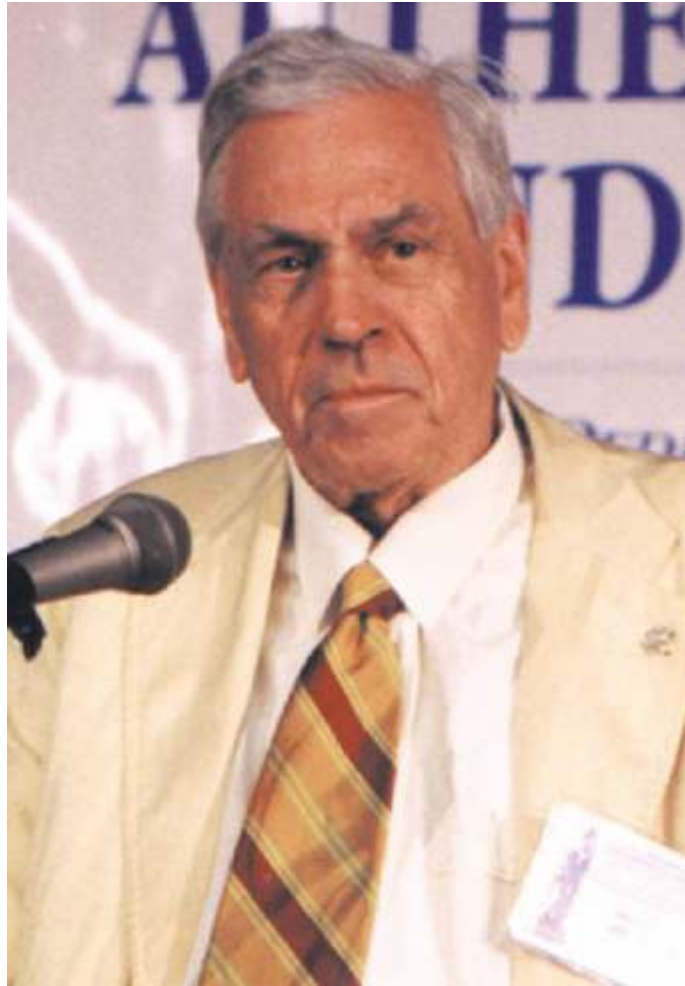

So we see clearly the true definition of loving your neighbor is rebuking him sharply, but remembering not to be quick to judge and to forgive those that have a true "willing" heart to do all that God commands. If their heart is closed to God, then God help him.

Jhn 3:20-21 "For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God."

2Ch 19:10 "And what cause soever shall come to you of your brethren that dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and judgments, ye shall even warn them that they trespass not against the LORD, and so wrath come upon you, and upon your brethren: this do, and ye shall not trespass."

There are over 200 Bible Scriptures that command racial segregation. This is what caused Godly Christian laws that forbade third world immigration to the Christian nations of the earth. For countries that had already allowed colored peoples to enter there were other safeguards, such as Interracial Marriage Outlawed in 41 states in America under Biblical Law. 28 states kept interracial marriage a felony until 1968, and most European countries kept non-white immigration illegal until just 20 years ago, and many, only 5 years ago made it legal to allow non-Christian descended peoples into their borders.

Eustace Mullins Remembered

While slandered in the mainstream news even at his death, we all owe him a debt of gratitude for his pioneering works exposing world edomite domination through their 8 counterfeit jewish banking families that privately own the federal reserve money system. His catapulting of the truth, has created such a paradigm shift it is perhaps more than he had dreamed. Like Moses, he will not see the glorious day his people reach the promised land.

When George Washington died, Ezra Styles, president of Yale made a most telling comment about him.

"A great man of Israel has passed today." We can say the same for Eustace Mullins and time will prove him right...We await the day..

Eustace was here two times for a day visit in the past year. He read My book "What Was the Mark God Placed on Cain", and the book I helped write, "Bulala: A True Story of South Africa", he had the highest praise for both of them and said, "Robert certainly writes good books." He was a speed reader and actually read Bulala 4x and said, "This one is great. They ought to make a movie out of this one." He would actually read each book several times, and even once backwards... I can't comprehend that... he had an incredible mind.

Eustace Mullins is the last living protege of Ezra Pound, the author of the only book burned in Germany since Hitler (a burning under the direction of Americans) and a former researcher for Joseph McCarthy. He's known almost everyone on the American Right for the last 50 years, and is one of the most hated men in America in some circles. He belongs to no group, espouses no movement or party and doesn't give a damn what you think of him. I found an affable 80 year- old man with a healthy sense of humor and a keen love for Liberty. Here's a piece of my conversation with him on his front porch on July 8th, 2003.

Mullins's rise to notoriety began with his discovery of the political railroading and imprisonment without conviction in 1946 of America's most famous poet of the age, Ezra Pound. Pound had become an outspoken anti-war critic, made several broadcasts from Italy, which FDR deemed "treasonous," and spent 12 years as "the sanest person" incarcerated at St. Elizabeth's Hospital for the mentally ill in Washington, D.C. He had been held without trial.

Following his release in 1958, Pound said that the pamphlets and books written by Mullins during those years on Pound's plight were the most influential in gaining his freedom. This meant a great deal coming from Pound who, after first educating his young protégé on the subject, actually commissioned Mullins to write the first critical work on the Federal Reserve.

This project cost Mullins his job at the Library of Congress in 1952, when his first book appeared in print. In 1950, Mullins struck another establishment nerve when Sen. Joe McCarthy asked him to look into who was financing the Communist Party, the results of which eventually shipwrecked the senator's career and coined the term "McCarthyism," now in the dictionary. Mullins spent the rest of his life being followed, harassed and wiretapped by the FBI. He retaliated by writing a book about these experiences.

Never has such a soft-spoken man screamed so loudly with his pen as Mullins, and of course that oft-defaming group known as the ADL smeared him with that easy-to-fling but hard-to-define term "anti-Semite."

His book Murder by Injection exposed the medical fraud of vaccinations 20 years before the current flap. While a lifelong enemy of the establishment, Mullins constantly searched for more truth than could be found in the halls of education. This thirst for knowledge made him an icon among the living; and his classic collection of books will cement his immortality through the ages.

We will all miss him.
