In October. The Dean of Peterborough [Dr. Cosin] preached on Job XIII. verse 15, encouraging our trust in God on all events and extremities, and for establishing and comforting some ladies of great quality, who were then to be discharged from our Queen-Mother's service, unless they would go over to the Romish Mass.

The Dean, dining that day at our house, told me the occasion of publishing those Offices, which among the Britans were wont to be called Cosin's cozening Devotions, by way of derision. At the first coming of the Queen into England, she and her French ladies were often upbraiding our religion, that had neither appointed nor set forth any hours of prayer, or breviaries, by which ladies and courtiers who have much spare time, might edify and be in devotion, as they had. Our Protestant ladies scandalised at this, moved the matter to the King; whereupon his Majesty presently called Bishop White to him, and asked his thoughts of it, and whether there might not be found some forms of prayer proper on such occasions, collected out of some already approved forms, that so the court-ladies and others (who spend much time in trifling) might at least appear as devout, and be so too, as the new-come-over French ladies, who took occasion to reproach our want of zeal and religion. On which, the Bishop told his Majesty that it might be done easily, and was very necessary; whereupon the King commanded him to employ some person of the clergy to compile such a Work, and presently the Bishop naming Dr. Cosin, the King enjoined him to charge the Doctor in his name to set about it im-medately. This the Dean told me he did; and three months after, bringing the book to the King, he commanded the Bishop of London to read it over, and make his report; this was so well liked, that (contrary to former custom of doing it by a Chaplain), he would needs give it an imprimatur under his own hand. Upon this, there were at first only 200 copies printed; nor, said he, was there anything in the whole book of my own composure, nor did I set any name as author to it, but those necessary preface &c. out of the Fathers, touching the times and seasons of prayer; all the rest being entirely translated and collected out of an Office published by authority of Queen Elizabeth, anno 1560. and our own Liturgy. This I rather mention to justify that industrious and Pious Dean, who had exceedingly suffered by it, as if he had done it of his own head, to introduce Popery, from which no man was more averse, and one who in this time of temptation and apostacy held and confirmed many to our Church.

The Preface,

TOUCHING PRAYER AND THE FORMS OF PRAYER.

THE FOUNTAIN AND WELL-SPRING FROM WHICH THEY ALL PROCEED, BEING THAT PERFECT FORM OF PRAYER WHICH CHRIST TAUGHT HIS DISCIPLES.

FOR the good and welfare of our souls, there is not in Christian Religion any thing of like continual use and force throughout every hour of our lives, as is the ghostly exercise of Prayer and Devotion.

An exercise it was, which the holy Apostles had often observed their Lord and Master to use, ever and anon to be still at His prayers, in the Morning before day^a, in the Evening before night^b, and otherwhiles to go out and spend the whole night in prayer^c; that had it not been a matter of some principal dignity and importance, had there not been some excellent benefits to be got by it, doubtless He would never have prayed so often and so much as He did.

And therefore they desired of Him to be taught a Form of Prayer, as St. John the Baptist had also taught his disciples. And a Form Christ taught them so absolute and so perfect, as never was the ^c Luke vi. 12.

like made before^d; which, from Him who made it then, was ever afterwards called THE LORD'S PRAYER.

A Prayer whereby we have not only Christ's own Name to countenance our suits^e, (in whose Name if we ask any thing we shall have it, saith the Gospel,) but Christ's own words also^f, who Himself is our Advocate, and being best acquainted with the laws and phrases of His Father's court, hath drawn up such a bill for us, both for matter and form, as shall make our supplications acceptable and prevalent with Almighty God. And though men should speak with Angels' tongues, yet words so pleasing to the ears of God as those which the Son of God did compose, cannot possibly be uttered; nor any prayers so well framed, as those that are made by His pattern.

It is for this cause called by the Fathers, The Prayer of all Prayers, and the Rule or Square whereby all our petitions are to be formed; having likewise been thus used in all ages of the Church, not only as a common part of her Prayers and Service, but as the chief and fundamental part of them, the ground whereupon she builds, the pattern whereby she frames, and the complement wherewith she perfects all the rest of her heavenly devotions, framing them all, as this is framed, with much efficacy, though not with any superfluity of words.

Thus we begin at this day all our Church services with the Lord's Prayer, and lay it as a foundation whereon to build the rest of our petitions that follow, sometimes continuing (as after the Creed) and sometimes perfecting (as after the blessed Sacrament) our most holy devotions with it; thereby supplying with the fulness of that one, whatsoever may be defective in all our other prayers. Præmissâ legitimâ oratione (saith Tertullian) quasi fundamento accidentium &c. "This is the law we go by, the groundwork and the guide of all those holy prayers that Christians use to make."

A part of which ancient piety are these daily Devotions and Prayers that hereafter follow; prayers which, after the same manner and division of Hours as here they are, having heretofore been published among us by high and sacred authority, are now also renewed, and more fully set forth again, as for many other, so chiefly for these four reasons.

1. The first is, to continue and preserve the authority of the ancient laws, and old godly canons of the Church, which were made and set forth for this purpose, that men, before they set themselves to pray, might know what to say, and avoid, as near as might be, all extemporal effusions of irksome and indigested prayers, which they use to make that herein are subject to no good order or form of words, but pray both what, and how, and when they list. Carol. Mag. in Legib. Orationes, quæ ab Ecclesiâ probatæ non sunt, rejiciantur. "Let no prayers be used but those which are allowed by the Church." Microl. de Eccles. obser. cap. 5. Conc. Carthag. 3. Can. 23. Quascunque sibi preces aliquis describit, non eis utatur, nisi prius eas cum instructoribus [fratribus] contulerit. "What prayers soever any man hath framed for himself, let him first acquaint those that are wise and learned with them, before he presumeth to use them."

And the reason is given in the twelfth canon of the Milevitan Council, which was also repeated in the seventieth canon of the Council of Afric, Ne forte aliquid contra fidem, vel per ignorantiam, vel per minus studium, sit compositum. "Lest either thorough ignorance, or thorough less care than is fit, any thing be said which is not consonant to the faith of Christ's Church."

And that men may not think these rules are to be applied to public Prayers only, and not to private, let them weigh those words in the Council of Carthage, Quascunque sibi preces, &c. "The prayers which a man makes for himself," &c. And let them consider, that, when Christ had bidden us enter into our chamber and pray privately, presently He sets us a form to pray by, even there in secret, St. Matt. vi. 6, 7, 9. By which passages, those prayers are chiefly allowed and recommended unto us, (for all sudden and godly ejaculations are not to be condemned,) which with good advice and meditation are framed beforehand by them that best know what belong thereunto: that so, through this means, the worthiest part of our Christian duty to God-ward might suffer no such scandal and disgrace as otherwhiles it is forced to do; and that when we speak to, or call upon the awful majesty of Almighty God, we might be sure to speak in the grave and pious language of Christ's CHURCH, which hath evermore been guided by the Spirit of God, the Holy Ghost; and not to lose ourselves with confusion in any sudden, abrupt, or rude dictates, which are framed by private spirits, and ghosts of our own. In regard whereof, our very priests and deacons themselves are, for their private and daily prayers, enjoined to say the Morning and Evening Devotions of the Church; and when at any time they pray, or bid the prayer before their Sermons, there is a set form of words prescribed for them to use; that they also might know it is not so lawful for them to pray of their own heads, or suddenly to say what they please themselves.

2. The second is, to let the world understand, that they who give it out, and accuse us here in ENGLAND to have set up a new Church, and a new Faith, to have abandoned all the ancient Forms of Piety and Devotion, to have taken away all the religious exercises and prayers of our forefathers, to have despised all the old ceremonies, and cast behind us the blessed Sacraments of Christ's Catholic Church—that these men do little else but betray their own infirmities, and have more violence and will, than reason or judgment for what they say; the common accusations, which, out of the abundance of those partial affections that transport them the wrong way, they are pleased to bring so frequently against us, being but the bare reports of such people as either do not or will not understand us what we are.

3. The third is, that they who are this way already religiously given, and whom earnest lets and impediments do often hinder from being partakers of the Public, might have here a daily and devout order of Private Prayer, wherein to exercise themselves, and to spend some hours of the day at least, (as the old godly Christians were wont to do,) in God's holy worship and service; not employing themselves so much to talk and dispute as to practise religion, and to live like Christians; the continual and curious disquisition of many unnecessary questions among us, being nothing else but either the new seeds or the old fruits of malice, and by consequence the enemy of godliness, and the abatement of that true devotion, wherewith God is more delighted, and a good soul more inflamed and comforted, than with all the busy subtilties of the world. In which sense St. Austin was wont to say, that the pious and devout, though unlearned, went to heaven, whiles other men, trusting to their learning, disputed it quite away.

4. The last is, that those who perhaps are but coldly this way yet affected, might by others' example be stirred up to the like heavenly duty of performing their daily and Christian devotions to Almighty God, as being a work of all others the most acceptable to His divine Majesty.

In so doing, we shall all give evident testimony to the world, Whose servants we are, and wherein our chiefest delight doth consist; we shall enjoy a perpetual communion with the saints triumphant, as well as militant; and we shall have just cause to conceive, that so much of our life is celestial and divine, as we spend in this holy exercise of prayer and devotion.

The Calendar,
WITH THE FESTIVALS AND FASTING DAYS
OF THE CHURCH,
AND THE MEMORIES OF SUCH HOLY MEN AND MARTYRS
AS ARE THEREIN REGISTERED.

Of the Calendar, and the special use thereof in the Church of God.

THE Calendar of the Church is as full of benefit as delight, unto such as are given to the due study and contemplation thereof. For, besides the admirable order and disposition of times, which are necessary for the better transacting of all ecclesiastical and secular affairs, it hath in it a very beautiful distinction of the days and seasons, whereof some are chosen out and sanctified^a, and others are put among the days of the week to number.

But the chief use of it in the Church (saith St. Austin), is to preserve a solemn memory, and to continue in their due time, sometimes a weekly, and sometimes an annual commemoration of those excellent and high benefits, which God, both by Himself, His Son, and His blessed Spirit, one undivided Trinity, hath bestowed upon mankind, for the founding and propagating of that Christian Faith and Religion, which we now profess.

^a Ecclus. xxxiii. 7.

And this Faith of ours, being no other than the very same wherein the holy Angels are set to succour us, and which the glorious company of the Apostles, the noble army of Martyrs, and the goodly fellowship of other God's Saints and servants, men famous in their generations before us, have some maintained with the sanctity of their lives, and some sealed with the innocency of their deaths; it is for this cause that the names of these holy and heavenly Saints are still preserved in the Calendar of the Church, there to remain upon record and register (as of old time they did), where they might also stand as sacred memorials of God's mercy towards us, as forcible witnesses of His ancient truth, as confirmations of the faith which we now profess to be the same that theirs then was, as provocations to the piety which they then practised, and as everlasting records to shew Whose blessed servants they were on earth, that are now like the Angels of God in heaven.

Howbeit, forasmuch as, in process of time, the multitude of men and women reputed holy in this kind became so exceeding numerous, that all the days of the year would not have been sufficient for a several commemoration of them; it was the great wisdom and moderation of those religious grave prelates, by whom God (of His especial blessing to our Church above others) did reform such things as were many ways remiss here among us, to choose one solemn day alone, wherein to magnify God for the generality of All His Saints together; and to retain some few selected days in every month for the special memory of others, both holy Persons and holy Actions, which they observed not our people alone, but the universal Church of Christ also, to be most affected unto, and best acquainted withal: hereby avoiding only the burden and the unnecessary number of Festival Days; not disallowing the multitude of God's true martyrs and Saints, whose memorials we are to solemnize howsoever in the general Festival of All Saints' Day, as by the proper Lessons, the Collect, Epistle, and Gospel then appointed in our public Liturgy, doth most evidently appear.

R U L E S

To know when the MOVEABLE FEASTS and HOLY-DAYS begin.

EASTER-DAY (on which the rest depend) is always the First Sunday after the Full Moon which beginneth next the Equinoctial of the spring in March.

Septuagesima	}	Sunday	is	{	Nine	}	Weeks
Sexagesima					Eight			before
Quinquagesima					Seven				Easter

Rogation-Sunday	}		is	{	Five Weeks	}	after
Ascension-Day					Forty Days			Easter
Whit-Sunday					Seven Weeks
Trinity-Sunday					Eight Weeks

Advent Sunday is always the nearest Sunday, (whether before or after,) to the Fast of St. Andrew, or that Sunday which falleth upon any day from the 27th of November, to the 3rd of December, in-clusively.

Some of these being times of solemn Fasting and Abstinence, some of holy Festivity and joy, both fit to be spent in such sacred exercises, without other avocations.

The SUM OF THE CATHOLIC FAITH, called THE APOSTLES' CREED, divided into Twelve Articles.

1. I BELIEVE in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

2. And in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord.

3. Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary.

4. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried.

5. He descended into hell: the third day He rose again from the dead.

6. He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty.

7. From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

8. I believe in the Holy Ghost.

9. The holy Catholic Church; the Communion of Saints.

10. The Forgiveness of sins.

11. The Resurrection of the body.

12. And the life everlasting. Amen.

✚ By this Faith, (into which, and none but which, all Christians are baptized,) we learn to believe,

1. In God the Father, who hath made us and all the world.

2. In God the Son, who hath redeemed us and all mankind.

3. In God the Holy Ghost, who doth sanctify us, and all the chosen people of God.

THE LORD'S PRAYER, divided into Seven Petitions.

The Preface.

Our Father, which art in heaven.

The Petitions.

1. Hallowed be Thy Name.
2. Thy kingdom come.
3. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.
4. Give us this day our daily bread.
5. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us.
6. And lead us not into temptation.
7. But deliver us from evil.

The Doxology.

For Thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

☞ This prayer is the foundation whereupon, and the pattern whereby all our other prayers must be framed. In it we desire God our heavenly Father^a, who is the giver of all goodness, to send His grace unto us, and all others; that we may worship Him, serve Him, and obey Him, as we ought to do^b. And we pray unto Him, that He would send us all things which be needful both for our souls and bodies; that He would be merciful unto us, and forgive us our sins; that it would please Him to save and defend us in all our temptations, and preserve us from all dangers both ghostly and bodily. And forasmuch as we trust He will do all this of His mercy and goodness, through our Lord Jesus Christ, therefore we say, Amen, So be it^c.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS.

The First Table.

I.

God spake these words and said, I am the Lord thy God: thou shalt have none other gods but Me.

II.

Thou shalt not make to thyself any graven image, nor the likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, or in the water under the earth. Thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, and visit the sins of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate Me, and shew mercy unto thousands in them that love Me, and keep My commandments.

III.

Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

IV.

Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath-day. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all that thou hast to do; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God. In it thou shalt do no manner of work, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, thy manservant, and thy maid-servant, thy cattle, and the stranger that is within thy gates. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day; wherefore the Lord blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it.

The Second Table.

V.

Honour thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI.

Thou shalt do no murder.

VII.

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII.

Thou shalt not steal.

IX.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his servant, nor his maid, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is his.

THE DUTIES ENJOINED, AND THE SINS FORBIDDEN
IN THE TEN COMMANDMENTS.

✍ Which may serve for a direction to know, or to make known, our manifold offences against God and man.

THE DUTIES OF THE FIRST COMMANDMENT.

1. Thou shalt have no other gods, &c.

1. To acknowledge the Eternal Deity of the only true God.

2. To worship Him with all inward devotion of our souls.

3. To love, honour, and obey Him for His own sake.

4. To fear and call upon Him, to trust and believe in Him, and none but Him, all the days of our life, without giving any share of His honour to angels or saints, or any other creature.

OFFENDERS AGAINST THE FIRST COMMANDMENT.

1. They that by their evil disposition endeavour to persuade themselves that there is no God.

2. They of whom God is altogether unapprehended, and who pass away their time as if there were no God at all, without any desire or care to know Him as a rewarder of the good, and a punisher of the evil doers.

3. They that imagine, or wickedly fancy and worship any more gods than one.

4. They that prefer, or love any thing whatsoever before the service and will of God.

5. They that by despair distrust Him, or by boldness presume upon Him.

6. They that believe Him not, and are unstable or doubtful in the truth of that faith which He hath revealed.

7. They that tempt Him to shew His power without cause, and are not content with the ordinary ways and means that He hath ordained for all things.

8. They that use enchantments, witchcrafts, sorceries, superstitious observation of days, prediction of fortunes, invocation of spirits, and other wicked inventions of the devil.

THE DUTIES OF THE SECOND COMMANDMENT.

2. Thou shalt not make to thyself, &c.

1. To apprehend God as an infinite and incomprehensible Essence, without any form or shape of our own fancying or framing, whereby to make a representation of Him.

2. To honour and worship Him with the lowly reverence even of our bodies also.

3. This to be religiously done unto Him, and unto none but Him; to His divine Essence, and not to the images that men may vainly frame of Him.

4. This also to be done purely, without any such outward and solemn worship to be given either to the person or to the image of saint, or angel, or any other creature whatsoever.

OFFENDERS OF THE SECOND COMMANDMENT.

1. They that fancy to themselves any likeness of the Deity, or frame and make any image, either of God the Blessed Trinity, or of God the Father, Who never appeared to the world in a visible shape.

2. They that make any other images or the likeness of any thing whatsoever, (be it of Christ, and His cross, or be it of His blessed Angels,) with an intent to fall down and worship them.

3. They that are worshippers of idols, or representations of false gods.

4. They that are worshippers of saints' images, and out of a false opinion of demeriting the protection of the blessed Virgin, or any other saint of God, do give a religious adoration to those usual representations which be made of them.

5. They also that are no due worshippers of God Himself, that fall not lowly down before His presence, religiously to adore Him as well with their bodies as their souls.

6. They that rudely refuse, or carelessly neglect to kneel, bow, and prostrate themselves, to uncover their heads, or to stand with seemly awe and reverence before the presence of His Majesty, as at all times of His service, so chiefly at the times, and in the places, of His public worship.

7. They that regard not the threatenings of His vengeance upon them that transfer His honour to any other, nor the promises of His mercies upon them that duly worship Him.

THE DUTIES OF THE THIRD COMMANDMENT.

3. Thou shalt not take the Name of, &c.

1. To honour the most holy and reverend Name of God.

2. To speak of it with religious awe and fear, and that in matters serious and weighty only.

3. To use both it, and all things that are consecrated unto it, having His Name and stamp upon them, with all due regard.

OFFENDERS AGAINST THE THIRD COMMANDMENT.

1. They that account no more of the great Name of God than of another common thing.

2. They that use vain and customary swearing.

3. They that in matters serious swear falsely, and perjure themselves.

4. They that abuse the name of God, or any of His creatures, to cursing and bitter execrations.

5. They that make rash oaths, and sudden, inconsiderate vows, for things unlikely, unlawful, or impossible to be performed.

6. They that break their holy, solemn, and deliberate vows.

7. They that murmur against God, or blaspheme His Name.

8. They that make curious and wanton questions concerning the nature, the actions, and the secret decrees of God, not contenting themselves with that which He hath revealed in His word.

9. They that contemn His saints, that profane His temples, that slight His Sacraments, that regard not His service, that use and speak of these as of common things, whereas they have God's mark upon them, being set apart and dedicated to the service of His most holy and fearful Name.

THE DUTIES OF THE FOURTH COMMANDMENT.

4. Remember that thou keepest holy, &c.

1. As men, to keep holy one day of seven.

2. As Christians, to keep that day of the seven, which, because Christ hath instituted it, is called the Lord's Day; and His Church hath ever observed.

3. Upon this day to give God a solemn and a public worship in the congregation of His saints.

4. To rest from unnecessary servile labours and the common affairs of the world.

5. To give alms of what we have, and to shew forth our charity in works of mercy and devotion, as we are able to perform them unto others.

OFFENDERS AGAINST THE FOURTH COMMANDMENT.

1. They that put no difference between this solemn festival, and the common days of the week.

2. They that set themselves to needless, worldly, and servile affairs upon the Sunday, or suffer those over whom they have authority (as being their husbands, parents, masters, or lawful governors), to do the like, or any way to neglect the holy duties of the day.

3. They that spend it away in idle and vain sports; that eat and drink, or discourse, or sleep it away.

4. They that neglect to be duly present and assistant at the public service of the Church, whereby God hath this day His solemn homage and worship done Him.

5. They that refuse to give their alms, and do other the works of mercy and charity according to their own power, and the necessity of other good Christians.

6. They that under a pretence of serving God more strictly than others (especially for hearing and meditating of sermons), do by their fasts, and certain judaizing observations, condemn the joyful festivity of this high and holy day, which the Church allows, as well for the necessary recreation of the body in due time, as for spiritual exercises of the soul.

THE DUTIES OF THE FIFTH COMMANDMENT.

5. Honour thy father and thy mother, &c.

1. To love, honour, and obey our father and mother with all lowliness and reverence.

2. To succour, help, and serve them at their need.

3. In like manner, faithfully to serve, honour, and humbly obey the king; to reverence his sacred power, and his sovereign authority over us.

4. To live by his laws and commandments, according to God's blessed word and ordinance, and not at our own pleasure, to do what we will.

5. To live in an orderly and quiet subjection to the king's subordinate magistrates; to our husbands, masters, tutors, and governors, with all fidelity.

6. To submit ourselves lowly and reverently to them that are our spiritual guides and fathers, the prelates, and priests of God's Church.

7. Finally, to carry ourselves meekly to all, and humbly to them that be our betters in any kind or degree whatsoever; not denying them their due love and regard that be our inferiors or under our authority.

OFFENDERS AGAINST THE FIFTH COMMANDMENT.

1. They that disobey the lawful commands of their father or mother.

2. They that neglect, or despise, or grieve their persons.

3. They that murmur, mutiny, rebel, and dishonour the king, either by denying reverence to his person, or obedience to his laws, or due maintenance to his state.

4. They that are undutiful to their husbands, masters, and governors, in such matters as be within their power and authority.

5. They that neither reverence the persons, nor obey the precepts, nor care for the authority of their ecclesiastical governors.

6. They that give offence by disregard of any, specially of them that are more aged and better than themselves.

7. They that are unthankful to their benefactors.

8. They that neglect to give unto their wives, their children, their kindred, their neighbours, or any their inferiors, that love and regard which severally belongs unto them.

THE DUTIES OF THE SIXTH COMMANDMENT.

6. Thou shalt do no murder.

1. To protect and preserve, as much as in us lies, the person or the life of any man whatsoever.

2. To procure peace and love among all sorts of people.

OFFENDERS AGAINST THE SIXTH COMMANDMENT.

1. They that murder themselves, or study and use means to hasten their own death.

2. They that destroy the lives of other men, or consent to have them destroyed; and offer any violence or hurt to their persons.

3. They that bear any anger, envy, hatred, malice, uncharitableness, or any kind of mischievous indignation against others.

4. They that be sowers of strife and sedition among any men whatsoever.

5. They that are given to revenge and oppression.

6. They that are privy to any conspiracies against the lives or bodies of other men, and reveal them not.

7. They that feed or clothe not him who is ready to perish with hunger and cold.

8. They that may, and assist him not, who at any time is in danger of hurt, or of the loss of his life.

9. They that have no care of their own health and being.

10. They that procure, or consent to the procuring of abortive children.

THE DUTIES OF THE SEVENTH COMMANDMENT.

7. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

To keep our bodies in temperance, sobriety, and chastity.

OFFENDERS AGAINST THE SEVENTH COMMANDMENT.

1. They that by adultery, incest, fornication, or any other uncleanness, defile the body.

2. They that are lascivious in their speech, wanton in their gesture, and immodest in their attire.

3. They that be unclean and lustful in their thoughts.

4. They that delight in lewd and wanton company, in idle and unchaste songs, in fond and filthy discourse.

5. They that are luxurious in their diet, and abuse their bodies, either by gluttony or drunkenness.

6. They that keep open or private stews, that solicit, or consent unto the fond love or uncleanness of others.

7. They that presume to do any thing beyond the bounds of modesty and shamefastness.

THE DUTIES OF THE EIGHTH COMMANDMENT.

8. Thou shalt not steal.

To preserve our neighbour's goods, and to suffer every man to enjoy what is his own quietly and fairly to himself.

OFFENDERS AGAINST THE EIGHTH COMMANDMENT.

1. They that go about to hurt and impair other men's estates, either by open wrong and violence, as by spoiling and robbing men of their goods; or by secret purloining and deceit, as by cheating and cunning in bargains, by false weights and measures, by all kinds of beguiling contracts, and by unlawful suits or tricks at the law.

2. They that be inordinate in gaming, and in unnecessary consuming or spending of their goods.

3. They that be immoderate in running into debt, to the loss and hindrance of their own, or of any other man's estate.

4. They that by any violence or fraud detain and keep other men's goods unto themselves.

5. They that are covetous, unjust, given to usury and oppression.

6. They that deceive or defraud the king of his subsidies and other duties; the priest of his tithes and offerings; the orphans, &c., of their legacies, the servant of his wages, and the like.

THE DUTIES OF THE NINTH COMMANDMENT.

9. Thou shalt not bear false witness, &c.

To preserve every man's good name, to bear witness to the truth, and to speak well of them that deserve not otherwise.

OFFENDERS AGAINST THE NINTH COMMANDMENT.

1. They that bring in false witness or unjust accusations against any man.

2. They that openly slander, or secretly detract from his credit and estimation.

3. They that are given to flattery and to telling of lies or false tales.

4. They that inordinately divulge, or blaze abroad other men's faults and infirmities.

5. They that conceal the truth, to the prejudice of another, being required by justice or charity to give testimony thereunto.

THE DUTIES OF THE TENTH COMMANDMENT.

10. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's, &c.

1. To content ourselves with what we have of our own, and with that estate of life whereunto God hath called us.

2. To covet nothing that belongs to other men.

OFFENDERS AGAINST THE TENTH COMMANDMENT.

1. They, who though they unjustly possess not, yet covet and desire that which is another man's, as his wife, his fortunes, and the like.

2. They that envy other men's wealth and prosperity.

3. They that with greediness hunt after the riches, pleasures, and honours of this world.

4. They that having food and raiment, are over solicitous, and disquieted in their minds for more.

THE PRECEPTS OF THE CHURCH.

1. To observe the Festivals and Holy days appointed.

2. To keep the Fasting days with devotion and abstinence.

3. To observe the Ecclesiastical Customs and Ceremonies established, and that without frowardness or contradiction.

4. To repair unto the public service of the Church for Matins and Evensong, with other holy offices at times appointed, unless there be a just and an unfeigned cause to the contrary.

5. To receive the Blessed Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ with frequent devotion, and three times a-year at least, of which times Easter to be always one. And for better preparation thereunto, as occasion is, to disburthen and quit our consciences of those sins that may grieve us, or scruples that may trouble us, to a learned and discreet priest, and from him to receive advice, and the benefit of absolution.

THE SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH.

The principal and truly so called, (as generally necessary to salvation,) are Baptism and the Lord's Supper.

The other five, that is to say, Confirmation, Penitence, Orders, Matrimony, and Visitation of the Sick, or Extreme Unction, though they be sometimes called and have the name of Sacraments, yet have they not the like nature that the two principal and true Sacraments have.

A COLLECTION OF PRIVATE DEVOTIONS FOR THE HOURS OF PRAYER.

OF THE ANCIENT AND ACCUSTOMED TIMES OF PRAYER IN GENERAL.

AT all times and in all places to give thanks and praise unto Almighty God our heavenly Father, with all manner of devout prayer and supplication, is no more than our very meet, right, and bounden duty. But inasmuch as the common employments of most, and the natural infirmities of all sorts of people be so great, that, whiles they have this body of flesh upon them, they cannot possibly attend the heavenly exercise of prayer and thanksgiving without any intermission at all, it hath therefore been the custom of religious and godly persons in all ages, to appoint themselves certain set TIMES AND HOURS of the day, wherein to perform their devotions. By which means, it came to pass, that, as other careless people spent the whole day either in their own affairs or pleasures, these men bestowed it, or the chief and more eminent parts of it at least, in the affairs and service of God.

They that understood Christ's parable^a so as if "men ought always to pray," and to do nothing else, mistook the matter, and were put into the catalogue of heretics for their labour. They, on the other side, that went about to take away all set times of prayer, to maintain their affected liberty, and to do it only when they list, have deserved no less blame, and incurred no milder censure. Wise men have gone an even path, and, expounding the Scripture for continual prayer, by the continual practice of the Church, have neither one way nor other offered any violence to devotion.

The practice, then, of old hath been, so to keep up prayer that men might keep up themselves withal. Three^b times a-day to perform this duty, and otherwhiles seven^c times a-day to do it, was King David's sacred resolution; but three times a-day, howsoever, "at evening, and morning, and at noonday," was his custom to pray, and that "instantly," in solemn and devout manner. After him the great Prophet of God that lived in Babylon, accustomed himself to kneel upon his knees, and in his chamber to pray three times a-day towards Jerusalem^d, (saith the story,) "as he was always wont to do."

From which holy examples it afterwards came to pass, that what was by them so religiously observed under the law, three times a-day (at least) to offer up prayers and thanksgiving to Almighty God, besides the morning and the evening sacrifice^e, was by Christians as piously continued and practised under the Gospel also; both Jews and Christians being in this duty but equal servants to the same Trinity, the God both of Law and Gospel. "It is from the prophet Daniel (saith St. Cyprian) that we Christians have our THIRD, our SIXTH, and our NINTH hour of prayer, which we duly observe in reverence of the BLESSED TRINITY."

Besides these, (such was the ardour of ancient piety,) they added yet more, and, as well in imitation of King David's holy resolutions before mentioned, as also in honour of those times, which the special actions of God, and of our Saviour, had, in a manner, made sacred unto them, they augmented their hours of prayer, (saith that godly Father,) and made their devotions more frequent and fervent than they were before.

Such are these hours and prayers that hereafter follow; which be not now set forth for the countenancing of their novelties that put any trust in the bare recital only of a few prayers, or place any virtue in the bead-roll, or certain number of them, at such and such set hours; but for the hearty imitation of that ancient and Christian piety, to whom the distinction of hours was but an orderly and useful, no superstitious or wanton performance of their duties.

And, surely, so small a part of our time taken up from other common actions, if not perhaps from doing ill, or doing nothing; and so small a task, though but voluntarily imposed upon ourselves for God's service, will never undo us nor ever prove to be an abridgment of our Christian liberty, who say, our delight is to be numbered with the saints of old, and profess every day that God's service is perfect freedom.

PREPARATIVE TO PRAYER.

WHEN to thy God thou speak'st,
O creature mean,

^k [Ps. xxvi. 8.]

^l [Ps. lxxxiv. 2.]

^m Ps. lxxxiv. [1, 10.]

ⁿ Rev. iv. [8, 10, 11.]

Confess faults' guilt,
Crave pardon for thy sin ;
Tread holy paths,
Call grace to guide therein.

It is the spirit
With reverence must obey
Our Maker's will,
To practise what He taught.
Make not the flesh
Thy counsel when thou pray ;
'Tis enemy
To every virtuous thought :
It is the foe
We daily feed and clothe,
It is the prison
That the soul doth loathe.

Even as Elias,
Mounting to the sky,
Did cast his mantle
To the earth behind :
So when the heart
Presents the prayer on high,
Exclude the world
From traffic with the mind.
Lips near to God,
And ranging heart within,
Is but vain babbling,
And converts to sin.

Like Abraham
Ascending up the hill
To sacrifice,
His servants left below,

That he might act
The Great Commander's will,
Without impeach
To his obedient blow ;
Even so the soul,
Remote from earthly things,
Should mount salvation's shelter,
Mercy's wings.

Nothing more grateful
In the Highest eyes ;
Nothing more firm
In danger to protect us ;
Nothing more forcible
To pierce the skies,
And not depart
Till mercy do respect us.
And as the soul
Life to the body gives,
So prayer revives
The soul ; by prayer it lives.

The Hours of Prayer.

AN ADVERTISEMENT CONCERNING THE DIVISION OF THE HOURS FOLLOWING.

It appeareth both by the histories of the Jews, and by plain observations out of the New Testament, that the space of the day, from the morning to the evening, was solemnly divided into four equal parts, which they called Hours, to wit, the First, the Third, the Sixth, and the Ninth. The First Hour comprehended the whole space from the sun being risen, about six of the clock in the morning after our account, till nine, or thereabouts. The Third Hour began from thence, and lasted till high noon with us. The Sixth, from thence to our three of the clock after noon. The Ninth, from that hour to the Vespers, or Even-song, about six in the evening, or sunset. And what was done in any part of these four spaces was indifferently taken, and said to be done in the hour, whereunto every space of time was allotted. In which respect, ST. MARK, chap. xv. 25, saith, it was the THIRD hour when they crucified Christ; and yet ST. JOHN, chap. xix. 14, saith, it was about the sixth hour before He was yet crucified. Nor is there any contradiction at all between these two Evangelists; ST. MARK understanding the last part of the Third hour, which was now at the very end, and ST. JOHN meaning, that it was now near upon the beginning of the Sixth Hour, which was immediately to follow; the ending of the Third, and the beginning of the Sixth, being both but one and the same point of time.

THE FIRST HOUR, OR THE MORNING PRAYERS.

 Which have been distinguished but of late times, being anciently both one Hour of prayer. Radul. de Rivo, in lib. de Can. observ. propos. 14.

The ANTIQUITY of the MATINS, or, MORNING PRAYER; deduced as well from the testimony of the Sacred Scriptures, as from the holy Fathers of the Church.

IN the primitive Church it was daily the first speech which those good Christians used, and the first thing they did, Ante omnia adoremus Dominum, Qui fecit nos, ("Before we do any thing, let us fall down and worship the Lord That made us^a.") They would serve God first, and then serve themselves; as St. Jerome tells the story of Hilarion;—when he and his company were somewhat early invited to their morning's refection in a vineyard, Maledictus sit, (saith the holy man,) qui priùs refectionem corporis, quam animæ quæsierit; reddamus Domino officium, oremus, psallemus, et sic properabimus, &c. ("Let him not prosper, that seeks to feed his body, before he hath refreshed his soul; or doth any thing, before he hath offered up his prayers and praises with all devotion to Almighty God," &c.)

And many are the sacred directions, and pious examples of holy men in all ages before us, whose custom it was every day to begin God's service when the day itself began, and to set apart the first hour of their morning for the more cheerful performance of their heavenly devotions; as by these subsequent testimonies may at large appear.

PREPARATORY PRAYERS to all the Hours that follow.

God be in my head and understanding.
 God be in my eyes and in my seeing.
 God be in my mouth and in my speaking.
 God be in my heart and in my thinking.
 God be at my end and my departing.

Amen.

PREVENT me, O Lord, in all my doings with Thy most gracious favour, and further me with Thy continual help; that in all my works, begun, continued, and ended in Thee, I may glorify Thy Holy Name, and finally by Thy mercy obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Confession.

Almighty and most merciful Father; I have erred and strayed from Thy ways like a lost sheep. I have followed too much the devices and desires of mine own heart. I have offended against Thy holy laws. I have left undone those things which I ought to have done ; and I have done those things which I ought not to have done ; and there is no health in me. But Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon me, miserable offender. Spare Thou me, O God, which confess my faults. Restore Thou me that am penitent ; according to Thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for His sake : That I may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, To the glory of Thy holy name. Amen.

The Prayer.

Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who desirest not the death of a sinner, but that he may turn from his wickedness, and live ; and hast promised to pardon them that truly repent, and unfeignedly believe Thy holy Gospel ; of Thy mercy I beseech Thee to grant me true repentance, and Thy Holy Spirit, that those things may please Thee, which I do at this present ; and that the rest of my life hereafter may be pure, and holy : so that at the last I may come to Thine eternal joy ; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE MATINS, OR MORNING PRAYER,

For the First Hour of the Day.

OUR Father, Which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation ; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

The Versicles.

Vers. O Lord, open Thou my lips.

Resp. And my mouth shall shew forth Thy praise.

Vers. O God, make speed to save me.

Resp. O Lord, make haste to help me.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

Alleluiah. Praise the Lord.

The Venite, PSALM XCV.

With which S. Ambrose saith, it was the use of the Church in his time to begin their service.

O come, let us sing unto the Lord : let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation.

Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving : and shew ourselves glad in Him with psalms.

For the Lord is a great God : and a great King above all gods.

In His hand are all the corners of the earth : and the strength of the hills is His also.

The sea is His, and He made it : and His hands prepared the dry land.

O come, let us worship, and fall down : and kneel before the Lord our Maker.

For He is the Lord our God : and we are the people of His pasture, and the sheep of His hand.

To-day if ye will hear His voice, harden not your hearts : as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness ;

When your fathers tempted Me : proved Me, and saw My works.

Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said : It is a people that do err in their hearts, for they have not known My ways ;

Unto whom I swear in My wrath : that they should not enter into My rest.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

The Hymn.

Jam lucis orto sidere.

Now that the day-star doth arise,
Beg we of God with humble cries,
Hurtful things to keep away,
While we duly spend the day.
Our tongues to guide so, that no strife
May breed disquiet in our life :
To shut and close the wandering eye,
Lest it let in vanity :
To keep the heart as pure and free
From fond and troubled fantasy :
To tame proud flesh, while we deny it
A full cup, and wanton diet.
That when the daylight shall go out,
Time bringing on the night about,
We, by leaving worldly ways,
May in silence sing God's praise. Amen.

The Antiphona.

As long as I live will I magnify Thee in this manner, and lift up my hands in Thy Name.

PSALM viii.

1. O Lord, our Governour, how excellent is Thy Name in all the world : Thou that hast set Thy glory above the heavens !

2. Out of the mouth of very babes and sucklings hast Thou ordained strength, because of Thine enemies : that Thou mightest still the enemy, and the avenger.

3. For I will consider the heavens, even the works of Thy fingers : the moon and the stars, which Thou hast ordained.

4. What is man, that Thou art mindful of him : and the son of man, that Thou visitest him ?

5. Thou madest him lower than the Angels : to crown him with glory and worship.

6. Thou makest him to have dominion of the works of Thy hands : and Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet ;

7. All sheep and oxen : yea, and the beasts of the field ;

8. The fowls of the air, and the fishes of the sea : and whatsoever walketh through the paths of the seas.

9. O Lord our Governour : how excellent is Thy Name in all the world !

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

PSALM xix.

1. The heavens declare the glory of God : and the firmament sheweth His handy-work.

2. One day telleth another : and one night certifieth another.

3. There is neither speech nor language : but their voices are heard among them.

4. Their sound is gone out into all lands : and their words into the ends of the world.

5. In them hath He set a tabernacle for the sun : which cometh forth as a bridegroom out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a giant to run his course.

6. It goeth forth from the uttermost part of the heaven, and runneth about unto the end of it again : and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

7. The law of the Lord is an undefiled law, converting the soul : the testimony of the Lord is sure, and giveth wisdom unto the simple.

8. The statutes of the Lord are right, and rejoice the heart : the commandment of the Lord is pure, and giveth light unto the eyes.

9. The fear of the Lord is clean, and endureth for ever : the judgments of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether.

10. More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold : sweeter also than honey, and the honey-comb.

11. Moreover by them is Thy servant taught : and in keeping of them there is great reward.

12. Who can tell how oft he offendeth : O cleanse Thou me from my secret faults.

13. Keep Thy servant also from presumptuous sins, lest they get the dominion over me : so shall I be undefiled, and innocent from the great offence.

14. Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart : be alway acceptable in Thy sight,

15. O Lord : my strength, and my redeemer.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

PSALM xxiv.

1. The earth is the Lord's, and all that therein is : the compass of the world, and they that dwell therein.

2. For He hath founded it upon the seas : and prepared it upon the floods.

3. Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord : or who shall rise up in His holy place ?

4. Even he that hath clean hands, and a pure heart : and that hath not lift up his mind unto vanity, nor sworn to deceive his neighbour.

5. He shall receive the blessing from the Lord : and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

6. This is the generation of them that seek Him : even of them that seek thy face, O Jacob.

7. Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors : and the King of glory shall come in.

8. Who is the King of glory : it is the Lord strong and mighty, even the Lord mighty in battle.

9. Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors : and the King of glory shall come in.

10. Who is the King of glory : even the Lord of hosts, He is the King of glory.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

The Antiphona.

As long as I live will I magnify Thee on this manner, and lift up my hands in Thy Name.

The Benediction.

Blessed are those that be undefiled in the way, and walk in the law of the Lord.

The Lesson, out of the Proverbs of Solomon.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom. If sinners entice thee, do not thou consent unto them. These six things doth the Lord hate, yea, seven are an abomination unto Him: a proud look, and a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood, an heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in running to mischief, a false witness that speaketh not the truth, and him that soweth discord among brethren. In the multitude of words there will be sin: but he that refraineth his tongue is wise. Fear God and the King, and meddle not with them that are seditious. Keep innocency, and do the thing that is right, for that will bring a man peace at the last^a.

Vers. Thy testimonies are my delight, O Lord, and my counsellors.

Resp. O give me understanding, that I may learn Thy commandments.

The Song of S. Ambrose.

Divinely composed when S. Augustine was baptized by him, and sung by them both in profession of their faith, and honour of the Blessed Trinity.

^a Ps. xxxvii. [38.]

Te Deum laudamus.

We praise Thee, O God : we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord.

All the earth doth worship Thee : the Father everlasting.

To Thee all Angels cry aloud : the Heavens, and all the Powers therein.

To Thee Cherubin, and Seraphin : continually do cry.

Holy, Holy, Holy : Lord God of Sabaoth.

Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty : of Thy Glory.

The glorious company of the Apostles : praise Thee.

The goodly fellowship of the Prophets : praise Thee.

The noble army of Martyrs : praise Thee.

The holy Church throughout all the world : doth acknowledge Thee ;

The Father : of an infinite Majesty ;

Thy honourable, true : and only Son ;

Also the Holy Ghost : the Comforter.

Thou art the King of Glory : O Christ.

Thou art the everlasting Son : of the Father.

When Thou tookest upon Thee to deliver man : Thou didst not abhor the Virgin's womb.

When Thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death : Thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.

Thou sittest at the right hand of God : in the Glory of the Father.

We believe that Thou shalt come : to be our Judge.

We therefore pray Thee, help Thy servants : whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy precious blood.

Make them to be numbered with Thy Saints :
in glory everlasting.

O Lord, save Thy people : and bless Thine heritage.

Govern them : and lift them up for ever.

Day by day : we magnify Thee ;

And we worship Thy Name : ever, world without end.

Vouchsafe, O Lord : to keep us this day without sin.

O Lord, have mercy upon us : have mercy upon us.

O Lord, let Thy mercy lighten upon us : as our trust is in Thee.

O Lord, in Thee have I trusted : let me never be confounded.

The Laudes, or the Praises at Morning Prayer.

Alleluiah. Praise the Lord.

The Antiphona.

Blessed are they that dwell in Thy house, they will be always praising Thee.

PSALM cxlviii.

1. O praise the Lord of heaven : praise Him in the height.

2. Praise Him, all ye Angels of His : praise Him, all His host.

3. Praise Him, sun and moon : praise Him, all ye stars and light.

4. Praise Him, all ye heavens : and ye waters that are above the heavens.

5. Let them praise the Name of the Lord : for He spake the word, and they were made ; He commanded, and they were created.

6. He hath made them fast for ever and ever :
He hath given them a law which shall not be broken.

7. Praise the Lord upon earth : ye dragons, and all deeps ;

8. Fire and hail, snow and vapours : wind and storm, fulfilling His word ;

9. Mountains and all hills : fruitful trees and all cedars ;

10. Beasts and all cattle : worms and feathered fowls ;

11. Kings of the earth and all people : princes and all judges of the world ;

12. Young men and maidens, old men and children, praise the Name of the Lord : for His Name only is excellent, and His praise above heaven and earth.

13. He shall exalt the horn of His people, all His saints shall praise Him : even the children of Israel, even the people that serveth Him.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

PSALM cxlix.

1. O sing unto the Lord a new song : let the congregation of saints praise Him.

2. Let Israel rejoice in Him that made him : and let the children of Sion be joyful in their King.

3. Let them praise His Name in the dance : let them sing praises unto Him with tabret and harp.

4. For the Lord hath pleasure in His people : and helpeth the meek-hearted.

5. Let the saints be joyful with glory : let them rejoice in their beds.

6. Let the praises of God be in their mouth : and a two-edged sword in their hands ;

7. To be avenged of the heathen : and to rebuke the people ;

8. To bind their kings in chains : and their nobles with links of iron.

9. That they may be avenged of them, as it is written : Such honour have all His saints.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

PSALM cl.

1. O praise God in His holiness : praise Him in the firmament of His power.

2. Praise Him in His noble acts : praise Him according to His excellent greatness.

3. Praise Him in the sound of the trumpet : praise Him upon the lute and harp.

4. Praise Him in the cymbals and dances : praise Him upon the strings and pipe.

5. Praise Him upon the well-tuned cymbals : praise Him upon the loud cymbals.

6. Let every thing that hath breath : praise the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

The Antiphona.

Let my mouth be filled with Thy praise, that I may sing of Thy glory and honour all the day long.

Or, the Song of the Three Children, called Benedicite.

O all ye Works of the Lord, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O ye Angels of the Lord, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O ye Heavens, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O ye Waters that be above the Firmament, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O all ye Powers of the Lord, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O ye Sun, and Moon, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O ye Stars of Heaven, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O ye Showers, and Dew, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O ye Winds of God, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O ye Dews, and Frosts, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O ye Frost, and Cold, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O ye Ice, and Snow, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O ye Nights, and Days, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O ye Light, and Darkness, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O ye Lightnings, and Clouds, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O let the Earth bless the Lord : yea, let it praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O ye Mountains, and Hills, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O all ye Green Things upon the Earth, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O ye Wells, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O ye Seas, and Floods, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O ye Whales, and all that move in the Waters, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O all ye Fowls of the Air, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O all ye Beasts, and Cattle, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O ye Children of Men, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O let Israel bless the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O ye Priests of the Lord, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O ye Servants of the Lord, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O ye Spirits, and Souls of the Righteous, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O ye holy, and humble Men of heart, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

O Ananias, Azarias, and Misael, bless ye the Lord : praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

The Benediction.

Blessed is the womb that bare Thee, O Lord, and the paps that gave Thee suck.

The Lesson.

[S.] Mat. v. 3.

Blessed are the poor in spirit : for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they that mourn : for they shall receive comfort.

Blessed are the meek : for they shall receive the inheritance of the earth.

Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness : for they shall be satisfied.

Blessed are the merciful : for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart : for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peace-makers : for they shall be called the children of God.

Blessed are they which suffer persecution for righteousness' sake : for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Vers. Make me to go in the path of Thy commandments.

Resp. For therein is my desire.

The Song of Zachary the Priest, called Benedictus.

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel : for He hath visited, and redeemed His people ;

And hath raised up a mighty salvation for us : in the house of His servant David ;

As He spake by the mouth of His holy Prophets : which have been since the world began ;

That we should be saved from our enemies : and from the hands of all that hate us :

To perform the mercy promised to our forefathers : and to remember His holy Covenant :

To perform the oath which He sware to our forefather Abraham : that He would give us ;

That we, being delivered out of the hands of our enemies : might serve Him without fear ;

In holiness and righteousness before Him : all the days of our life.

And Thou, Child, shalt be called the Prophet of the Highest : for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare His ways ;

To give knowledge of salvation unto His people : for the remission of their sins,

Through the tender mercy of our God : whereby the day-spring from on high hath visited us ;

To give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death : and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

The Creed.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth :

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son our Lord, Which was conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary, Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead, and buried, He descended into hell ; The third day He rose again from the dead, He ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty ; From thence He shall come to judge both the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost ; The holy Catholic Church ; The Communion of Saints ; The forgiveness of sins ; The Resurrection of the body, And the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Our Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation ; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Vers. O Lord, shew Thy mercy upon us.

Resp. And grant us Thy salvation.

Vers. O Lord, save the King.

Resp. And mercifully hear us when we call upon Thee.

Vers. Endue Thy ministers with righteousness.

Resp. And make Thy chosen people joyful.

Vers. O Lord, save Thy people.

Resp. And bless Thine inheritance.

Vers. Give peace in our time, O Lord.

Resp. Because there is none other that fighteth for us, but only Thou, O God.

Vers. O Lord, make clean our hearts within us.

Resp. And take not Thy Holy Spirit from us.

Vers. O Lord, hear my prayer.

Resp. And let my crying come unto Thee.

Then the Collects proper for the week, with these prayers following.

The Second Collect, for Peace.

O God, Which art the Author of peace and love of concord, in knowledge of Whom standeth our eternal life, Whose service is perfect freedom; Defend us Thy humble servants in all the assaults of our enemies; that we, surely trusting in Thy defence, may not fear the power of any adversaries, through the might of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Third Collect, for Grace.

O Lord, our heavenly Father, Almighty and everlasting God, Which hast safely brought us to the beginning of this day; Defend us in the same with Thy mighty power; and grant that this day we fall into no sin, neither run into any kind of danger; but that all our doings may be ordered by Thy governance, to do always that that is righteous in Thy sight; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A DEVOUT PRAYER which may be used at all times.

I. Grant me, gracious Lord, a pure intention of my heart, and a stedfast regard to Thy glory in all my actions. Possess my mind continually with Thy presence, and ravish it with Thy love, that my only delight may be, to be embraced in the arms of Thy protection.

II. Be Thou a light unto mine eyes, music to mine ears, sweetness to my taste, and a full contentment to my heart. Be Thou my sunshine in the day, my food at the table, my repose in the night, my clothing in nakedness, and my succour in all necessities.

III. Lord Jesu, I give Thee my body, my soul, my substance, my fame, my friends, my liberty, and my life: dispose of me, and of all that is mine, as it seemeth best to Thee, and to the glory of Thy blessed Name.

IV. I am not now mine, but Thine. Therefore claim me as Thy right, keep me as Thy charge, and love me as Thy child. Fight for me when I am assaulted, heal me when I am wounded, and revive me when I am destroyed.

V. My Lord and my God, I beseech Thee to give me patience in troubles, humility in comforts, constancy in temptations, and victory against all my ghostly enemies. Grant me sorrow for my sins, thankfulness for Thy benefits, fear of Thy judgments, love of Thy mercies, and mindfulness of Thy presence for evermore.

VI. Make me humble to my superiors and friendly to my equals: make me ready to please all, and loth to offend any: make me loving to my friends, and charitable to mine enemies.

VII. Give me modesty in my countenance, gravity in my behaviour, deliberation in my speech, holiness in my thoughts, and righteousness in all my actions. Let Thy mercy cleanse me from my sins, and let Thy grace bring forth in me the fruits of everlasting life.

VIII. Lord, let me be obedient without arguing, humble without fawning, patient without grudging^b, pure without corruption, merry without lightness, sad without mistrust, sober without dulness, true without doubleness, fearing Thee without desperation, and trusting in Thee without presumption.

IX. Let me be joyful for nothing but that which pleaseth Thee; nor sorrowful for any thing but that which doth displease Thee. Let my labour be my delight, which is for Thee; and let all rest weary me, which is not in Thee.

X. Give me a waking spirit and a diligent soul, that I may seek to know Thy will, and when I know it truly, may perform it faithfully, to the honour and glory of Thy ever blessed Name. Amen.

The Final Prayers.

Assist us mercifully, O Lord, in these our supplications and prayers, and dispose the way of Thy servants toward the attainment of everlasting salvation; that, among all the changes and chances of this mortal life, they may ever be defended by Thy most gracious and ready help; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

^b murmuring.

Almighty Lord, and everliving God, vouchsafe, we beseech Thee, to direct, sanctify, and govern, both our hearts and bodies, in the ways of Thy laws, and in the works of Thy commandments; that through Thy most mighty protection, both here and ever, we may be preserved in body and soul; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Doxology.

Now unto the King eternal, the immortal, invisible, and only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen^c.

The end of the Matins, or First Hour of Prayer.

THE THIRD HOUR OF PRAYERS;
Or, the Middle Space between Sun-rising and Noon.

The ANCIENT USE of PRAYERS at the Third Hour.

The third hour of the day is commonly called by the Italians, The Golden hour; and in the decrees of the Church, Distin. 44. Can. fin., it is termed The Holy hour. A time in a manner made sacred to Christians, even by the Holy Ghost Himself, saith Rupertus; as,

They were all with one accord in one place; and suddenly there came a sound from Heaven, and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost ^d.

✠ Where, at the fifteenth verse, by those words of St. Peter (it is but the third hour of the day) it appeareth, that this descent of the Holy Ghost was at the third hour of prayer, at which time and godly exercise the Apostles were then assembled.

Pilate said unto them, What will you that I do to the King of the Jews? They cried again, Crucify Him, Crucify Him, &c. ^e And it was the third hour. Verse 25.

And he kneeled three times a-day before the Lord ^f. The first of which times (saith S. Cyprian and S. Hierom) hath been always understood to be the third hour of prayer.

CONST. CLEM. lib. viii. cap. 34.—Let your prayers be made at the third hour also; for then it was when Pilate gave sentence upon our Lord and Saviour to have Him crucified. Mark xv.

TERTUL. de Jejun. cap. 10.—The third, the sixth, and the ninth hours, as they are the more eminent parts of the day, to distribute and distinguish the public affairs of men; so have they been accounted the most solemn times of prayer and divine duties in the Church of God. For at this third hour were the holy Apostles met together at their devotions, and filled with the power of the Holy Ghost.

S. CYPRIAN. de Orat. Dom.—In the exercise of devotion and prayer we read that the three children, and the prophet Daniel, men strong in faith, and victorious in captivity, observed the third hour of the day; a mystery, no doubt, of the Holy and Blessed Trinity, which was afterwards to be made manifest, and a type of the Holy Ghost's descent at that very hour.

S. BASIL. in Reg. fus. Disp. Int. 37.—At the third hour of the day let us give ourselves to holy supplications and prayers, having in continual remembrance the most glorious gift of the Holy Ghost, which was then bestowed upon the Apostles of Christ, as they were devoutly met together at their prayers and holy exercises. And let us beseech Almighty God, that we also may be made fit to receive the like blessed sanctification of the Spirit, to be our director and instructor in all things that we do.

S. HIERON. ad EUSTOCH. — Who knoweth not that the third hour is one of those times which are allotted to prayer?

IDEM, de obitu PAULÆ.—At the third, sixth, and ninth hours she said her Psalter, and orderly performed her devotions.

ISID. de Eccl. off. lib. i. cap. 19.—For the service of the Holy and undivided Trinity are these three hours devoted to prayer.

PRAYERS FOR THE THIRD HOUR.

OUR Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Vers. O God, make speed to save me.

Resp. O Lord, make haste to help me.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

Alleluiah. Praise the Lord.

The Hymn.

Veni Creator.

Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire,
And lighten with celestial fire.
Thou the anointing Spirit art,
Who dost Thy sevenfold gifts impart.
Thy blessed unction from above
Is comfort, life, and fire of love.
Enable with perpetual light
The dulness of our blinded sight.
Anoint and cheer our soiled face
With the abundance of Thy grace.
Keep far our foes ; give peace at home :
Where Thou art guide, no ill can come.
Teach us to know the Father, Son,
And Thee, of Both, to be but One ;
That through the ages all along
This may be our endless song ;
*Praise to Thy eternal merit,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.*

Amen.

The Antiphona.

Shew Thy servant the light of Thy countenance, and save me for Thy mercy's sake.

PSALM XV.

1. Lord, who shall dwell in Thy tabernacle : or who shall rest in Thy holy hill ?

2. Even he, that leadeth an uncorrupt life : and doth the thing which is right, and speaketh the truth from his heart.

3. He that hath used no deceit in his tongue, nor done evil to his neighbour : and hath not slandered his neighbour.

4. He that setteth not by himself, but is lowly in his own eyes : and maketh much of them that fear the Lord.

5. He that sweareth unto his neighbour, and disappointeth him not : though it were to his own hindrance.

6. He that hath not given his money upon usury : nor taken reward against the innocent.

7. Whoso doth these things : shall never fall.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end.. Amen.

PSALM XXV.

1. Unto Thee, O Lord, will I lift up my soul ; my God, I have put my trust in Thee : O let me not be confounded, neither let mine enemies triumph over me.

2. For all they that hope in Thee shall not be ashamed : but such as transgress without a cause shall be put to confusion.

3. Shew me Thy ways, O Lord : and teach me Thy paths.

4. Lead me forth in Thy truth, and learn me :

for Thou art the God of my salvation : in Thee hath been my hope all the day long.

5. Call to remembrance, O Lord, Thy tender mercies : and Thy loving-kindness, which hath been ever of old.

6. O remember not the sins and offences of my youth : but according to Thy mercy think Thou upon me, O Lord, for Thy goodness.

7. Gracious and righteous is the Lord : therefore will He teach sinners in the way.

8. Them that be meek shall He guide in judgment : and such as be gentle, them shall He learn His way.

9. All the paths of the Lord are mercy and truth : unto such as keep His covenant, and His testimonies.

10. For Thy Name's sake, O Lord : be merciful unto my sin, for it is great.

11. What man is he that feareth the Lord : him shall He teach in the way that He shall choose.

12. His soul shall dwell at ease : and his seed shall inherit the land.

13. The secret of the Lord is among them that fear Him : and He will shew them His covenant.

14. Mine eyes are ever looking unto the Lord : for He shall pluck my feet out of the net.

15. Turn Thee unto me, and have mercy upon me : for I am desolate and in misery.

16. The sorrows of my heart are enlarged : O bring Thou me out of my troubles.

17. Look upon mine adversity and misery : and forgive me all my sin.

18. Consider mine enemies, how many they are : and they bear a tyrannous hate against me.

19. O keep my soul, and deliver me : let me not be confounded, for I have put my trust in Thee.

20. Let perfectness and righteous dealing wait upon me : for mine hope hath been in Thee.

21. Deliver Israel, O God : out of all his troubles.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

PSALM cxlv.

1. I will magnify Thee, O God, my King : and I will praise Thy Name for ever and ever.

2. Every day will I give thanks unto Thee : and praise Thy Name for ever and ever.

3. Great is the Lord, and marvellous, worthy to be praised : there is no end to His greatness.

4. One generation shall praise Thy works unto another : and declare Thy power.

5. As for me, I will be talking of Thy worship : Thy glory, Thy praise, and wondrous works ;

6. So that men shall speak of the might of Thy marvellous acts : and I will also tell of Thy greatness.

7. The memorial of Thine abundant kindness shall be shewed : and men shall sing of Thy righteousness.

8. The Lord is gracious, and merciful : long-suffering, and of great goodness.

9. The Lord is loving unto every man : and His mercy is over all His works.

10. All Thy works praise Thee, O Lord : and Thy saints give thanks unto Thee.

11. They shew the glory of Thy kingdom : and talk of Thy power ;

12. That Thy power, Thy glory, and mightiness of Thy kingdom : might be known unto men.

13. Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom : and Thy dominion endureth throughout all ages.

14. The Lord upholdeth all such as fall : and lifteth up all those that be down.

15. The eyes of all wait upon Thee, O Lord : and Thou givest them their meat in due season.

16. Thou openest Thine hand : and fillest all things living with plenteousness.

17. The Lord is righteous in all His ways : and holy in all His works.

18. The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon Him : yea, all such as call upon Him faithfully.

19. He will fulfil the desire of them that fear Him : He also will hear their cry, and will help them.

20. The Lord preserveth all them that love Him : but scattereth abroad all the ungodly.

21. My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord : and let all flesh give thanks unto His Holy Name for ever and ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

The Benediction.

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel from everlasting, and world without end.

The Lesson.

EPHESIANS vi.

Take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to resist the evil day, and stand perfect in all things. Stand therefore, and your loins gird with the truth, having on the breast-plate of righteousness, and having shoes on your feet, that ye may be prepared for the Gospel of peace. Above all, take to you the shield of faith, wherewith ye may quench all the fiery darts of the wicked one. Take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. And pray always with all manner of prayer and supplication in the Spirit: and watch thereunto with instance.

Vers. O Lord, hear my prayer.

Resp. And let my cry come unto Thee.

The Prayers.

I. Almighty God, which as about this hour didst instruct, and replenish the hearts of Thy faithful servants, by sending down upon them the light of Thy Holy Spirit: Grant me by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, that I may both perceive and know what I ought to do, and also have grace and power faithfully to fulfil the same; through the merits of our Lord Jesus Christ, who was also at this hour contented to receive the bitter sentence of death for us, and now liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the same blessed Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

II. Almighty God, the fountain of all goodness, and the well-spring of divine graces, who hast vouchsafed to regenerate me, being born in sin, by water and the Holy Ghost in the blessed laver of Baptism, thereby receiving me into the number of Thine elect children, and making me an heir of everlasting life, in the communion of Thy glorious saints: strengthen me, I beseech Thee, O Lord, with that blessed Spirit of Thine, the Ghostly Comforter; and daily increase in me Thy manifold gifts of grace, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and ghostly strength, the spirit of knowledge and true godliness, and fulfil me, O Lord, with the spirit of Thy holy fear, even through Him who hath sent down the Spirit upon His Church, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Lord's Name be praised, from the rising up of the sun, unto the going down thereof.

The End of the Third Hour.

THE SIXTH HOUR OF PRAYER; OR, MID-DAY.

The ANCIENT CUSTOM of PRAYERS at the Sixth Hour, or Noon-day.

For many reasons (saith S. Cyprian) is the sixth hour of prayer observed by devout Christians, as being a time that hath been specially consecrated and advanced thereunto, both in the Old and New Testament.

And at noon-day will I pray, and that instantly: and He shall hear my voice^g.

There they crucified Him; and it was about the sixth hour^h.

☞ At which time our Saviour offered His last prayers upon the altar of His cross.

Peter went up into his house to pray about the sixth hourⁱ.

CLEM. CONST. lib. viii. cap. 34.—Let your prayers be made also at the sixth hour; for at that time

^g Ps. lv. 18.

ⁱ Acts x. 9.

was our Lord and Saviour crucified upon the cross for us.

TERTUL. de Jejun. cap. 10.—The sixth hour hath been ever accounted a solemn time for devotion and prayer.

S. CYPRIAN. de Orat. Dom.—Besides, we observe the sixth hour, not only for that we find holy men before us to have done the like both in the Old Testament, as Daniel in his chamber; and in the New, as Peter upon his house: but also for that our Lord Jesus Christ was at this hour exalted upon the cross, like the serpent in the wilderness, that whosoever turneth to Him might be healed.

S. BASIL. in Reg. fus. Disp. Int. 37.—When we pray at the sixth hour, we imitate that holy saint, who said, And at noon time will I call upon Thee^k. There is an arrow that flieth about, and a devil that destroyeth in the noonday; fit it is we should then seek, and take heed to be delivered from them.

S. ATHANAS. de Meditat.—Be instant at prayers with God, and worship Him that hung upon the cross for thee at the sixth hour of the day.

S. ISIDOR. lib. vi. Etym. cap. ult.—The third, the sixth, and the ninth hours, they divide the day into even spaces of time, and are therefore allotted to prayer; that, whilst we are perhaps intent upon other business, and may forget our duties towards God, the very hour, when it comes, may put us in mind thereof. And how can we do less than three times in the day at least (besides morning and evening, which will invite us to prayer of themselves) fall down and worship the Blessed Trinity, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost?

^k [Ps. liv. 18.]

PRAYERS FOR THE SIXTH HOUR.

OUR Father, Which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Vers. O God, make speed to save me.

Resp. O Lord, make haste to help me.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

Alleluiah. Praise the Lord.

The Hymn.

Who more can crave
 Than God for me hath done?
 To free a slave
 That gave His only Son.
 Blest be that hour
 When He repaired my loss;
 I never will Forget my Saviour's Cross.
 Whose death revives
 My soul. Once was I dead;
 But now I'll raise
 Again my drooping head;

THE SIXTH HOUR.

And singing say,
And saying sing for ever,
Blest be my Lord
That did my soul deliver.

Amen.

The Antiphona.

The Lord hath redeemed me from all my sins.

PSALM ciii.

1. Praise the Lord, O my soul : and all that is within me praise His holy Name.

2. Praise the Lord, O my soul : and forget not all His benefits ;

3. Which forgiveth all thy sin : and healeth all thine infirmities ;

4. Which saveth thy life from destruction : and crowneth thee with mercy and loving-kindness ;

5. Which satisfieth thy mouth with good things : making thee young and lusty as an eagle.

6. The Lord executeth righteousness and judgment : for all them that are oppressed with wrong.

7. He shewed His ways unto Moses : His works unto the children of Israel.

8. The Lord is full of compassion and mercy : long-suffering, and of great goodness.

9. He will not be alway chiding : neither keepeth He His anger for ever.

10. He hath not dealt with us after our sins : nor rewarded us according to our wickedness.

11. For look how high the heaven is in comparison of the earth : so great is His mercy also toward them that fear Him.

12. Look how wide also the east is from the west : so far hath He set our sins from us.

13. Yea, like as a father pitieth his own children : even so is the Lord merciful unto them that fear Him.

14. For He knoweth whereof we are made : He remembereth that we are but dust.

15. The days of man are but as grass : for he flourisheth as a flower of the field.

16. For as soon as the wind goeth over it, it is gone : and the place thereof shall know it no more.

17. But the merciful goodness of the Lord endureth for ever and ever upon them that fear Him : and His righteousness upon children's children ;

18. Even upon such as keep His covenant : and think upon His commandments to do them.

19. The Lord hath prepared His seat in heaven : and His kingdom ruleth over all.

20. O praise the Lord, ye angels of His, ye that excel in strength : ye that fulfil His commandments, and hearken unto the voice of His words.

21. O praise the Lord, all ye His hosts : ye servants of His that do His pleasure.

22. O speak good of the Lord, all ye works of His, in all places of His dominion : praise thou the Lord, O my soul.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

PSALM cxvi.

1. I am well pleased : that the Lord hath heard the voice of my prayer ;

2. That He hath inclined His ear unto me : therefore will I call upon Him as long as I live.

3. The snares of death compassed me round about : and the pains of hell gat hold upon me.

4. I shall find trouble and heaviness, and I shall call upon the Name of the Lord : O Lord, I beseech Thee, deliver my soul.

5. Gracious is the Lord, and righteous : yea, our God is merciful.

6. The Lord preserveth the simple : I was in misery, and He helped me.

7. Turn again then unto thy rest, O my soul : for the Lord hath rewarded thee.

8. And why ? Thou hast delivered my soul from death : mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.

9. I will walk before the Lord : in the land of the living.

10. I believed, and therefore will I speak ; but I was sore troubled : I said in my haste, All men are liars.

11. What reward shall I give unto the Lord : for all the benefits that He hath done unto me ?

12. I will receive the cup of salvation : and call upon the Name of the Lord.

13. I will pay my vows now in the presence of all His people : right dear in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints.

14. Behold, O Lord, how that I am Thy servant : I am Thy servant, and the son of Thine handmaid ; Thou hast broken my bonds in sunder.

15. I will offer unto Thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving : and will call upon the Name of the Lord.

16. I will pay my vows unto the Lord, in the sight of all His people : in the courts of the Lord's house, even in the midst of Thee, O Jerusalem. Praise the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

PSALM cxvij.

1. O praise the Lord, all ye heathen : praise Him, all ye nations.

2. For His merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us : and the truth of the Lord endureth for ever. Praise the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

The Benediction.

Blessed is he whose unrighteousness is forgiven, and whose sin is covered.

The Lesson.

PHIL. ii.

Let the same mind be in you, that was in Christ Jesus, Who, when He was in the shape of God, yet made Himself of no reputation, but humbled Himself, and became obedient to the death, even to the death of the Cross. Wherefore God hath also exalted Him on high, and given Him a Name, which is above all names, that at the NAME OF JESUS every knee should bow, both of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth, and that all tongues should confess, that Jesus Christ is the Lord, unto the praise of God the Father.

Vers. I will make my prayer unto Thee, O Lord.

Resp. In an acceptable time.

The Prayers.

I. Save us, O blessed Saviour of the world, Who by Thy Cross and precious Blood hast redeemed us: Help us, we beseech Thee, O God of our salvation.

II. O Lord Jesus Christ, the blessed Son of God, Who hast suffered death for me upon the cross, that I might thereby be brought unto eternal life: have mercy on me, I beseech Thee, both now and at the hour of death: and grant unto me Thy humble servant, with all other good people that have this Thy blessed Passion in devout remembrance, a prosperous and godly life in this present world, and through Thy grace eternal glory in the world to come; where, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, Thou livest and reignest ever one God, world without end. Amen.

The Lord's Name be praised, from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.

The End of the Sixth Hour.

THE NINTH HOUR OF PRAYER;
Or, Mid-space between Noon and Sun-set.

The ANCIENT USE of PRAYERS at the Ninth Hour.

That the ninth hour also hath ever been a chosen and a solemn time for devout prayer, these places of the Holy Scripture, and the Old Fathers, will give sufficient testimony.

Peter and John went up into the temple at the ninth hour of prayer¹, or, at that hour of prayer, which is called the ninth hour.

Cornelius was a devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, who gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God continually. He saw in a manifest vision, and it was at the ninth hour of the day, an angel of God coming unto him, who said, Cornelius, thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God^m.

And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, and yielded up the ghostⁿ.

CLEM. CONST. lib. viii. cap. 34.—We observe also the ninth hour of prayer, for that at this time the sun was darkened, and the earth shaken with horror, as being not able to suffer, or to look upon those bitter cruelties of the Jews, wherewith the God of heaven and earth was despited.

S. CYPR. de Orat. Dom.—Our Lord and Saviour was exalted upon His cross at the sixth hour of the day, and there being tormented three long hours to-ⁿ Matt. xxvii. 50.

gether, at the ninth hour He made perfect our redemption, and yielded up His own life to save ours. So mysterious were these times of prayer, which holy men of old had chosen for the exercise of their piety.

S. BASIL. in Reg. Int. 37.—The Apostles themselves have taught us how fit and needful our prayers are at the ninth hour of the day; an hour which Peter and John observed, wherein to go up to the very temple and pray^o; it being a sacred memorial also of that time when our Lord Jesus was put to death, that He might keep us from death.

S. HIER. in Dan. vi.—The Church hath ever been accustomed to interpret one of the prophet's times of prayer to be the ninth hour, and to observe it accordingly.

RAB. MAUR. lib. ii. de Inst. Cl. cap. 6.—The ninth hour of the day is therefore accounted a solemn and a sacred time among us, that remembering how Christ at this hour commended up His spirit into the hands of His Father, we also with devout prayers and supplications might yield up unto Him both our souls and bodies as a living sacrifice, &c.

RUP. lib. i. de Div. off. cap. 5.—At this hour did the Sacraments of the Church flow from the side of our Saviour; the blood whereby we are redeemed, and the water wherewith we are regenerate; Jesus yielded up the ghost; the thief was admitted into Paradise; the labourers sent into the vineyard, and forgiveness of sins promised to them that repent and come unto Christ, even at the last hour of the day. Pray we therefore with all supplication, &c.

^o [Acts iii. 1.]

PRAYERS FOR THE NINTH HOUR.

Our Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation: But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Vers. O God, make speed to save me.

Resp. O Lord, make haste to help me.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

Alleluiah. Praise the Lord.

The Hymn.

O Thou God Almighty,
 Father of all mercy,
 Fountain of all pity,
 Grant we beseech Thee,
 Of Thy great clemency,
 On us to have mercy,
 Now and at the hour of death.

Amen.

The Antiphona.

And now, Lord, what is my hope? truly; my hope is even in Thee.

PSALM xxxiv.

1. I will alway give thanks unto the Lord : His praise shall ever be in my mouth.

2. My soul shall make her boast of the Lord : the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.

3. O praise the Lord with me : and let us magnify His Name together.

4. I sought the Lord, and He heard me : yea, He delivered me out of all my fear.

5. They had an eye unto Him, and were lightened : and their faces were not ashamed.

6. Lo, the poor crieth, and the Lord heareth him : yea, and saveth him out of all his troubles.

7. The angel of the Lord tarrieth round about them that fear Him : and delivereth them.

8. O taste, and see, how gracious the Lord is : blessed is the man that trusteth in Him.

9. O fear the Lord, ye that be His saints : for they that fear Him lack nothing.

10. The lions do lack, and suffer hunger : but they which seek the Lord shall want no manner of thing that is good.

11. Come, ye children, and hearken unto me : I will teach you the fear of the Lord.

12. What man is he that lusteth to live, and would fain see good days : Keep thy tongue from evil : and thy lips, that they speak no guile.

13. Eschew evil, and do good : seek peace, and ensue it.

14. The eyes of the Lord are over the righteous : and His ears are open unto their prayers.

15. The countenance of the Lord is against them that do evil : to root out the remembrance of them from the earth.

16. The righteous cry, and the Lord heareth them : and delivereth them out of all their troubles.

17. The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a contrite heart : and will save such as be of an humble spirit.

18. Great are the troubles of the righteous : but the Lord delivereth him out of all.

19. He keepeth all his bones : so that not one of them is broken.

20. But misfortune shall slay the ungodly : and they that hate the righteous shall be desolate.

21. The Lord delivereth the souls of His servants : and all they that put their trust in Him shall not be destitute.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

PSALM xlvii.

1. God is our hope and strength : a very present help in trouble.

2. Therefore will we not fear, though the earth be moved : and though the hills be carried into the midst of the sea.

3. Though the waters thereof rage and swell : and though the mountains shake at the tempest of the same.

4. The rivers of the floods thereof shall make glad the city of God : the holy place of the tabernacle of the most Highest.

5. God is in the midst of her, therefore shall she not be removed : God shall help her, and that right early.

6. The heathen make much ado, and the kingdoms are moved : but God hath shewed His voice, and the earth shall melt away.

7. The Lord of hosts is with us : the God of Jacob is our refuge.

8. O come hither, and behold the works of the Lord : what destruction He hath brought upon the earth.

9. He maketh wars to cease in all the world : He breaketh the bow, and knappeth the spear in sunder, and burneth the chariots in the fire.

10. Be still then, and know that I am God : I will be exalted among the heathen, and I will be exalted in the earth.

11. The Lord of hosts is with us : the God of Jacob is our refuge.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

PSALM liv.

1. Save me, O God, for Thy Name's sake : avenge me in Thy strength.

2. Hear my prayer, O God : and hearken unto the words of my mouth.

3. For strangers are risen up against me : and tyrants, which have not God before their eyes, seek after my soul.

4. Behold, God is my helper : the Lord is with them that uphold my soul.

5. He shall reward evil unto mine enemies : destroy Thou them in Thy truth.

6. An offering of a free heart will I give Thee, and praise Thy Name, O Lord : because it is so comfortable.

7. For He hath delivered me out of all my trouble : and mine eye hath seen His desire upon mine enemies.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

The Benediction.

Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.

The Lesson.

Eph. v. [1.] Rom. xii. [1.]

Be ye followers of God as dear children : and walk in love, even as Christ loved us, and gave Himself for us, an offering, and a sacrifice of a sweet savour unto God. Offer up your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service of God. And fashion not yourselves like unto this world.

Vers. The Lord is loving unto every man.

Resp. And His mercy is over all His works.

The Prayers.

I. Hear me, O Lord, and remember now that hour, in which Thou didst once commend Thy blessed spirit into the hands of Thy heavenly Father : when, with a torn body and a broken heart, Thou didst shew forth the bowels of Thy mercy, and die for us. I beseech Thee, O Thou Brightness and Image of God, so to assist me by this Thy most precious death, that being dead unto the world, I may live only unto Thee ; and at the last hour of my departing from this mortal life, I may commend my soul into Thy hands, and Thou mayst receive me into life immortal, there to reign with Thee for ever and ever. Amen.

II. Almighty God, Who of Thy tender love towards man, hast sent our Saviour Christ to suffer death upon the cross for us, that all mankind should follow the example of His great humility; mercifully grant that we, who have this His most precious Death and Passion in continual remembrance, may both follow the example of His patience, and be made partakers of His glory, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Lord's Name be praised.

The End of the Ninth Hour.

PRAYERS AT THE VESPERS; OR, TIME OF EVENSONG.

THE ANCIENT USE OF EVENING PRAYER.

The morning began, the three hours continued, and the evening ends our day. Neither is any work we take in hand like to prosper, unless it be begun, continued, and ended in Him, Who must prevent us with His gracious favour, and further us with His continued help.

In which regard the very heathens, who knew not how to serve God aright, yet thus much they knew, that in the morning and the evening there was a service to be given Him; and they acknowledged it every man's duty to perform the same.

Besides, in the Old Law the evening was a special time appointed by God Himself for the offering up of solemn sacrifice^p; and in the New, Christ chose it for the institution of His blessed Supper^q, a time also wherein His bruised Body was taken down from the cross, and laid up in the grave^r. Which being all the sacred mysteries of our Christian religion^s, and the time itself most naturally inviting, and admonishing us to contemplation and prayer, needs must they be either indevout, or somewhat worse, that will not duly observe this hour of God's service. The testimonies and examples of holy men are these.

And Isaac went out to meditate, or to pray, in the evening^t.

And the whole multitude of the people shall offer it in sacrifice at the evening^u.

My sacrifices ye shall observe to offer to Me in their due season: in the evening ye shall offer^v, &c.

In the evening will I pray, and He shall hear my voice^y.

Who makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to praise Thee^z.

Let my prayer be set forth in Thy sight as the incense; and let the lifting up of my hands be as an evening sacrifice^a.

In the evening He sat down with the twelve. And whilst they were at supper Jesus took bread and blessed it^b, &c.

Watch ye therefore, for ye know not when the Lord of the house will come, whether in the evening, or at midnight^c, &c.

PRAYERS FOR THE EVENING.

Our Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Vers. O God, make speed to save me.

Resp. O Lord, make haste to help me.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Alleluiah. Praise the Lord.

The Hymn.

Salvator mundi Domine.

Blessed Saviour, Lord of all,
Vouchsafe to hear us when we call;
And now to those propitious be,
That in prayer bow to Thee,
Still to be kept from misery.

Great Ruler of the day and night,
On our darkness cast Thy light;
And let Thy Passion pardon win
For what we have offended in Thought, or word, or deed of sin.

And as Thy mercy wipes away
What we have done amiss to-day;
So now the night returns again,
Our bodies and our souls refrain
From being soil'd with sinful stain.

Let not dull sleep oppress our eyes,
Nor us the enemy surprise;
Nor fearful dreams our minds affright,
While the blackness of the night
Holds from us the cheerful light.

To Thee Who dost by rest renew
Our wasted strength, we humbly sue
That when we shall uncloseth our eyes,
Pure and chaste we may arise,
And make our morning sacrifice.

Honour, Lord, to Thee be done,
O Thou Blessed Virgin's Son,
With the Father and the Spirit,
As is Thine eternal merit,
Ever and ever to inherit.

Amen.

The Antiphona.

He hath made the outgoings of the morning and evening to praise Him.

PSALM cxi.

1. I will give thanks unto the Lord with my whole heart : secretly, among the faithful, and in the congregation.

2. The works of the Lord are great : sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

3. His work is worthy to be praised, and had in honour : and His righteousness endureth for ever.

4. The merciful and gracious Lord hath so done His marvellous works : that they ought to be had in remembrance.

5. He hath given meat unto them that fear Him : He shall ever be mindful of His covenant.

6. He hath shewed His people the power of His works : that He may give them the heritage of the heathen.

7. The works of His hands are verity and judgment : all His commandments are true.

8. They stand fast for ever and ever : and are done in truth and equity.

9. He sent redemption unto His people : He hath commanded His covenant for ever ; holy and reverend is His name.

10. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom : a good understanding have all they that do thereafter ; the praise of it endureth for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

PSALM cxii.

1. Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord : he hath great delight in His commandments.

2. His seed shall be mighty upon earth : the generation of the faithful shall be blessed.

3. Riches and plenteousness shall be in his house : and his righteousness endureth for ever.

4. Unto the godly there ariseth up light in the darkness : he is merciful, loving, and righteous.

5. A good man is merciful, and lendeth : and will guide his words with discretion.

6. For he shall never be moved : and the righteous shall be had in an everlasting remembrance.

7. He will not be afraid for any evil tidings : for his heart standeth fast, and believeth in the Lord.

8. His heart is stablished, and will not shrink : until he see his desire upon his enemies.

9. He hath dispersed abroad, and given to the poor : and his righteousness remaineth for ever ; his horn shall be exalted with honour.

10. The ungodly shall see it, and it shall grieve him : he shall gnash with his teeth, and consume away : the desire of the ungodly shall perish.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

PSALM cxli.

1. Lord, I call upon Thee, haste Thee unto me : and consider my voice when I cry unto Thee.

2. Let my prayer be set forth in Thy sight as the incense : and let the lifting up of my hands be an evening sacrifice.

3. Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth : and keep the door of my lips.

4. O let not mine heart be inclined to any evil thing : let me not be occupied in ungodly works with the men that work wickedness, lest I eat of such things as please them.

5. Let the righteous rather smite me friendly : and reprove me.

6. But let not their precious balms break mine head : yea, I will pray yet against their wickedness.

7. Let their judges be overthrown in stony places : that they may hear my words, for they are sweet.

8. Our bones lie scattered before the pit : like as when one breaketh and heweth wood upon the earth.

9. But mine eyes look unto Thee, O Lord God : in Thee is my trust, O cast not out my soul.

10. Keep me from the snare which they have laid for me : and from the traps of the wicked doers.

11. Let the ungodly fall into their own nets together : and let me ever escape them.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

The Benediction.

Blessed are the pure in heart : for they shall see God.

The Lesson.

[St.] Mark xiii. [33.]

Take heed, watch and pray : for ye know not when the time is. For the Son of man is as one taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch. Watch ye therefore, for ye know not when the master of the house will come, at even, or at midnight, or at the cock-crowing, or in the morning : lest if he come suddenly, he find you sleeping. And what I say unto you, I say unto all, Watch. At that time Jesus said : Come unto Me all ye that are laboured, and sore travailed, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you, (My yoke is easy, and My burden light,) and learn of Me, for I am meek and lowly in heart, and ye shall find rest unto your souls^d.

The Magnificat,

Or the Song of the blessed Virgin Mary.

My soul doth magnify the Lord : and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

^d Matt. xi. 28.

For He hath regarded : the lowliness of His handmaiden.

For behold, from henceforth : all generations shall call me Blessed.

For He that is mighty hath magnified me : and holy is His Name.

And His mercy is on them that fear Him : throughout all generations.

He hath shewed strength with His arm : He hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

He hath put down the mighty from their seat : and hath exalted the humble and meek.

He hath filled the hungry with good things : and the rich He hath sent empty away.

He remembering His mercy hath holpen His servant Israel : as He promised to our forfathers, Abraham and his seed, for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

The Prayers.

I. O God, from Whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed ; Give unto Thy servants that peace which the world cannot give : that both our hearts may be set to obey Thy commandments, and also that by Thee we being defended from the fear of our enemies may pass our time in rest and quietness ; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

II. Almighty God, the fountain of all wisdom, Which knowest our necessities before we ask, and our ignorance in asking: We beseech Thee to have compassion upon our infirmities; and those things, which for our unworthiness we dare not, and for our blindness we cannot ask, vouchsafe to give us, for the worthiness of Thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

III. O Lord, our heavenly Father, Almighty and everliving God, by Whose providence both the day and the night are governed: vouchsafe, we beseech Thee, as Thou hast this day preserved us by Thy goodness, so still this night to shadow us under the blessed wings of Thy most mighty protection, and to cover us with Thy heavenly mercy, that neither the princes of darkness may have any power over us, nor the works of darkness overwhelm us, but that we being armed with Thy defence, may be preserved from all adversities which may hurt the body, and from all wicked thoughts which may assault and defile the soul, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

IV. O Thou That art the Light eternal, and the Sun of righteousness, evermore arising, and never going down, giving life, and food, and gladness unto all things: mercifully vouchsafe to shine upon me, and cast Thy blessed beams upon the darkness of my understanding, and the black mists of my sins and errors, for Thy only merits, Who art alone my Saviour, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Lord's Name is praised, from the rising up of the sun, unto the going down thereof.

The End of the Prayers at Evening.

THE COMPLINE, OR FINAL PRAYERS ;

To be said before Bed-time.

I will not suffer mine eyes to sleep, nor mine eyelids to slumber : nor the temples of my head to take any rest ; until I find out a place for the habitation of the Lord^e.

Tell me, with what confidence canst thou lie down to sleep, and pass away the black darkness of the night? With what fearful and ugly dreams shall thy soul (thinkest thou) be troubled, unless thou shalt first arm thyself against such delusions and fears by strong and devout prayers? Let the wicked spirits find thee without such a guard, and presently thou becomest a prey unto them : let them but spy thee at thy prayers, and presently like frightened thieves they run away^f.

THE PRAYERS.

The Antiphona.

God be merciful unto us and bless us, and shew us the light of His countenance, and be merciful unto us.

PSALM xci.

 To be said at this time, according to the direction of S. Basil, in Reg.

1. Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the most High : shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

2. I will say unto the Lord, Thou art my hope, and my strong hold : my God, in Him will I trust.

3. For He shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter : and from the noisome pestilence.

^e Ps. cxxxii. 4.

^f S. Chrys. lib. i. de orando Deum.

4. He shall defend thee under His wings, and thou shalt be safe under His feathers : His faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

5. Thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night : nor for the arrow that flieth by day :

6. For the pestilence that walketh in the darkness : nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noon-day.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

The Lesson.

1 Peter [v. 8.]

Be sober and watch, because your adversary the devil goeth about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. And the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat. Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought we to be in all holy conversation and godliness^s.

The Song of Symeon, called Nunc Dimittis.

Lord, now lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace : according to Thy word.

For mine eyes have seen : Thy salvation,

Which Thou hast prepared : before the face of all people ;

To be a light to lighten the Gentiles : and to be the glory of Thy people Israel.

^s [2 Pet. iii. 10.]

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

The Creed.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth :

And in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord, Which was conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary, Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead, and buried, He descended into hell ; The third day He rose again from the dead, He ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty ; From thence He shall come to judge both the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost ; The holy Catholic Church ; The Communion of Saints ; The Forgiveness of sins ; The Resurrection of the body, And the life everlasting. Amen.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Our Father, Which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name, Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation ; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

The day is Thine, and the night is Thine : Thou art worthy O Lord, to receive honour, and praise, and worship for evermore.

I. Merciful Lord, Who of Thine abundant goodness towards us, hast made the day to travail in, and ordained the night wherein to take our rest: grant us such rest of body, that we may continually have a waking soul, to watch for the time when our Lord shall appear to deliver us from this mortal life. Let no vain or wandering fancy trouble us: let our ghostly enemies have no power over us, but let our minds be set wholly upon Thy presence, to love, and fear, and rest in Thee alone: that being refreshed with a moderate and sober sleep, we may rise up again with cheerful strength and gladness, to serve Thee in all good works, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

II. Lighten our darkness, we beseech Thee, O Lord; and by Thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night; for the love of Thy only Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Benediction.

God the Father bless me: God the Son defend me: God the Holy Ghost preserve me now and for ever. Amen.

PRAYERS AT BED-TIME.

An admonition before we go to sleep.

Permit not sluggish sleep
 To close your waking eye,
 Till that with judgment deep
 Your daily deeds you try.
 He that his sins in conscience keeps,
 When he to quiet goes,
 More desperate is than he that sleeps
 Amidst his mortal foes.

When we enter into our bed.

In the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ (Who was crucified upon His cross, and laid into His grave for me,) I lay me down to rest; He bless me, keep me, and save me; raise me up again, and bring me at last to life eternal. Amen.

As we lie down to sleep.

At night lie down,
Prepare to have
Thy sleep thy death,
Thy bed thy grave.

Awake, arise,
Think that thou hast
Thy life but lent,
Thy breath a blast.

I. I will lay me down in peace and take my rest, for it is Thou, Lord, only, that makest me dwell in safety.

II. Have mercy upon me, O Lord, now, and at the hour of death.

III. Preserve me while I am waking, and defend me when I am sleeping, that my soul may continually watch for Thee, and both body and soul may rest in Thy peace for ever. Amen, Amen, Amen.

The End of the Last Hour at Night.

The Seven Penitential Psalms,

WITH THE LITANY AND SUFFRAGES.

THE SEVEN PENITENTIAL PSALMS. To be used in times of Penance, Fasting, Affliction, or Trouble; or at any other time, as private devotion shall move us.

The Antiphona.

REMEMBER not, Lord, our offences, nor the offences of our forefathers; neither take Thou vengeance of our sins; spare us, good Lord, spare Thy people, whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy most precious blood, and be not angry with us for ever.

PSALM vi.

Domine, ne in furore.

1. O Lord, rebuke me not in Thine indignation : neither chasten me in Thy displeasure.
2. Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am weak : O Lord, heal me, for my bones are vexed.
3. My soul is also sore troubled : but Lord, how long wilt Thou punish me ?
4. Turn Thee, O Lord, and deliver my soul : O save me for Thy mercy's sake.
5. For in death no man remembereth Thee : and who will give Thee thanks in the pit ?

6. I am weary of my groaning; every night wash I my bed : and water my couch with my tears.

7. My beauty is gone for very trouble : and worn away because of all mine enemies.

8. Away from me, all ye that work vanity : for the Lord hath heard the voice of my weeping.

9. The Lord hath heard my petition : the Lord will receive my prayer.

10. All mine enemies shall be confounded, and sore vexed : they shall be turned back, and put to shame suddenly.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

PSALM xxxii.

Beati, quorum.

1. Blessed is he whose unrighteousness is forgiven : and whose sin is covered.

2. Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth no sin : and in whose spirit there is no guile.

3. For while I held my tongue : my bones consumed away through my daily complaining.

4. For Thy hand is heavy upon me day and night : and my moisture is like the drought in summer.

5. I will acknowledge my sin unto Thee : and mine unrighteousness have I not hid.

6. I said, I will confess my sins unto the Lord : and so Thou forgavest the wickedness of my sin.

7. For this shall every one that is godly make his prayer unto Thee, in a time when Thou mayest be found : but in the great waterfloods they shall not come nigh him.

8. Thou art a place to hide me in, Thou shalt preserve me from trouble : Thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance.

9. I will inform thee, and teach thee in the way wherein thou shalt go : and I will guide thee with Mine eye.

10. Be ye not like to horse and mule, which have no understanding : whose mouths must be holden with bit and bridle, lest they fall upon thee.

11. Great plagues remain for the ungodly : but whoso putteth his trust in the Lord, mercy embraceth him on every side.

12. Be glad, O ye righteous, and rejoice in the Lord : and be joyful, all ye that are true of heart.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

PSALM xxxviii.

Domine, ne in furore.

1. Put me not to rebuke, O Lord, in Thine anger : neither chasten me in Thine heavy displeasure.

2. For Thine arrows stick fast in me : and Thy hand presseth me sore.

3. There is no health in my flesh, because of Thy displeasure : neither is there any rest in my bones, by reason of my sin.

4. For my wickednesses are gone over my head : and are like a sore burden, too heavy for me to bear.

5. My wounds stink, and are corrupt : through my foolishness.

6. I am brought into so great trouble and misery : that I go mourning all the day long.

7. For my loins are filled with a sore disease : and there is no whole part in my body.

8. I am feeble, and sore smitten : I have roared for the very disquietness of my heart.

9. Lord, Thou knowest all my desire : and my groaning is not hid from Thee.

10. My heart panteth, my strength' hath failed me : and the sight of mine eyes is gone from me.

11. My lovers and my neighbours did stand looking upon my trouble : and my kinsmen stood afar off.

12. They also that sought after my life laid snares for me : and they that went about to do me evil talked of wickedness, and imagined deceit all the day long.

13. As for me, I was like a deaf man, and heard not : and as one that is dumb, which doth not open his mouth.

14. I became even as a man that heareth not : and in whose mouth are no reproofs.

15. For in Thee, O Lord, have I put my trust : Thou shalt answer for me, O Lord my God.

16. I have required that they, even mine enemies, should not triumph over me : for when my foot slipped, they rejoiced greatly against me.

17. And I, truly, am set in the plague : and my heaviness is ever in my sight.

18. For I will confess my wickedness : and be sorry for my sin.

19. But mine enemies live, and are mighty : and they that hate me wrongfully are many in number.

20. They also that reward evil for good are against me : because I follow the thing that good is.

21. Forsake me not, O Lord my God : be not Thou far from me.

22. Haste Thee to help me : O Lord God of my salvation.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

PSALM li.

Miserere mei, Deus.

1. Have mercy upon me, O God, after Thy great goodness : according to the multitude of Thy mercies do away mine offences.

2. Wash me thoroughly from my wickedness : and cleanse me from my sin.

3. For I acknowledge my faults : and my sin is ever before me.

4. Against Thee only have I sinned, and done this evil in Thy sight : that Thou mightest be justified in Thy saying, and clear when Thou art judged.

5. Behold, I was shapen in wickedness : and in sin hath my mother conceived me.

6. But lo, Thou requirest truth in the inward parts : and shalt make me to understand wisdom secretly.

7. Thou shalt purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean : Thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

8. Thou shalt make me hear of joy and gladness : that the bones which Thou hast broken may rejoice.

9. Turn Thy face from my sins : and put out all my misdeeds.

10. Make me a clean heart, O God : and renew a right spirit within me.

11. Cast me not away from Thy presence : and take not Thy Holy Spirit from me.

12. O give me the comfort of Thy help again : and stablish me with Thy free Spirit.

13. Then shall I teach Thy ways unto the wicked : and sinners shall be converted unto Thee.

14. Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, Thou that art the God of my health : and my tongue shall sing of Thy righteousness.

15. Thou shalt open my lips, O Lord : and my mouth shall shew forth Thy praise.

16. For Thou desirest no sacrifice, else would I give it Thee : but Thou delightest not in burnt-offerings.

17. The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit : a broken and contrite heart, O God, shalt Thou not despise.

18. O be favourable and gracious unto Sion : build Thou the walls of Jerusalem.

19. Then shalt Thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousness, with the burnt-offerings and oblations : then shall they offer young bullocks upon Thine altar.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

PSALM cii.

Domine, exaudi.

1. Hear my prayer, O Lord : and let my crying come unto Thee.

2. Hide not Thy face from me in the time of my trouble : incline Thine ears unto me when I call ; O hear me, and that right soon.

3. For my days are consumed away like smoke : and my bones are burnt up as it were a fire-brand.

4. My heart is smitten down, and withered like grass : so that I forget to eat my bread.

5. For the voice of my groaning : my bones will scarce cleave to my flesh.

6. I am become like a pelican in the wilderness : and like an owl that is in the desert.

7. I have watched, and am even as it were a sparrow : that sitteth alone upon the housetop.

8. Mine enemies revile me all the day long : and they that are mad upon me are sworn together against me.

9. For I have eaten ashes as it were bread : and mingled my drink with weeping ;

10. And that because of Thine indignation and wrath : for Thou hast taken me up, and cast me down.

11. My days are gone like a shadow : and I am withered like grass.

12. But Thou, O Lord, shalt endure for ever : and Thy remembrance throughout all generations.

13. Thou shalt arise, and have mercy on Sion : for it is time that Thou have mercy upon her, yea, the time is come.

14. And why? Thy servants think upon her stones : and it pitieth them to see her in the dust.

15. The heathen shall fear Thy Name, O Lord : and all the kings of the earth Thy Majesty ;

16. When the Lord shall build up Sion : and when His glory shall appear ;

17. When He turneth Him unto the prayer of the poor destitute : and despiseth not their desire.

18. This shall be written for those that come after : and the people which shall be born shall praise the Lord,

19. For He hath looked down from His sanctuary : out of the heavens did the Lord behold the earth ;

20. That He might hear the mournings of such as be in captivity : and deliver the children appointed unto death.

21. That they may declare the Name of the Lord in Sion : and His worship at Jerusalem ;

22. When the people are gathered together : and the kingdoms also, to serve the Lord.

23. He brought down my strength in my journey : and shortened my days.

24. But I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my age : as for Thy years, they endure throughout all generations.

25. Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth : and the heavens are the work of Thy hands.

26. They shall perish, but Thou shalt endure :
they all shall wax old as doth a garment ;

27. And as a vesture shalt Thou change them, and they shall be changed : but Thou art the same,
and Thy years shall not fail.

28. The children of Thy servants shall continue :
and their seed shall stand fast in Thy sight.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

PSALM CXXX.

De profundis.

1. Out of the deep have I called unto Thee, O
Lord : Lord, hear my voice.

2. O let Thine ears consider well : the voice of my complaint.

3. If Thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss : O Lord, who may abide it ?

4. For there is mercy with Thee : therefore shalt Thou be feared.

5. I look for the Lord ; my soul doth wait for Him : in His word is my trust.

6. My soul fleeth unto the Lord : before the morning watch, I say, before the morning watch.

7. O Israel, trust in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy : and with Him is plenteous redemption.

8. And He shall redeem Israel : from all his sins.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

PSALM cxliii.

Domine, exaudi.

1. Hear my prayer, O Lord, and consider my desire : hearken unto me for Thy truth and righteousness' sake.

2. And enter not into judgment with Thy servant : for in Thy sight shall no man living be justified.

3. For the enemy hath persecuted my soul; he hath smitten my life down to the ground : he hath laid me in the darkness, as the men that have been long dead.

4. Therefore is my spirit vexed within me : and my heart within me is desolate.

5. Yet do I remember the time past; I muse upon all Thy works : yea, I exercise myself in the works of Thy hands.

6. I stretch forth my hands unto Thee : my soul gaspeth unto Thee as a thirsty land.

7. Hear me, O Lord, and that soon, for my spirit waxeth faint : hide not Thy face from me, lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

8. O let me hear Thy loving-kindness betimes in the morning, for in Thee is my trust : shew Thou me the way that I should walk in, for I lift up my soul unto Thee.

9. Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies : for I flee unto Thee to hide me.

10. Teach me to do the thing that pleaseth Thee, for Thou art my God : let Thy loving Spirit lead me forth into the land of righteousness.

11. Quicken me, O Lord, for Thy Name's sake : and for Thy righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble.

12. And of Thy goodness slay mine enemies : and destroy all them that vex my soul ; for I am Thy servant.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

•
The Antiphona.

Remember not, Lord, our offences, nor the offences of our forefathers ; neither take Thou vengeance of our sins : spare us, good Lord, spare Thy people, whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy most precious blood, and be not angry with us for ever.

THE LITANY ; to be used on Sundays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, after the Morning Prayers, or any other hour of devotion : As also upon the Rogation and Fasting Days ; and in the time of Plague, Famine, War, and other calamities.

SUCH miseries as being present or imminent all men are apt to bewail with their tears, they that be religious and wise will ever seek to prevent or avert with their prayers. In regard whereof these Litanies were at first composed by the Fathers in the primitive Church, solemnly to be used for the appeasing of God's wrath in public evils, and for the procuring of His mercy in common benefits.

At the first they were not so large as now they are, being augmented by Mamercus^a, bishop of Vienna^b, and by Sidonius Apollinaris, bishop of Averna, and afterwards by St. Gregory the Great, bishop of Rome, in whose times there was much affliction and trouble throughout the world.

From their days they have been brought down to ours, and in the meanwhile got some rust ; the addition and invocation of the saints' names (which some men have thereunto annexed), being by Walafride Strabo's own confession, but a novelty ; and therefore are not inserted into these our Litanies ; which being lately by our own Church brought into that absolute perfection, both for matter and form, as not any Church besides can shew the like, so complete and full, needs must they be upbraided either with error, or somewhat worse, whom in all parts this principal and excellent prayer doth not fully satisfy.

THE LITANY.

O God the Father, of heaven : have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the Father, of heaven : have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the Son, Redeemer of the world : have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the Son, Redeemer of the world : have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the Holy Ghost, proceeding from the Father and the Son : have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the Holy Ghost, proceeding from the Father and the Son : have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O holy, blessed, and glorious Trinity, three Persons and one God : have mercy upon us miserable sinners. .

O holy, blessed, and glorious Trinity, three Persons and one God : have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

^a [Manuthus.]

^b [Vienne.]

Remember not, Lord, our offences, nor the offences of our forefathers; neither take Thou vengeance of our sins : spare us, good Lord, spare Thy people, whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy most precious blood, and be not angry with us for ever.

Spare us, good Lord.

From all evil and mischief; from sin, from the crafts and assaults of the devil; from Thy wrath, and from everlasting damnation,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From all blindness of heart; from pride, vain-glory, and hypocrisy; from envy, hatred, and malice, and all uncharitableness,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From fornication, and all other deadly sin; and from all the deceits of the world, the flesh, and the devil,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From lightning and tempest; from plague, pestilence, and famine; from battle and murder, and from sudden death,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From all sedition, and privy conspiracy; from all false doctrine and heresy; from hardness of heart, and contempt of Thy Word and Commandment,

Good Lord, deliver us.

By the mystery of Thy holy Incarnation; by Thy holy Nativity and Circumcision; by Thy Baptism, Fasting, and Temptation,

Good Lord, deliver us.

By Thine Agony and bloody Sweat; by Thy Cross and Passion; by Thy precious Death and Burial; by Thy glorious Resurrection and Ascension; and by the coming of the Holy Ghost,

Good Lord, deliver us.

In all time of our tribulation ; in all time of our wealth ; in the hour of death, and in the day of judgment,

Good Lord, deliver us.

We sinners do beseech Thee to hear us, O Lord God ; and that it may please Thee to rule and govern the holy Church universal in the right way ;

We beseech Thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please Thee to keep and strengthen in the true worshipping of Thee, in righteousness and holiness of life, Thy servant Charles, our most gracious King and Governour ;

We beseech Thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please Thee to rule his heart in Thy faith, fear, and love, and that he may evermore have affiance in Thee, and ever seek Thy honour and glory ;

We beseech Thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please Thee to be his defender and keeper, giving him the victory over all his enemies ;

We beseech Thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please Thee to bless our most gracious Queen Mary, Frederic the prince Elector Palatine, and the lady Elizabeth his wife with their princely issue ;

We beseech Thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please Thee to illuminate all Bishops, Pastors and Ministers of the Church, with true knowledge and understanding of Thy Word ; and that both by their preaching and living they may set it forth, and shew it accordingly ;

We beseech Thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please Thee to endue the Lords of the Council, and all the Nobility, with grace, wisdom and understanding ;

We beseech Thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please Thee to bless and keep the Magistrates, giving them grace to execute justice, and to maintain truth ;

We beseech Thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please Thee to bless and keep all Thy people ;

We beseech Thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please Thee to give to all nations unity, peace, and concord ;

We beseech Thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please Thee to give us an heart to love and dread Thee, and diligently to live after Thy commandments ;

We beseech Thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please Thee to give to all Thy people increase of grace to hear meekly Thy Word, and to receive it with pure affection, and to bring forth the fruits of the Spirit ;

We beseech Thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please Thee to bring into the way of truth all such as have erred, and are deceived ;

We beseech Thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please Thee to strengthen such as do stand ; and to comfort and help the weak-hearted ; and to raise up them that fall ; and finally to beat down Satan under our feet ;

We beseech Thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please Thee to succour, help, and comfort, all that are in danger, necessity, and tribulation ;

We beseech Thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please Thee to preserve all that travel by land or by water, all women labouring of child, all sick persons, and young children; and to shew Thy pity upon all prisoners and captives;

We beseech Thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please Thee to defend, and provide for, the fatherless children, and widows, and all that be desolate and oppressed;

We beseech Thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please Thee to have mercy upon all men;

We beseech Thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please Thee to forgive our enemies, persecutors, and slanderers, and to turn their hearts;

We beseech Thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please Thee to give and preserve to our use the kindly fruits of the earth, so as in due time we may enjoy them;

We beseech Thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please Thee to give us true repentance; to forgive us all our sins, negligences, and ignorances; and to endue us with the grace of Thy Holy Spirit to amend our lives according to Thy holy Word;

We beseech Thee to hear us, good Lord.

Son of God : we beseech Thee to hear us.

Son of God : we beseech Thee to hear us.

O Lamb of God : that takest away the sins of the world;

Grant us Thy peace.

O Lamb of God : that takest away the sins of the world;

Have mercy upon us.

O Christ, hear us.

O Christ, hear us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Our Father, Which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Vers. O Lord, deal not with us after our sins.

Resp. Neither reward us after our iniquities.

Let us pray.

O God, merciful Father, That despisest not the sighing of a contrite heart, nor the desire of such as be sorrowful; Mercifully assist our prayers, that we make before Thee in all our troubles and adversities, whensoever they oppress us; and graciously hear us, that those evils, which the craft and subtilty of the devil or man worketh against us be brought to nought; and by the providence of Thy goodness they may be dispersed; that we Thy servants, being hurt by no persecutions, may evermore give thanks unto Thee in Thy holy Church; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

O Lord, arise, help us, and deliver us for Thy Name's sake.

O God, we have heard with our ears, and our fathers have declared unto us, the noble works that Thou didst in their days, and in the old time before them.

O Lord, arise, help us, and deliver us for Thine honour.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

From our enemies defend us, O Christ.

Graciously look upon our afflictions.

Pitifully behold the sorrows of our hearts.

Mercifully forgive the sins of Thy people.

Favourably with mercy hear our prayers.

O Son of David, have mercy upon us.

Both now and ever vouchsafe to hear us, O Christ.

Graciously hear us, O Christ ; graciously hear us, O Lord Christ.

Vers. O Lord, let Thy mercy be shewed upon us :

Resp. As we do put our trust in Thee.

Let us pray.

We humbly beseech Thee, O Father, mercifully to look upon our infirmities ; and for the glory of Thy Name's sake turn from us all those evils that we most righteously have deserved ; and grant, that in all our troubles we may put our whole trust and confidence in Thy mercy, and evermore serve Thee in holiness and pureness of living, to Thy honour and glory, through our only Mediator and Advocate, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O God, whose nature and property is ever to have mercy and to forgive, receive our humble petitions, and though we be tied and bound with the chain of our sins, yet let the pitifulness of Thy great mercy loose us, for the honour of Jesus Christ's sake, our Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

2 Cor. xiii.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

The Collects for the Sundays and Holy-days throughout the Year.

Advent Sunday.

THE four Sundays in Advent are to the great Feast of Christmas, as the Vigils or Eves are to every Saint's day, and Lent to the Feast of Easter, a solemn time of preparation to the blessed Birth of our Saviour, which Christians have been used to call His Advent, or Coming to us in the flesh.

It is the peculiar computation of the Church, to begin her year, and to renew the annual course of her holy and divine service at this Advent; herein differing from all other accounts and revolutions of time whatsoever. And it is to let the world know, that she neither numbereth her days, nor measureth her seasons so much by the motion of the sun, as by the course of her Saviour, beginning and continuing on the year with Him, Who, being the true Sun of righteousness, began now to rise upon the world, and, as the day-star from on high, to enlighten them that sat in spiritual darkness.

The Collect for the First Sunday in Advent.

Almighty God, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness, and put on the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in the which Thy Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when He shall come again in His glorious Majesty to judge both the quick and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal, through Him Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, now and ever. Amen.

The Collect for the Second Sunday in Advent.

Blessed Lord, Which hast caused all the holy Scriptures to be written for our learning; Grant that we may in such wise hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that by patience and comfort of Thy holy Word, we may embrace, and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which Thou hast given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Collect for the Third Sunday in Advent.

Lord, we beseech Thee, give ear to our prayers, and by Thy gracious visitation lighten the darkness of our hearts, by our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Collect for the Fourth Sunday in Advent.

Lord, raise up (we pray Thee) Thy power, and come among us, and with great might succour us; that whereas, through our sins and wickedness, we be sore let and hindered, Thy bountiful grace and mercy (through the satisfaction of Thy Son our Lord) may speedily deliver us, to whom with Thee and the Holy Ghost be honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

The Collect for Christmas Day.

Almighty God, Which hast given us Thy only begotten Son to take our nature upon Him, and this day to be born of a pure Virgin; Grant that we being regenerate, and made Thy children by adoption and grace, may daily be renewed by Thy Holy Spirit; through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, now and ever. Amen.

The Collect for St. Stephen's Day.

Grant us, O Lord, to learn to love our enemies by the example of Thy martyr St. Stephen, who prayed for his persecutors to Thee, Which livest and reignest now and for ever, world without end. Amen.

The Collect for St. John the Evangelist's Day.

Merciful Lord, we beseech Thee to cast Thy bright beams of light upon Thy Church, that it being lightened by the doctrine of the blessed Apostle and Evangelist John, may attain to Thy everlasting gifts; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for Innocents' Day.

Almighty God, Whose praise this day the young Innocents Thy witnesses have confessed, and shewed forth, not in speaking but in dying, mortify and kill all vices in us, that in our conversation our life may express Thy faith which with our tongues we do confess, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for the Sunday after Christmas Day.

Almighty God, Which hast given us Thy only begotten Son to take our nature upon Him, and this day to be born of a pure Virgin; Grant that we being regenerate, and made Thy children by adoption and grace, may daily be renewed by Thy Holy Spirit; through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, now and ever. Amen.

The Collect for the Circumcision of Christ.

Almighty God, Which madest Thy blessed Son to be circumcised, and obedient to the law for man; Grant us the true Circumcision of the Spirit; that, our hearts, and all our members being mortified from all worldly and carnal lusts, may in all things obey Thy blessed will; through the same Thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for the Epiphany.

O God, Which by the leading of a star didst manifest Thy only-begotten Son to the Gentiles; Mercifully grant, that we, which know Thee now by faith, may after this life have the fruition of Thy glorious Godhead; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for the First Sunday after the Epiphany.

Lord, we beseech Thee mercifully to receive the prayers of Thy people, which call upon Thee; and grant that they may both perceive and know what things they ought to do, and also have grace and power faithfully to fulfil the same; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for the Second Sunday after the Epiphany.

Almighty and everlasting God, Which dost govern all things in heaven and earth ; Mercifully hear the supplications of Thy people, and grant us Thy peace all the days of our life.

The Collect for the Third Sunday after the Epiphany.

Almighty and everlasting God, mercifully look upon our infirmities, and in all our dangers and necessities stretch forth Thy right hand to help and defend us ; through Christ our Lord.

The Collect for the Fourth Sunday after the Epiphany.

God, Which knowest us to be set in the midst of so many and great dangers, that for man's frailness we cannot alway stand upright ; Grant to us the health of body and soul, that all those things which we suffer for sin, by Thy help we may well pass and overcome ; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the Fifth Sunday after the Epiphany.

Lord, we beseech Thee to keep Thy Church and household continually in Thy true religion ; that they which do lean only upon the hope of Thy heavenly grace may evermore be defended by Thy mighty power ; through Christ our Lord.

Septuagesima Sunday.

Septuagesima (so called from the number of seventy) is a solemn beginning of a new office and a new time, wherein our Holy Mother the Church hath taught us, by calling to mind the time of the Jews' captivity from their country, the better to remember and bewail our own captivity from ours, even that heavenly paradise which God at first created for us. For which purpose the lessons of the Church Service (saith St. Bernard) are this day altered in their course, and the story of Genesis (where both our first happiness and our first miseries are described) is always begun to be read in Septuagesima.

It is a time, therefore, that suddenly calls us back from our Christmas feasting and joy, to our Lenten fasting and sorrow; from thinking how Christ came into the world, to think upon our own sins and miseries which brought Him into the world; to think upon them, and to bewail, or reform them withal; considering that He came not to take away their sins who are not weary of them, or be loth to part with them, and amend their lives themselves.

To this end there was a godly ordinance in the ancient Church (made by the old Council of Auxerre more than a thousand years since), that in the end of the Epiphany there should be certain days appointed (such as this and the two Sundays following are^a) wherein to prepare the people for their solemn fasting and penance, and to give them warning of their Lent beforehand; that when it came, it might be the more strictly and religiously observed.

And afterwards, through the variety of fasting in divers places, it came to pass that these three Sundays were made to be three several beginnings of the Lent fast, some extending their solemn humiliation and sorrow to a larger time than ordinary, and others excepting from it those days of the week, whereupon many Christians had either no custom, or no leave to fast: all agreeing in this, that whether we begin at Septuagesima or any of the Sundays following, the Lent fast is duly to be kept at one solemn time of the year, and religiously to be continued on to the great feast of Easter.

^a Sexagesima and Quinquagesima Sundays.

The Collect for Septuagesima Sunday.

O Lord, we beseech Thee favourably to hear the prayers of Thy people; that we, which are justly punished for our offences, may be mercifully delivered by Thy goodness for the glory of Thy Name; through Jesus Christ our Saviour, Who liveth and reigneth, &c.

The Collect for Sexagesima Sunday.

Lord God, Which seest that we put not our trust in anything that we do; mercifully grant that by Thy power we may be defended against all adversity; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for Quinquagesima Sunday.

O-Lord, Which dost teach us that all our doings without charity are nothing worth; send the Holy Ghost, and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of charity, the very bond of peace and all virtues, without the which whosoever liveth is counted dead before Thee: grant this for Thy only Son Jesus Christ's sake.

The First Day of Lent.

By the ancient laws and custom of the Church of Christ, we still observe a yearly solemn time of fasting and prayer; which, from the season wherein it falls, we call our Lent Fast^b. A time wherein the ^b The Spring.

Church commemorateth the miraculous Fasting of our Saviour, and by it commendeth the like ghostly and religious exercise unto us, as being the readiest means we can use against the temptations of the devil and the sinful desires of our pampered flesh. Not as if she thought we were able to fast as Christ did, and live altogether without meat and drink; or as if her meaning were to tie us unto any such scrupulous abstinence, which refuseth some kinds of meats as being unclean in themselves; but that, as far as our imperfections and infirmities would suffer us, we should tie ourselves to such a religious fast and abstinence, as thereby either interrupting or otherwise abating not only the kind but the quantity of our diet, and so taking the less care of our bodily sustenance, we might the more earnestly hunger and thirst after righteousness, which is the food of our souls; and by mortifying of our sinful flesh, fix our minds upon heavenlier and better desires. A Lent so kept will conform us the better to our Saviour's sufferings, which are now remembered; and make us the more capable and more sensible of the joy which the Church expresseth in the joyful solemnity of Easter, as well in commemoration of His, as in hope of our glorious and gladsome resurrection.

And after this manner hath it been religiously observed throughout all ages, both in the Greek and in the Latin Church.

For the Greeks first. It is mentioned by Ignatius, who was St. John's disciple, in his epistle to the Philippians, a writing unquestioned. By Irenæus, who was St. John's scholar also, but once removed. By Origen, who lived not long after them, in his tenth homily upon Leviticus. By the famous General Council of Nice, not much above 300 years after Christ, where they mention the forty days of Lent as a known thing, instituted and observed by all men long before their time. After them by St. Cyril in his Catechism, and by St. Chrysostom in his sermons upon Genesis, which were preached in this time of Lent. By St. Basil, in his second homily of Fasting, where he tells us, that there was no age, nor no place, but both knew it and observed it. By Athanasius in his Relation ad Orthodox. By St. Gregory Nyssen in his sermon of Baptism, and by Nazianzen, surnamed the Divine, in his sermon of Alms-deeds.

Then for the Latins. By Tertullian first, who was the first of the Latin Fathers, and spake more concerning the Lent fast than perhaps the Church would have had him. By St. Cyprian after him, who was also his scholar. By St. Ambrose, St. Hierom, and St. Augustine, in more than forty several places of their writings. After them, by a whole cloud of witnesses, even to our own times: all which being put together, will prove abundantly that the Lent which we now keep, is, and ever hath been, an apostolical constitution; as St. Hierom said in his epistle to Marcella: “Nos unam quadragesimam secundum traditionem Apostolorum tempore nobis congruo jejunamus;” that is, “We observe a Lent fast of forty days, as we have been taught to do by the Apostles, in a fit and seasonable time of the year.” We add out of St. Augustine in his 119th Epistle to Januarius, a known place: “Quadragesima jejuniorum habet auctoritatem,” &c.; “The Lenten fast,” saith he, “is authorized both by the Old and New Testament; there by Moses, and here by Christ." And out of Chrysologus in his eleventh sermon: "Quod quadragesimam jejunamus, non est humana inventio," &c.; "It is no human invention (as they call it) but it comes from divine authority, that we fast our forty days in Lent."

The Collect for Ash-Wednesday.

Almighty and everlasting God, Which hatest nothing that Thou hast made, and dost forgive the sins of all them that be penitent; Create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we worthily lamenting our sins, and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of Thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness; through Jesus Christ.

Three other Collects for this Time of Lent.

O Lord, we beseech Thee, mercifully hear our prayers, and spare all those which confess their sins unto Thee; that they, whose consciences by sin are accused, by Thy merciful pardon may be absolved; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

O most mighty God, and merciful Father, Which hast compassion of all men, and hatest nothing that thou hast made; Which wouldest not the death of a sinner, but that he should rather turn from sin, and be saved; Mercifully forgive us our trespasses; receive and comfort us, which be grieved and wearied with the burden of our sins. Thy property is to have mercy; to Thee only it appertaineth to forgive sins. Spare us therefore, good Lord, spare Thy people, whom Thou hast redeemed; enter not into judgment with Thy servants, which be vile earth, and miserable sinners; but so turn Thine ire from us, which meekly acknowledge our vileness, and truly repent us of our faults, so make haste to help us in this world, that we may ever live with Thee in the world to come; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Turn Thou us, O good Lord, and so shall we be turned. Be favourable to Thy people, O Lord, be favourable to Thy people, which turn to Thee in weeping, fasting and praying. For Thou art a merciful God, full of compassion, longsuffering, and of great pity. Thou sparest when we deserve punishment, and in Thy wrath thinkest upon mercy. Spare Thy people, good Lord, spare them, and let not Thine heritage be brought to confusion. Hear us, O Lord, for Thy mercy is great, and after the multitude of Thy mercies look upon us.

The Collect for the First Sunday in Lent.

O Lord, Which for our sakes didst fast forty days and forty nights; Give us grace to use such abstinence, that, our flesh being subdued to the spirit, we may ever obey Thy godly motions in righteousness, and true holiness, to Thy honour and glory, Which livest and reignest, &c.

The Collect for the Second Sunday in Lent.

Almighty God, Which dost see that we have no power of ourselves to help ourselves; Keep us both outwardly in our bodies, and inwardly in our souls; that we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the soul; through Jesus, &c.

The Collect for the Third Sunday in Lent.

We beseech Thee, Almighty God, look upon the hearty desires of Thy humble servants, and stretch forth the right hand of Thy Majesty, to be our defence against all our enemies; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the Fourth Sunday in Lent.

Grant, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that we, which for our evil deeds are worthily punished, by the comfort of Thy grace may mercifully be relieved; through our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Collect for the Fifth Sunday in Lent.

We beseech Thee, Almighty God, mercifully to look upon Thy people; that by Thy great goodness they may be governed and preserved evermore, both in body and soul; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Week before Easter.

This last week of Lent Christians have been used to call the Holy and Great week, or the Passion Week, and more solemnly to observe it, than any of the rest before. For in it the Church doth commemorate, and represent unto us, for our greater humility and devotion, first, the traitorous conspiracy of the Jews with Judas to betray Christ unto His death; as upon the Wednesday before Easter. Then the institution of Christ's blessed Supper, and the washing of His disciples' feet, as upon Maundy Thursday. Next, the very Cross and Passion of our Saviour, His precious Death and Burial for us all, as upon Good Friday. And lastly, His rest within the grave, and His descent also into hell, as upon Easter-even. And all these in tempore suo, in their own proper times and seasons, upon the very days when they were done, and became the great and high mysteries of our Christian religion. Which is the reason why these days are here and elsewhere ranked among the holy-days of our Church, and a special service appointed for them^c: as also why all the Wednesdays of the year have been heretofore, and why the Fridays and Saturdays of every week besides are now continued and made common days of abstinence and prayer.

What the ancient discipline and religious custom of the Church in this Holy week hath been of old, may appear by this passage of Epiphanius, Hæres. 75. "On Church fasting days, and especially the week before Easter, when with us," saith he, "custom admitteth nothing but lying down upon the earth, abstinence from fleshly delights and pleasures, unsavoury and dry diet, sorrow, prayer, watching, fasting, and all the medicines for our souls which holy affection can minister: other men (with whom the discipline of the Church is in no regard) are up betimes in the morning to take in the strongest for the belly; and when their veins are well swollen and grown big, they make themselves sport and laughter at this our devout service, wherewith we are persuaded we please God."

Surely sorrow for sin is the proper and predominant affection of this time, so taught us by the ^c In the table of Proper Lessons.

Church. And what can we resolve on less than the Church now teacheth us? If He, in Whom there was no sin, was at this time above measure sorrowful for our sins, shall not we, whose sins they were, be in some measure touched with sorrow for them, especially at this time of His sorrow?

True it is that our Saviour's sufferings, being the price of our redemption, are the matter of our greatest joy; but they are so, as they are joined with His resurrection, without which there had not been any benefit or joy to us by them. His Church therefore, even from the beginning judged this order to be most convenient and decent, that about the time of His passion we should have a sympathy, a compassion, and a fellow-feeling with Him, being made conformable unto Him herein by the exercises of repentance, which are the passion of every Christian, whereby he dieth unto sin; and that the solemn joy of our redemption should be put off till Easter-day, the day of His resurrection, which is the hope, and life, and glory of us all.

And hence must ever be remembered, that the intent of the Church in the celebration of these her holy solemnities, is not only to inform us in the mysteries which are commemorated, but also, and that chiefly, to conform us thereby unto Him Who is our Head, and the substance of all our solemnities whatsoever: that if we be not thus affected with them, we can neither approve ourselves to be His followers and servants, nor any lively members of His Church.

The Collect for the Sunday next before Easter.

Almighty and everlasting God, Which of Thy tender love towards man, hast sent our Saviour Jesus Christ, to take upon Him our flesh, and to suffer death upon the cross, that all mankind should follow the example of His great humility; Mercifully grant, that we both follow the example of His patience, and be made partakers of His resurrection; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord.

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday before Easter.

Almighty and everlasting God, which of Thy, &c., as before.

The Collects on Good Friday.

Almighty God, we beseech Thee graciously to behold this Thy family, for the which our Lord Jesus Christ was contented to be betrayed, and given up into the hands of wicked men, and to suffer death upon the cross, Who liveth and reigneth, &c.

Almighty and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified; Receive our supplications and prayers, which we offer before Thee for all estates of men in Thy holy congregation, that every member of the same, in his vocation and ministry, may truly and godly serve Thee; through our Lord Jesus Christ, Who liveth and reigneth, &c.

Merciful God, Who hast made all men, and hatest nothing that Thou hast made, nor wouldest the death of a sinner, but rather that he should be converted and live; Have mercy upon all Jews,

Turks, infidels, and heretics, and take from them all ignorance, hardness of heart, and contempt of Thy Word; and so fetch them home, blessed Lord, to Thy flock, that they may be saved among the remnant of the true Israelites, and be made one fold under one Shepherd, Jesus Christ our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth, &c.

Easter Day.

It is a most solemn festival, as ancient as the glorious Resurrection of Christ's self, by which it was declared and instituted to be kept holy (saith St. Augustine), and, by virtue of it, all the Sundays of the year besides; being for this cause called by the Apostles the Lord's Day, and by the Fathers God's own Easter Day, and both by them and our own Church, the day which the Lord hath made^d.

That what holy institution soever the other solemnities of the year have received, some from the Apostles, and some from the Fathers of the Church in succeeding ages, we may be sure that this sacred festival was instituted by the divine authority of God and of Christ Himself. In regard whereof, it ought to be no less to us, than it was of old to the Christians all the world over, even the feast of all feasts, and the solemnity of all solemnities, the highest and the greatest that we have. "Which venerable festival we have received from our Saviour," saith Constantine, "and by which we hold our hopes of immortality;" (we add) "and without which all that Christ had done for us besides would have done us no good^e."

^d Rev. i. 10.

^e 1 Cor. xv. 17.

It is ever to be remembered, that this holy feast of joy followeth as holy a time of sorrow, that the feast of Easter cometh always after the fast of Lent, and thereby we to learn, that if we will keep this feast aright, if we will rise and reign with Christ, we must suffer with Him first, crucify and kill those sins by repentance which be in us, that we may be renewed by the power of that Spirit which is in Him, and so being raised up to newness of life here, we may be raised up (as this day He was) to the life of glory hereafter.

The Anthems upon Easter Day.

Christ rising again from the dead now dieth not : death henceforth hath no power upon Him :

For in that He died, He died but once to put away sin : but in that He liveth, He liveth unto God.

And so likewise count yourselves dead unto sin : but living unto God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Christ is risen again : the first-fruits of them that slept.

For seeing that by man came death : by man also cometh the resurrection of the dead.

For as by Adam all men do die : so by Christ all men shall be restored to life.

The Collect for Easter Day.

Almighty God, Which through Thine only-begotten Son Jesus Christ hast overcome death, and opened unto us the gate of everlasting life; We humbly beseech Thee, that, as by Thy special grace preventing us Thou dost put in our minds good desires, so by Thy continual help we may bring the same to good effect; through Jesus Christ our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth, &c.

Monday and Tuesday in Easter Week.

These two holy-days have been very anciently annexed to the feast of Easter, and were the set days of a public and solemn baptizing of many multitudes of people together; which the good Christians then rather chose to administer and to receive at this time, for that by the Sacrament of Baptism the holy resurrection of our Saviour is so lively set forth and commemorated in the Church. This was therefore one reason of their first institution in old time.

Another was (and it is the reason of their present continuance now) for that these two days might be a greater honour to the principal day of Easter itself, whereupon they still attend, and being attendants upon it, have not, as other days, any proper name of their own.

It was the custom both of the ancient Latin and Greek Churches to observe their Easter after this manner. For the Latins, St. Augustine is plain, “In tertium diem festi,” &c. “Upon the third day of our most holy festival.” And for the Greeks, St. Gregory Nyssen is clear, who expressly termeth it, “A feast of three days.”

The Collect for Monday in Easter Week.

Almighty God, Which through Thy, &c. [as upon Easter Day.]

The Collect for Tuesday in Easter Week.

Almighty Father, Which hast given Thine only-begotten Son to die for our sins, and to rise again for our justification, Grant us so to put away the leaven of malice and wickedness, that we may alway serve Thee in pureness of living and truth, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The First Sunday after Easter.

It was the religious custom of our forefathers to observe the octaves of their high and principal festivals. And this day is the octave, or the eighth day after the feast of Easter. Upon every octave (which after seven days is a return to the first day) the use was to repeat some part of that service and devotion which was performed upon the principal feast itself. And this is the reason that the collect used upon Easter-day is again renewed upon this Sunday.

The Collect for the First Sunday after Easter.

Almighty God, Which through Thine, &c. [as upon Easter Day.]

The Collect for the Second Sunday after Easter.

Almighty God, Which hast given Thine only Son to be unto us both a sacrifice for sin, and also an example of good life; Give us grace that we may alway most thankfully receive that His inestimable benefit, and also daily endeavour ourselves to follow the blessed steps of His most holy life.

The Collect for the Third Sunday after Easter.

Almighty God, Which shewest unto all men that be in error the light of Thy truth, to the intent that they may return into the way of righteousness; Grant unto all them that be admitted into the fellowship of Christ's religion, that they may eschew those things that be contrary to their profession, and follow all such things as be agreeable to the same; through our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Collect for the Fourth Sunday after Easter.

Almighty God, Which dost make the minds of all faithful men to be of one will; Grant unto Thy people, that they may love the thing which Thou commandest, and desire that which Thou dost promise; that so, among the sundry and manifold changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed, where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Easter.

Lord, from Whom all good things do come; Grant us Thy humble servants, that by Thy holy inspiration we may think those things that be good, and by Thy merciful guiding may perform the same; through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Collect for Ascension-Day.

Grant, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that like as we do believe Thy Only-begotten Son our Lord to have ascended into the heavens; so we may also in heart and mind thither ascend, and with Him continually dwell.

The Collect for the Sunday after Ascension-Day.

O God the King of glory, Which hast exalted Thine only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph unto Thy kingdom of heaven; We beseech Thee, leave us not comfortless; but send us Thine Holy Ghost to comfort us, and exalt us unto the same place whither our Saviour Christ is gone before, Who liveth and reigneth, &c.

Whit-Sunday, or the Feast of Pentecost.

This day hold we holy to the Holy Ghost, by Whom all holy days, all holy persons, and all holy things whatsoever are made holy. And we observe it, (as St. Austin saith the old Church did "all the world over,") in memory of that day wherein the Holy Spirit of God after a wonderful and mysterious manner descended upon the persons of the Apostles, for the founding, propagating, preserving, and governing of Christ's Catholic Church unto the end of the world^f.

We call it Pentecost from the name it had at first, being fifty days after Easter; and Whit-Sunday, from that glorious light of heaven, which was then sent down upon the earth; as also for that it was the custom of the ancient Christians to clothe themselves with a white habit upon this and the two attendant holydays that are hereunto annexed^g; which they did as well to express the joy they had, and the festivity they held for the visible descent of the Holy Ghost upon the Church at first, as for His mysterious descent now in the blessed Sacrament of Baptism^h, which was usually at this festival with great solemnity dispensed, and thereby many multitudes received into the number of God's chosen people.

The Collect for Whit-Sunday.

God, Which as upon this day hast taught the hearts of Thy faithful people, by the sending to them the light of Thy Holy Spirit; Grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in His holy comfort; through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee, in the unity of the same Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

The Collect for Monday and Tuesday in Whitsun-week.

God, Which as upon this day hast, &c. [as upon Whit-Sunday.]

Trinity Sunday.

Immediately after the descent of God's Holy Spirit upon the Church, ensued the notice of the glorious and incomprehensible Trinity, the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, which before that time was not so clearly known. This therefore is the order of the Church (and it is excellent to consider), that when, by the revolution of the year, she hath solemnly commemorated all those sacred mysteries which God the Father had of His goodness wrought for her, first by His blessed Son, and then by His blessed Spirit, now she might end and perfect her devotions with a festival of holy service to the whole blessed Trinity.

The Collect for Trinity Sunday.

Almighty and everlasting God, Which hast given unto us Thy servants grace by the confession of a true faith to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of Thy Divine Majesty to worship the Unity; We beseech Thee, that through the stedfastness of this faith, we may evermore be defended from all adversity; Which livest and reignest, &c.

The Collect for the First Sunday after Trinity.

God, the strength of all them that trust in Thee, mercifully accept our prayers; and because the weakness of our mortal nature can do no good thing without Thee, grant us the help of Thy grace, that in keeping of Thy commandments we may please Thee both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for the Second Sunday after Trinity.

Lord, make us to have a perpetual fear and love of Thy holy Name, for Thou never failest to help and govern them, whom Thou dost bring up in Thy stedfast love. Grant this, &c.

The Collect for the Third Sunday after Trinity.

Lord, we beseech Thee mercifully to hear us; and unto whom Thou hast given an hearty desire to pray, grant that by Thy mighty aid we may be defended; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for the Fourth Sunday after Trinity.

God, the protector of all that trust in Thee, without Whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy;

increase and multiply upon us Thy mercy; that, Thou being our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we finally lose not the things eternal: Grant this, heavenly Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our Lord.

The Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Trinity.

Grant, Lord, we beseech Thee, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by Thy governance, that Thy congregation may joyfully serve Thee in all godly quietness; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for the Sixth Sunday after Trinity.

God, Which hast prepared for them that love Thee such good things as pass all men's understanding; Pour into our hearts such love toward Thee, that we, loving Thee in all things, may obtain Thy promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord, &c.

The Collect for the Seventh Sunday after Trinity.

Lord of all power and might, Which art the author and giver of all good things; Graft in our hearts the love of Thy Name, increase in us true religion, nourish us with all goodness, and of Thy great mercy keep us in the same; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for the Eighth Sunday after Trinity.

God, Whose providence is never deceived; We humbly beseech Thee that Thou wilt put away from us all hurtful things, and give those things which be profitable for us : through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for the Ninth Sunday after Trinity.

Grant us, Lord, we beseech Thee, the spirit to think and do always such things as be rightful; that we, which cannot be without Thee, may by Thee be able to live according to Thy will : through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for the Tenth Sunday after Trinity.

Let Thy merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of Thy humble servants; and that they may obtain their petitions, make them to ask such things as shall please Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for the Eleventh Sunday after Trinity.

God, Which declarest Thy almighty power most chiefly in shewing mercy and pity; Give unto us abundantly Thy grace, that we, running to Thy promises, may be made partakers of Thy heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for the Twelfth Sunday after Trinity.

Almighty and everlasting God, Which art always more ready to hear than we to pray, and art wont to give more than either we desire, or deserve; Pour down upon us the abundance of Thy mercy; forgiving us those things whereof our conscience is afraid, and giving unto us that that our prayer dare not presume to ask; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for the Thirteenth Sunday after Trinity.

Almighty and merciful God, of Whose only gift

it cometh that Thy faithful people do unto Thee true and laudable service ; Grant, we beseech Thee, that we may so run to Thy heavenly promises, that we fail not finally to attain the same ; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for the Fourteenth Sunday after Trinity.

Almighty and everlasting God, give unto us the increase of faith, hope, and charity ; and, that we may obtain that which Thou dost promise, make us to love that which Thou dost command ; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for the Fifteenth Sunday after Trinity.

Keep, we beseech Thee, O Lord, Thy Church with Thy perpetual mercy : and, because the frailty of man without Thee cannot but fall, keep us ever by Thy help, and lead us to all things profitable to our salvation ; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for the Sixteenth Sunday after Trinity.

Lord, we beseech Thee, let Thy continual pity cleanse and defend Thy congregation ; and because it cannot continue in safety without Thy succour, preserve it evermore by Thy help and goodness ; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for the Seventeenth Sunday after Trinity.

Lord, we pray Thee that Thy grace may always prevent and follow us, and make us continually to be given to all good works ; through Jesus Christ, &c.

The Collect for the Eighteenth Sunday after Trinity.

Lord, we pray Thee, grant Thy people grace to avoid the infections of the devil, and with pure heart and mind to follow Thee the only God; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for the Nineteenth Sunday after Trinity.

O God, forasmuch as without Thee we are not able to please Thee; Grant that the working of Thy mercy may in all things direct and rule our hearts; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for the Twentieth Sunday after Trinity.

Almighty and merciful God, of Thy bountiful goodness keep us, we beseech Thee, from all things that may hurt us; that we, being ready both in body and soul, may with free hearts accomplish those things that Thou wouldest have done; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for the Twenty-first Sunday after Trinity.

Grant, we beseech Thee, merciful Lord, to Thy faithful people pardon and peace, that they may be cleansed from all their sins, and serve Thee with a quiet mind; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for the Twenty-second Sunday after Trinity.

Lord, we beseech Thee to keep Thy household the Church in continual godliness; that through Thy protection it may be free from all adversities, and devoutly given to serve Thee in good works, to the glory of Thy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for the Twenty-third Sunday after Trinity.

God, our refuge and strength, Which art the author of all goodness; Be ready to hear the devout prayers of the Church; and grant that those things which we ask faithfully we may obtain effectually; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for the Twenty-fourth Sunday after Trinity.

O Lord, we beseech Thee, assoil Thy people from their offences; that through Thy bountiful goodness we may be delivered from the bonds of all those sins, which by our frailty we have committed; Grant this, &c.

The Collect for the Twenty-fifth Sunday after Trinity.

Stir up, we beseech Thee, O Lord, the wills of Thy faithful people; that they, plenteously bringing forth the fruit of good works, may of Thee be plenteously rewarded; through Jesus Christ, &c.

Collects proper for other Holydays.

What the religious intention of the Church was at first, and what her meaning is still in the holy observation of these Saints' days that follow, may be seen in the Preface to the Calendar of this book.

Saint Andrew's Day.

Saint Andrew's day beginneth the order of the service for all the other Saints' days of the year. And the reason is, because his Feast ever falleth out to be either next before, or next after that day where-with the Church hath been used to begin the whole course of her ecclesiastical year, and the order of her other solemn and daily serviceⁱ.

The Collect for Saint Andrew's Day.

Almighty God, Which didst give such grace to Thy holy Apostle Saint Andrew, that he readily obeyed the calling of Thy Son Jesus Christ, and followed Him without delay; Grant unto us all, that we, being called by Thy holy Word, may forth-with give over ourselves obediently to follow Thy holy commandments; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for Saint Thomas's Day.

Almighty and everliving God, Which for the more confirmation of the faith didst suffer Thy holy Apostle Thomas to be doubtful in Thy Son's resurrection; Grant us so perfectly, and without all doubt, to believe in Thy Son Jesus Christ, that our faith in Thy sight [may] never be reprov'd. Hear us, O Lord, through the same Jesus Christ, to Whom, &c.

The Collect on the Conversion of Saint Paul.

God, Which hast taught all the world through the preaching of Thy blessed Apostle Saint Paul; Grant, we beseech Thee, that we, which have his wonderful conversion in remembrance, may follow and fulfil the holy doctrine that he taught; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

ⁱ Advent Sunday.

The Collect on the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Almighty and everlasting God, we humbly beseech Thy Majesty, that, as Thy Only-begotten Son was this day presented in the Temple in the substance of our flesh, so grant that we may be presented unto Thee with pure and clean minds by Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for Saint Matthias's Day.

Almighty God, Which in the place of the traitor Judas didst choose Thy faithful servant Matthias to be of the number of the twelve Apostles; Grant that Thy Church, being alway preserved from false Apostles, may be ordered and guided by faithful and true pastors; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for the Annunciation of the Virgin Mary.

We beseech Thee, Lord, pour Thy grace into our hearts; that, as we have known Christ Thy Son's incarnation by the message of an angel, so by His cross and passion we may be brought unto the glory of His resurrection; through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for Saint Mark's Day.

Almighty God, Which hast instructed Thy holy Church with the heavenly doctrine of the Evangelist Saint Mark; Give us grace, that we be not like children carried away with every blast of vain doctrine, but firmly to be established in the truth of Thy holy Gospel; through Jesus Christ, &c.

The Collect for Saint Philip and Saint James' Day.

Almighty God, Whom truly to know is everlasting life; Grant us perfectly to know Thy Son Jesus Christ to be the way, the truth, and the life; as Thou hast taught Saint Philip and other Apostles, through Jesus, &c.

The Collect for Saint Barnabe's Day.

Lord Almighty, Which hast endued Thy holy Apostle Barnabas with singular gifts of the Holy Ghost; Let us not be destitute of Thy manifold gifts, nor yet of grace to use them alway to Thine honour and glory; through, &c.

The Collect for Saint John Baptist's Day.

Almighty God, by Whose providence Thy servant John Baptist was wonderfully born, and sent to prepare the way of Thy Son our Saviour, by preaching of penance; make us so to follow his doctrine and holy life, that we may truly repent according to his preaching; and after his example constantly speak the truth, boldly rebuke vice, and patiently suffer for the truth's sake; through Jesus Christ, &c.

The Collect for Saint Peter's Day.

Almighty God, Which by Thy Son Jesus Christ hast given to Thy Apostle Saint Peter many excellent gifts, and commandedst him earnestly to feed Thy flock; Make, we beseech Thee, all Bishops and Pastors diligently to preach Thy holy Word, and the people obediently to follow the same, that they may receive the crown of everlasting glory; through Jesus Christ, &c.

The Collect on Saint James's Day.

Grant, O merciful God, that as Thy Apostle Saint James, leaving his father and all that he had without delay, was obedient unto the calling of Thy Son Jesus Christ, and followed Him; so we, forsaking all worldly and carnal affections, may be evermore ready to follow Thy commandments; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for Saint Bartholomew's Day.

O Almighty and everlasting God, Which hast given grace to Thine Apostle Bartholomew truly to believe and to preach Thy Word; Grant, we beseech Thee, unto Thy Church, both to love that he believed, and to preach that he taught, through Christ our Lord.

The Collect for Saint Matthew's Day.

Almighty God, Which by Thy blessed Son didst call Matthew from the receipt of custom to be an Apostle and Evangelist; Grant us grace to forsake all covetous desires, and inordinate love of riches, and to follow Thy said Son Jesus Christ, Who liveth and reigneth, &c.

The Collect on Saint Michael and all Angels.

Everlasting God, Which hast ordained and constituted the services of all Angels and men in a wonderful order; Mercifully grant, that they which alway do Thee service in heaven, may by Thy appointment succour and defend us in earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Collect for Saint Luke's Day.

Almighty God, Which calledst Luke the Physician, whose praise is in the Gospel, to be a Physician of the soul; May it please Thee, by the wholesome medicines of his doctrine to heal all the diseases of our souls: through Thy Son Jesus, &c.

The Collect for Saint Simon and Saint Jude's Day.

Almighty God, Which hast builded Thy congregation upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the head cornerstone; Grant us so to be joined together in unity of spirit by their doctrine, that we may be made an holy temple acceptable unto Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Saints' Day.

The reasons for the solemn observation of this great and general festival are set down in the Preface to the Calendar of this book.

The Collect for All Saints' Day.

Almighty God, Which hast knit together the elect in one communion and fellowship, in the mystical body of Thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord; Grant us grace so to follow Thy holy Saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those unspeakable joys, which Thou hast prepared for them that unfeignedly love Thee; through Jesus, &c. . .

Devout Prayers

THAT MAY BE USED BEFORE AND AFTER THE RECEIVING OF CHRIST'S HOLY SACRAMENT, HIS BLESSED BODY AND BLOOD.

PRAYERS BEFORE THE RECEIVING OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT.

When we enter into the Church.

I. LORD, I have loved the habitation of Thine house, and the place where Thine honour dwelleth.

II. I will wash mine hands in innocency, O Lord : and so will I go to Thine Altar.

When we are prostrate before the Altar.

I. Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power : for Thou hast created all things, and for Thy will's sake they are, and were created.

II. Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanks, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for evermore. Amen.

PSALM li.

1. Have mercy upon me, O God, after Thy great goodness : according to the multitude of Thy mercies do away mine offences.

2. Wash me thoroughly from my wickedness : and cleanse me from my sin.

3. For I know my faults : and my sin is ever before me.

4. Against Thee only have I sinned, and done this evil in Thy sight : that Thou mightest be justified in Thy saying, and clear when Thou art judged.

5. Behold, I was shapen in wickedness : and in sin hath my mother conceived me.

6. But lo, Thou requirest truth in the inward parts : and shalt make me to understand wisdom secretly.

7. Thou shalt purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean : Thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

8. Thou shalt make me hear of joy and gladness : that the bones which Thou hast broken may rejoice.

9. Turn Thy face from my sins : and put out all my misdeeds.

10. Make me a clean heart, O God : and renew a right spirit within me.

11. Cast me not away from Thy presence : and take not Thy Holy Spirit from me.

12. O give me the comfort of Thy help again : and stablish me with Thy free Spirit.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

At the Consecration.

Vers. I believe ; Lord, help my unbelief.

The Hymn.

A special theme of praise is read,
True living and life-giving bread
Is now to be exhibited :

Within the supper of the Lord,
To twelve disciples at His board
As doubtless was delivered.

What at supper Christ performed
To be done He straitly charged
For His eternal memory :
Guided by His sacred orders,
Heavenly food upon our altars
For our souls we sanctify.

Christians are by faith assured
That by faith Christ is received,
Flesh and blood most precious :
What no duller sense conceiveth,
Firm and grounded faith believeth,
In strange effects not curious.

The Prayer.

I. Almighty Lord, Who hast of Thine infinite mercy vouchsafed to ordain this dreadful Sacrament for a perpetual memory of that blessed Sacrifice which once Thou madest for us upon the Cross : Grant me with such diligent remembrance, and such due reverence to assist the holy celebration of so heavenly and wonderful a mystery, that I may be made worthy by Thy grace to obtain the virtue and fruits of the same, with all the benefits of Thy precious Death and Passion, even the remission of all my sins, and the fulness of all Thy graces : which I beg for Thy only merits, Who art my only Saviour, God from everlasting, and world without end. Amen.

II. O Lord our heavenly Father, Almighty and everlasting God, regard, we beseech Thee, the devotion of Thy humble servants, who do now celebrate the memorial which Thy Son our Saviour hath commanded to be made in remembrance of His most blessed Passion and Sacrifice: that by the merits and power thereof now represented before Thy divine Majesty, we, and all Thy whole Church may obtain remission of our sins, and be made partakers of all other the benefits of His most precious Death and Passion, together with His mighty resurrection from the earth, and His glorious ascension into heaven, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

III. Be pleased, O God, to accept of this our bounden duty and service, and command that the prayers and supplications, together with the remembrance of Christ's Passion, which we now offer up unto Thee, may by the ministry of Thy holy Angels be brought up into Thy heavenly Tabernacle; and that Thou, not weighing our own merits, but looking upon the blessed Sacrifice of our Saviour, which was once fully and perfectly made for us all, mayest pardon our offences, and replenish us with Thy grace and heavenly benediction, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord.

Heavenly Aspirations immediately before the Receiving of the Blessed Sacrament.

I. I will go unto the Altar of God : even unto the God of my joy and gladness.

II. I will offer thanksgiving unto my God : and pay my vows unto the Most Highest.

III. O Lamb of God That takest away the sins of the world : have mercy upon us.

IV. O Lamb of God That takest away the sins of the world : grant us Thy peace.

V. Grant me, gracious Lord, so to eat the Flesh of Thy dear Son, and to drink His Blood, that my sinful body may be made clean by His Body, and my soul washed through His most precious Blood.

At the Receiving of the Body.

Lord, I am not worthy that Thou shouldest come under my roof, but speak the word and my soul shall be healed.

Adding with the Priest,

The Body of our Lord Jesus Christ, Which was given for me, preserve my body and soul unto everlasting life.

And answer, Amen.

At the Receiving of the Cup.

What reward shall I give unto the Lord for all the benefits that He hath done unto me? I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord.

Adding with the Priest,

The Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, Which was shed for me, preserve my body and soul unto everlasting life.

Answering again, Amen.

Thanksgiving after we have Received the Blessed Sacrament.

I. Oh, my God, Thou art true and holy! Oh, my soul, thou art blessed and happy!

II. Oh, the depth of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how incomprehensible are His judgments, and His ways past finding out!

III. Praise the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me praise His holy Name, Which saveth thy life from destruction, and feedeth thee with the bread of heaven.

IV. Glory be to God on high, and on earth peace, good-will towards men. We worship Thee, O Lord, and we magnify Thy Name for ever, Who hast vouchsafed to fill our souls with gladness, and to feed us with the heavenly mysteries of Christ's sacred Body and Blood: humbly beseeching Thee that from henceforth we may walk in all good works, and serve Thee in holiness and pureness of living, to the honour of Thy Name. Amen.

Meditations whilst others are Communicating.

I. Happy are those servants whom when their Lord cometh He shall find thus doing.

II. Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

If any one defile the temple of God, him will God destroy.

III. Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing happen unto thee.

IV. The hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth.

V. Be we followers of God, as dear children, and walk in love even as Christ loved us, and gave Himself an offering and a sacrifice of a sweet savour unto God for us.

At the end of the Communion.

The Doxology.

To the King eternal, the immortal, invisible, and only wise God, be all honour and glory, now and for evermore. Amen.

DIVERS FORMS OF DEVOUT AND PENITENT CONFESSIONS
OF OUR SINS, to be used, as at other times, so especially before the receiving of Christ's Blessed Sacrament, according to the direction of the Church.

Exhortation before the Communion.

☞ If any require comfort and counsel for the quieting of his conscience, let him come to some discreet minister of God's Word, and, opening his grief, receive the benefit of absolution.

☞ If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness*.

The Preparation.

I. Almighty God, unto Whom all hearts be open, all desires known, and from Whom no secrets are hid; Cleanse the thoughts of my heart by the inspiration of Thy Holy Spirit, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

* 1 John i. 9.

II. Almighty and everlasting God, Which hatest nothing that Thou hast made, and dost forgive the sins of all them that be penitent; Create and make in me a new and contrite heart, that I, worthily lamenting my sins, and acknowledging my wretchedness, may obtain of Thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Confession.

I confess, &c., those sins, which, if I would, I cannot hide from Him: my sins of pride and vain-glory, of hatred and envy, of gluttony and wantonness, &c., which I acknowledge, through my fault, even through my own fault, and my most grievous fault, to have committed against His heavenly and awful Majesty. I am an unclean and a sinful creature: I accuse myself of my wicked thoughts and desires that I have had, &c., of my wanton and evil words, that, &c., of my naughty and ungodly deeds, that, &c. for all which I am truly penitent from the depth of my soul, and am stedfastly resolved to shew forth the fruits of repentance in my future course of life. And therefore, in all lowliness and humility of a broken heart, I beg my pardon, and cry unto God for mercy towards me, a most sinful and unworthy creature; that He Whose nature and property it is to forgive sinners, and ever to have mercy upon them that truly turn unto Him, would vouchsafe of His great pity and goodness, to give me the comfort of absolution, and a perfect remission of all my sins; to strengthen me in all good works, and to bring me unto life everlasting, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

Other Forms of general Confessions.

I. Almighty and most merciful Father, I have erred and strayed from Thy ways like a lost sheep. I have followed too much the devices and desires of my own heart. I have offended against Thy holy laws. I have left undone those things which I ought to have done ; And I have done those things which I ought not to have done ; And there is no health in me. But Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon me, miserable offender. Spare Thou me, O God, which confess my faults. Restore Thou me that am penitent ; According to Thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesu our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for His sake ; That I may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, To the glory of Thy holy Name. Amen.

II. Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Maker of all things, Judge of all men ; I acknowledge and bewail my manifold sins and wickedness, which I from time to time most grievously have committed, by thought, word, and deed, against Thy Divine Majesty, provoking most justly Thy wrath and indignation against me. I do earnestly repent, and am heartily sorry for these my misdoings ; the remembrance of them is grievous unto me ; the burden of them is intolerable. Have mercy upon me, have mercy upon me, most merciful Father ; for Thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, forgive me all that is past ; and grant that I may ever hereafter serve and please Thee in newness of life, to the honour and glory of Thy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

III. Forgive me my sins, O Lord, forgive me the sins of my youth, and the sins of mine age, the sins of my soul, and the sins of my body, my secret and my whispering sins, my presumptuous and my crying sins, the sins that I have done to please myself, and the sins that I have done to please others. Forgive me my wanton and idle sins. Forgive me my serious and deliberated sins. Forgive me those sins which I know, and those sins which I know not; the sins which I have striven so long to hide from others, that now I have even hid them from my own memory. Forgive them, O Lord, forgive them all, and of Thy great goodness let me be absolved from mine offences.

A devout manner of Preparing ourselves to receive Absolution.

I that am a wretched sinner, here personally appearing and prostrate before the presence of the everlasting God, having in remembrance the exceeding mercy of His great goodness towards me, whom He hath created of nothing, preserved, sustained, and loved, when I was most unworthy of any thing; whom He hath of His incomprehensible clemency so often invited to repentance, and whose conversion and amendment He hath so patiently expected; as also having in memory, that at the day of my Christening I was so happily and holily vowed and dedicated unto my God, to be His child, and to live in His continual service: yet that contrary to the profession which was then made in my name, I have so many and sundry times, so execrably and detestably violated my vows, profaned my sacred promises, and employed my soul to the service of the world, the flesh, and the devil; thereby despising the graces, and contemning the goodness of God's divine Majesty: at length recalling myself, and in all lowly and devout wise here casting my soul and body prostrate before the dreadful throne of His justice, I acknowledge and confess, and I yield myself a most miserable wretched sinner, guilty of that Death and Passion which Christ once suffered for me upon the tormenting cross. But turning myself to the throne of His infinite mercy, and with all my might and force from the very bowels of my heart, detesting the iniquities of my forepast life: I most humbly beg and crave pardon for the same, with an entire absolution from all my sins, even for the precious Death and Passion's sake of my Lord and Saviour: upon Whom, as upon the only foundation of my hope, I repose all my confidence, and unto Whom I promise and confirm again, I avow and solemnly renew the sacred profession of loyal service and fidelity, which was made in my name and in my behalf unto Him at my holy Baptism: renouncing unfeignedly the vanities of this wicked world, the lusts of all sinful flesh, and the suggestions of the devil; and converting myself unto my most gracious and merciful God, I desire, deliberate, purpose, and fully resolve to honour Him, serve Him, love Him, and obey Him, now and for ever hereafter: giving and dedicating unto Him for this end, the powers of my soul, the affections of my heart, and the faculties of my body, to be His faithful, loyal, and obedient servants for ever, without unsaying, revoking, or repenting me of this my holy and sacred promise, or any part thereof. And I most humbly beseech Almighty

God, the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, to confirm me in this constant resolution, and to accept of this my broken and contrite heart, which He hath promised not to despise; entirely desiring His fatherly goodness, that as He hath given me a desire and will to purpose, so He would give me strength and grace to perform all holy actions, through Jesus Christ.

The Prayer.

O God, Whose nature and property is ever to have mercy and to forgive, That hast compassion upon all men, and hatest nothing that Thou hast made, nor wouldest the death of a sinner, but rather that he should turn from sin, and be saved; Mercifully hear the devout and lowly prayers of Thy servant, and spare all those which confess their sins unto Thee, that they whose consciences by sin are accused, by Thy merciful and gracious pardon may be absolved, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

After Absolution.

Blessed is he whose unrighteousness is forgiven, and whose sin is covered. Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth no sin.

Prayers for the King and Queen.

OUR Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation: But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Vers. O God, make speed to save me.

Resp. O Lord, make haste to help me.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

Alleluiah. Praise the Lord.

The Hymn.

Great God of kings,
Whose gracious hand hath led,
Our sacred sovereign[']s head
Unto the throne
From whence our bliss is bred ;
Oh, send Thine Angels
To his blessed side,
And bid them there abide,
To be at once
His guardian and his guide.

Dear be his life ;
All glorious be his days ;
And, prospering all his ways,
Late add Thy last crown
To his peace and praise.
And when he hath
Outlived the world's long date,
Let Thy last change translate
His earthly throne
To Thy celestial state. Amen.

The Antiphona.

Behold, O God, our defender, and look upon the face of Thine anointed.

PSALM xxi.

1. The king shall reign in Thy strength, O Lord :
exceeding glad shall he be of Thy salvation.

2. Thou hast given him his heart's desire : and hast not denied him the request of his lips.

3. For Thou hast prevented him with the blessings of goodness : and hast set a crown of pure gold upon his head.

4. He shall ask life of Thee, and Thou shalt give him a long life : even for ever and ever.

5. His honour is great in Thy salvation : glory and great worship shalt Thou lay upon him.

6. For Thou shalt give him everlasting felicity :
and make him glad with the joy of Thy countenance.

7. And why ? because the king putteth his trust in the Lord : and in the mercy of the most Highest he shall not miscarry.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

PSALM lxi.

1. Hear my prayer, O God : give ear unto my calling.

2. Thou shalt grant the king a long life : that his years may endure throughout all generations.

3. He shall dwell before God for ever : O prepare Thy loving mercy and faithfulness, that they may preserve him.

4. So will I always sing praises unto Thy Name : that I may daily perform my vows.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

PSALM lxxxix.

1. Thou hast made a covenant, O Lord, with Thy chosen : and with Thy holy oil Thou hast anointed him.

2. Let Thy hand hold him fast : and Thy arm strengthen him.

3. Let not the enemy be able to do him violence : and let not the son of wickedness hurt him.

4. Smite down his foes before his face : and plague them that hate him.

5. Let Thy truth also and Thy mercy be with him : and in Thy Name let his horn be exalted.

6. Let him say, Thou art his father, his God, and his strong salvation.

7. Let Thy mercy be kept for him evermore : and let Thy covenant stand fast with him.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost :

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

The Antiphona.

Behold, O God, our defender, and look upon the face of Thine anointed.

The Lesson.

1 TIM. ii. 1.

I will, therefore, that prayers and supplications, with giving of thanks, be made for all men : for kings, and for all that are in authority, that we may live a quiet and a peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour.

Vers. O Lord, save the king.

Resp. And mercifully hear us when we call upon Thee.

The Prayers.

I. Almighty God, Whose kingdom is everlasting, and power infinite ; Have mercy upon the whole congregation ; and so rule the heart of Thy chosen servant Charles, our king^a and governor, that he (knowing Whose minister he is) may above all things seek Thy honour and glory : and that we his subjects (duly considering Whose authority he hath), may faithfully serve, honour, and humbly obey him, in Thee and for Thee, according to Thy blessed word and ordinance ; through Jesus Christ our Lord, Who with Thee and the Holy Ghost liveth and reigneth, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

II. Almighty and everlasting God, we are taught by Thy holy Word, that the hearts of kings are in Thy rule and governance, and that Thou dost dispose and turn them as it seemeth best to Thy godly wisdom: We humbly beseech Thee so to dispose and govern the heart of Charles Thy servant, our king and governor, that in all his thoughts, words, and works, he may ever seek Thy honour and glory, and study to preserve Thy people committed to his charge, in wealth, peace, and godliness: Grant this, O merciful Father, for Thy dear Son's sake, Jesu Christ our Lord. Amen.

III. We beseech Thee, O Lord, to save and defend all Christian kings, princes, and governors, and specially Thy servant Charles our king; that under him we may be godly and quietly governed: And grant unto his whole Council, and to all that be put in authority under him, that they may truly and indifferently minister justice to the punishment of wickedness and vice, and to the maintenance of God's true religion and virtue. Amen.

IV. O Lord our heavenly Father, high and mighty, King of kings, Lord of lords, the only ruler of princes, Which dost from Thy throne behold all the dwellers upon earth; Most heartily we beseech Thee with Thy favour to behold our most gracious sovereign lord, King Charles; and so replenish him with the grace of Thy Holy Spirit, that he may alway incline to Thy will, and walk in Thy way; Endue him plenteously with heavenly gifts; grant him in health and wealth long to live; strengthen him that he may vanquish and overcome all his enemies: and finally, after this life, he may attain everlasting joy and felicity; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

V. O Almighty and everlasting God, Creator and Lord of all things, give ear, we beseech Thee, unto our humble prayers, and multiply Thy blessings upon Thy servant our sovereign, King Charles, whom in all lowly devotion we commend unto Thy high Majesty: that, being strengthened with the faith of Abraham, endued with the mildness of Moses, armed with the magnanimity of Joshua, exalted with the humility of David, beautified with the wisdom of Solomon, and replenished with the goodness and holiness of them all, he may walk uprightly before Thee, in the way of righteousness; and, like a mighty king, may be powerful over his enemies, governing his people with equity, and preserving Thy Church with truth and peace, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

VI. God, the unspeakable Author of the world, Creator of men, Governor of empires, and establisher of all kingdoms, Who out of the loins of our father Abraham didst choose a King, that became the Saviour of all kings and nations of the earth; bless, we beseech Thee, Thy faithful servant, and our dread sovereign lord, King Charles, with the richest blessings of Thy grace. Establish him in the throne of his kingdom by Thy mighty aid and protection; visit him as Thou didst visit Moses in the bush, Joshua in the battle, Gideon in the field, and Samuel in the temple. Let the dew of Thine abundant mercies fall upon his head, and give unto him the blessing of David and Solomon. Be unto him an helmet of salvation against the face of his enemies, and a strong tower of defence in the time of adversity. Let his reign be prosperous and his days many. Let peace, and love, and holiness; let justice and truth, and all Christian virtues, flourish in his time: let his people serve him with honour and obedience, and let him so duly serve Thee here on earth, that he may hereafter everlastingly reign with Thee in heaven, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

VII. Look down, Almighty God, with Thy favourable countenance upon Thine anointed, and our glorious King. Bless him as Thou didst bless Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and pour upon him the fulness of Thy mercy and grace. Give unto him of the dew of heaven, and of the fatness of the earth, abundance of corn, and wine, and oil, and plenty of all things long to continue: that in his time there may be health in our country, and peace throughout all his kingdoms: that the glory of his royal court may shine forth far and near in the eyes of all nations, even through Him Who is the King of kings, and Lord of all things, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

VIII. Grant, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that our sovereign lord the King may be a most mighty protector of his people, and a religious defender of Thy sacred faith, a bountiful comforter of Thy holy Church, a glorious triumpher over all his enemies, a gracious governor unto all his subjects, and a happy father of many children, to rule this nation by succession in all ages; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayers for the Queen.

I. Almighty God, the fountain of all mercy, we humbly beseech Thee to pour down the riches of Thine abundant goodness upon the head of Thine handmaid, our most gracious Queen Mary, that she, being continually beautified with the royal ornaments of Thy heavenly grace, may be holy and devout as Esther, loving to the King as Rachel, fruitful as Leah, wise as Rebecca, faithful and obedient as Sarah; and with long life and glory continuing in her high and princely estate here, she may at last be brought to the great happiness of Thine everlasting estate hereafter, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

II. Almighty God, our heavenly Father, we be taught by Thy holy Word, that the bringing forth of children and the fruitfulness of the womb is in Thy rule and governance, an heritage and blessing that cometh from the Lord: we humbly beseech Thee so to dispose, comfort, and bless Thine humble handmaid, our most gracious Queen Mary, that she may grow up as a fruitful vine upon the walls of the King's house, and become a joyful mother of many children, to the joy and welfare of this kingdom, and to the glory of Thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

III. O God, from Whom all good graces do proceed, we beseech Thee to multiply upon Thy devoted handmaid, our gracious Queen, the manifold gifts of Thy Holy Spirit, the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and ghostly strength, the Spirit of knowledge and true godliness, and fulfil her, O Lord, with the Spirit of Thy holy fear, for Jesus Christ His sake. Amen.

IV. Almighty God, bless her with the blessings of heaven above, and the blessings of the earth beneath. Let peace and plenty dwell about her, let holiness and honour be her guard, and let all the fulness of Thy blessings be upon her, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer for the Prince Palatine, with the Lady Elizabeth, &c.

Almighty God, the fountain of all goodness, hear our humble supplications which we make unto Thee for Thy blessings and favours upon Frederic Prince Elector Palatine, and the Lady Elizabeth his wife, with their princely issue: Endue them with Thy Holy Spirit; enrich them with Thy heavenly grace; prosper them with all happiness; and bring them to Thine everlasting kingdom: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Lord's Name be praised.

Prayers for the Four Ember Weeks.

AMONG all the set Fasts of the year, Lent hath the first, and these Ember days the second place: days of devotion and fasting, which were instituted of old, and observed at the four seasons of the year, as for many others, so chiefly for these reasons. First, That Christians in these religious duties towards God might let the world know they were as devout and forward as formerly the Jews had been, whose custom it was to observe four several and solemn times of fast in the year; though for other ends and upon other occasions than now the use of the Church is to do. 2. For that these times are as the first fruits of every season, which we rightly dedicate to the service and the honour of God. 3. That by beginning these several parts of the year with an holy, righteous, and sober life, we might the better learn how to spend the remainder of every season accordingly. 4. That we might obtain the continuance of God's favour towards us for the fruits of the earth, which at these times are for the most part either sown, or sprung up, or coming to their ripeness, or gathered into the barn. 5. That we might recall, bewail, and repent us the more seriously of those sins which all the season before we have, through our frailty and wilfulness, committed. 6. That our bodies might, by the imploring of God's mercies, be freed from those common distemperatures which usually these four seasons of the year, through the predominant humours then reigning, do bring along with them. 7. And, lastly, for that at these times it was the ordinary custom of the Church, and it is so still, by the imposition of her Bishops' hands, to give holy and sacred Orders^a; which Orders were ever given as well by Christ and His Apostles^b, as their successors, with solemn prayer and fasting beforehand.

The Psalms.

PSALM cxix.

Beati immaculati.

1. Blessed are those that are undefiled in the way : and walk in the law of the Lord.

2. Blessed are they that keep His testimonies : and seek Him with their whole heart.

3. For they which do no wickedness : walk in His ways.

4. Thou hast charged : that we shall diligent'y keep Thy commandments.

5. O that my ways were made so direct : that I might keep Thy statutes !

6. So shall I not be confounded : while I have respect unto all Thy commandments.

7. I will thank Thee with an unfeigned heart : when I shall have learned the judgments of Thy righteousness.

^a Luke vi. 17.

^b Acts xiii. 3.

8. I will keep Thy ceremonies : O forsake me not utterly.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

Legem pone.

1. Teach me, O Lord, the way of Thy statutes : and I shall keep it unto the end.

2. Give me understanding, and I shall keep Thy law : yea, I shall keep it with my whole heart.

3. Make me to go in the path of Thy commandments : for therein is my desire.

4. Incline my heart unto Thy testimonies : and not to covetousness.

5. O turn away mine eyes, lest they behold vanity : and quicken Thou me in Thy way.

6. O stablish Thy word in Thy servant : that I may fear Thee.

7. Take away the rebuke that I am afraid of : for Thy judgments are good.

8. Behold, my delight is in Thy commandments : O quicken me in Thy righteousness.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

Appropinquet.

1. Let my complaint come before Thee, O Lord : give me understanding, according to Thy word.

2. Let my supplication come before Thee : deliver me, according to Thy word.

3. My lips shall speak of Thy praise : when Thou hast taught me Thy statutes.

4. Yea, my tongue shall sing of Thy word : for all Thy commandments are righteous.

5. Let Thine hand help me : for I have chosen Thy commandments.

6. I have longed for Thy saving health, O Lord : and in Thy law is my delight.

7. O let my soul live, and it shall praise Thee : and Thy judgments shall help me.

8. I have gone astray like a sheep that is lost : O seek Thy servant, for I do not forget Thy commandments.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

After these Psalms the Litany may be said.

O God, the Father of heaven : have, &c. [As before.]

THE PRAYERS COMMON TO ALL THE EMBER DAYS, DISPOSED ACCORDING TO THE SEVEN REASONS BEFORE SPECIFIED.

I. For God's Acceptance of our Humiliation.

Almighty God, Who didst command Thy people Israel to afflict their souls before Thee on the day of atonement, and by Whose divine inspiration the succeeding ages of that Church appointed other set times of public fasting and humiliation ; Grant, we beseech Thee, that as our knowledge of Thee, and of Thy truth, far exceeds theirs, so in this, and all other duties of religion, our righteousness may exceed their righteousness, that men seeing our good works, may glorify Thee our heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ Thy Son our Saviour. Amen.

II. For consecrating the Beginning of every Season unto God.

Almighty God, from Whom we have the beginning and continuance of our life; Grant, we beseech Thee, that we Thy humble servants may so consecrate unto Thy Divine Majesty the first fruits of this time and season of the year, that the good purposes which Thou puttest into our hearts may have full effect in our lives, to Thy glory, and our souls' health, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

III. For Grace to spend the whole Season aright.

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, we most humbly beseech Thee, that we Thy servants, who do begin this time and season of the year with fasting and sober living, may find thereby such ghostly strength and comfort, that we may be the more able and willing to spend both the remainder of this season and the rest of our days accordingly, using this world as it becometh those who are pilgrims and strangers here, and do look for an abiding city in the heavens, through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

IV. For the Fruits of the Earth.

Almighty God, Lord of heaven and earth, in Whom we live, move, and have our being, Who doest good unto all men, making Thy sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sending rain on the just and on the unjust; Favourably behold us Thy people, who do call upon Thy Name, and send us Thy blessing from heaven, in giving us fruitful seasons, and filling our hearts with food and gladness; that both our hearts and mouths may be continually filled with Thy praises, giving thanks to Thee in Thy holy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

V. For Pardon of Sins past.

Almighty and most merciful Father, Who for our many and grievous sins, those especially which we have committed against Thee, since the last solemn time of our humiliation and repentance, mightest most justly have cut us off in the midst of our days; but in the multitude of Thy mercies hast hitherto spared us; Accept, we most heartily beseech Thee, our unfeigned sorrow for all our former transgressions, and grant that we may never so presume of Thy mercy, as to despise the riches of Thy goodness, but that Thy forbearance and long-suffering may lead us to repentance, and amendment of our sinful lives, to Thy honour and glory, and our final acquittance and absolution at the last day, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

VI. For the Health of our Bodies.

O God the Father of Lights, from Whom cometh down every good and perfect gift; Mercifully look upon our frailty and infirmity, and grant us such health of body as Thou knowest to be needful for us; that both in our bodies and souls we may evermore serve Thee with all our strength and might, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

VII. For the Ordination of Priests and Deacons.

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, Who hast purchased to Thyself an universal Church by the precious Blood of Thy dear Son; Mercifully look upon Thy whole congregation, and at this time so rule and govern the hearts and minds of Thy servants the Bishops and Pastors of Thy flock, that they may lay hands suddenly on no man, but faithfully and wisely make choice of fit men to serve Thee in the sacred Ministry of Thy Church. And to those that shall be ordained to that holy function give Thy grace and heavenly benediction; that both by their life and doctrine they may set forth Thy glory, and set forward the salvation of all men; grant this, O Lord, for His sake, Who is the great Shepherd and Bishop of our souls, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE PRAYERS PROPER TO THE FOUR SEVERAL EMBER WEEKS.

I. In the Time of Advent.

Grant, we most humbly beseech Thee, O heavenly Father, that with holy Simeon and Anna, and all Thy devout servants, who waited for the consolation of Israel, we may at this time so serve Thee with fasting and prayer, that by the celebration of the advent and birth of our blessed Redeemer, we may with them be filled with true joy and consolation, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

II. For the Ember Week in Lent.

O Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, and Saviour of the world, Who didst foretel to Thine Apostles, that at the time of Thy sufferings, they should weep and lament, while the world rejoiced, and that they should be sorrowful, but their sorrow should be turned into joy; Grant that during this time wherein Thou didst suffer, and wast afflicted with extreme sorrow and anguish for the sins of the whole world, we Thy unworthy servants may so weep and lament, and be sorrowful for our sins, the cause of all those Thy sorrows and sufferings, that on the day of Thy triumphant resurrection, we may rejoice with that joy, which no man can take from us. Grant this, O blessed Lord and Saviour, Who didst die for our sins, and rise again for our justification, and now livest and reignest with the Father, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, world without end. Amen.

III. For the Ember Week after Pentecost.

O Lord Jesus Christ, the Eternal Son of the Eternal Father, Who at the time of Thy glorious ascension didst command Thine Apostles to tarry in Jerusalem, until they were endued with power from on high; and when, in obedience to this Thy commandment, they had there continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, didst, according to Thy promise, send down upon them the Holy Ghost the Comforter; Grant, we beseech Thee, that we Thy most humble servants, abiding in the unity of Thy Holy Catholic Church, the Mother of us all, and continually serving Thee as Thou hast commanded, may be evermore replenished with the heavenly grace of the Holy Ghost, through Thy precious merits and most powerful intercession, Who livest and reignest with the Father in the unity of the same Spirit, ever world without end. Amen.

IV. For the Ember Week in September.

Almighty God, Who givest to all life, and breath, and all things; and bringest forth food out of the earth for the use of man; Keep us ever in mind, that this world, with all the glory of it, fadeth, and the fashion thereof passeth away; and grant that we may so use the fruits of the ground which Thou hast now given us, and all other Thy temporal blessings wherewith Thou crownest the year, as we abuse them not to the satisfying of our wanton and inordinate appetites; but may evermore serve Thee in Christian temperance and sobriety, as it becometh those who, living on earth, have their conversation in heaven, that at the last we may be admitted into Thy heavenly kingdom, where we shall never hunger or thirst again, being satisfied with the plenteousness of Thy house, and filled with the abundance of Thy pleasures for evermore. Grant this, O heavenly Father, for Jesus Christ's sake our Lord. Amen.

Assist me mercifully, O Lord, in these my supplications and prayers, and dispose the way of Thy servants towards the attainment of everlasting salvation, that among all the changes and chances of this mortal life, they may ever be defended by Thy most gracious and ready help, through Christ our Lord. Amen. .

PSALMS xxxi. and xxxiv.

1. In Thee, O Lord, have I put my trust : let me never be put to confusion, deliver me in Thy righteousness.

2. Bow down Thine ear unto me : make haste to deliver me.

3. And be Thou my strong rock, and the house of my defence : that Thou mayest save me.

4. My time is in Thy hand : deliver me from the hand of mine enemies.

5. Shew Thy servant the light of Thy countenance : and save me for Thy mercy's sake.

6. The eyes of the Lord are over the righteous : and His ears are open unto their prayers.

The Confession.

I confess unto Almighty God, &c. [As before.]

An humble protestation of free forgiveness to others.

I do further most humbly desire all and every one whom I have offended, that they would vouchsafe to forgive me. And I do freely and heartily forgive all the world, wherein soever any one hath offended me, or done me any manner of injury whatsoever; even as I desire to be forgiven of God, and to be absolved from my sins for the merits of my blessed Redeemer. Amen.

The Creed.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, &c.

After the Creed.

In this faith, which I do unfeignedly and wholly believe as a true member of Christ's Catholic Church, do I purpose to finish my life : and if aught shall happen by the violence of my sickness, or the suggestions of my ghostly enemies, whereby I shall come to think, say, or do any thing contrary to this holy faith and purpose, I do here revoke it beforehand, and protest from my soul, even before Christ and His holy Angels, that I give no consent thereunto ; giving most humble and hearty thanks unto my loving Creator and Redeemer, that by the wonderful goodness of His bounty, He hath vouchsafed to bring me to the knowledge of this faith in Him, which, with my soul and body, I commend into His most holy and merciful hands, now and at the hour of my death. Amen.

The Prayers.

I. God, Who declarest Thy almighty power most chiefly in shewing mercy and pity ; of Thy goodness and favour vouchsafe to hear these my humble and devout prayers, that being now justly punished for mine offences, I may be mercifully delivered by Thy abundant pity, for the merits of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

II. O God, Who seest that I put not my trust in any thing which I can do ; Mercifully grant, that by Thy power I may be delivered from all adversity, and be healed both in body and soul ; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

III. O Lord, look down from heaven, behold, visit, and relieve me Thy sick servant. Look upon me with the eyes of Thy mercy, give me comfort and sure confidence in Thee, defend me from the danger of my deadly enemy, and keep me in perpetual peace and safety ; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

IV. Hear me, Almighty and most merciful God and Saviour ; extend Thine accustomed goodness to me Thy humble servant who am now grieved with sickness. Visit me, O Lord, as Thou didst visit Peter's wife's mother, and the captain's servant, so visit and restore unto me my former health (if it be Thy blessed will) ; or else, give me grace so to take Thy visitation, that, after this painful life is ended, I may dwell with Thee in life everlasting. Amen.

V. O sweet Jesus, I desire neither life, nor death, but Thy most holy will ; Thou art the thing, O Lord, that I look for ; be it unto me according to Thy good pleasure. If it be Thy will to have me die, receive my soul ; and grant that in Thee, and with Thee, I may receive everlasting rest. If it be Thy will to have me live any longer upon earth, give me grace to amend the rest of my life, and with good works to glorify Thy holy Name, Who with the Father and the Holy Ghost livest and reignest ever one God, world without end. Amen.

VI. O God, Whose nature and property is ever to have mercy and to forgive, receive my humble petitions; and though I be tied and bound with the chain of my sins, yet let the pitifulness of Thy great mercy loose me; for the honour of Jesus Christ's sake our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

The Blessing.

The Almighty Lord, Who is a most strong tower to them that put their trust in Him, to Whom all things in heaven, in earth, and under the earth, do bow and obey, be now and evermore my defence; and make me know and feel, that there is no other Name under heaven given to man, in whom, and through whom, I may receive health or salvation, but only the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

PRAYERS AT THE HOUR OF DEATH.

Our Father, Which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy, &c.

Vers. O Lord, save Thy servant.

Resp. Which putteth his (or her) trust in Thee.

PSALMS xiii. and xvi.

1. Consider, and hear me, O Lord my God; lighten mine eyes, that I sleep not in death : lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him.

2. My trust is in Thy mercy : and my heart shall be joyful in Thy salvation.

3. All my delight is upon the saints : and upon such as excel in virtue.

4. The Lord Himself is the portion of mine inheritance, and of my cup : yea, I have a goodly heritage.

5. I have set God before mine eyes : for He is on my right hand, and therefore I shall not fall.

6. Wherefore my heart was glad, and my glory rejoiced : my flesh also shall rest in hope.

7. For why? Thou shalt not leave my soul in hell, neither shalt Thou suffer me to see corruption.

8. Thou shalt shew me the path of life; in Thy presence is the fulness of joy : and at Thy right hand there is pleasure for evermore.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

PSALM xxiii.

1. The Lord is my shepherd : therefore can I lack nothing.

2. He shall feed me in a green pasture : and lead me forth besides the waters of comfort.

3. He shall convert my soul : and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness, for His Name's sake.

4. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil : for Thou art with me : Thy rod and Thy staff do comfort me.

5. Thy loving-kindness and mercy shall follow me : and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

PSALMS xxxviii. and xxxix.

1. Put me not to rebuke, O Lord, in Thine anger : neither chasten me in thy heavy displeasure.

2. For Thine arrows stick fast in me : and Thy hand presseth me sore.

3. There is no health in my flesh, because of Thy displeasure : neither is there any rest in my bones, by reason of my sin.

4. For my wickednesses are gone over my head : and are like a sore burden, too heavy for me to bear.

5. My wounds stink, and are corrupt : through my foolishness.

6. I am brought into so great trouble and misery : that I go mourning all the day long.

7. My loins are filled with a sore disease : and there is no whole part in my body.

8. I am feeble, and sore smitten : I have roared for the very disquietness of my heart.

9. Lord, Thou knowest all my life : and my groaning is not hid from Thee.

10. Forsake me not, O Lord my God : be not Thou far from me.

11. Lord, let me know mine end, and the number of my days : for Thou hast made them as a span long, and verily every man living is altogether vanity.

12. For man walketh in a vain shadow, he disquieteth himself in vain : he heapeth up riches, and cannot tell who shall gather them.

13. And now, Lord, what is my hope : truly my hope is even in Thee.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

, PSALM cii.

1. Hear my prayer, O Lord : and let my cry come unto Thee.

2. Hide not Thy face from me in the time of trouble : incline Thine ears unto me when I call ; O hear me, and that right soon.

3. For my days are consumed away like smoke : and my bones are burnt up as it were a firebrand.

4. My heart is smitten down, and withered like grass : so that I forget to eat my bread.

5. For the voice of my groaning : my bones will scarce cleave to my flesh.

6. My days are gone like a shadow : and I am withered like grass.

7. O Lord, let it be Thy pleasure to deliver me : make haste, O Lord, to help me.

8. Thou art my helper and Redeemer : make no long tarrying, O my God.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

By the mystery of Thy holy Incarnation ; by Thy holy Nativity and Circumcision ; by Thy Baptism, Fasting, and Temptation,

Good Lord, deliver, &c.

By Thine Agony and bloody Sweat; by Thy Cross and Passion,

Good Lord, deliver, &c.

By Thy precious Death and Burial; by Thy glorious triumph over death and hell,

Good Lord, deliver, &c.

By Thy most wonderful Resurrection and Ascension; and by the miraculous coming down of the Holy Ghost,

Good Lord, deliver, &c.

In this time of his (or her) tribulation; in this hour of death, and in the day of judgment,

Good Lord, deliver, &c.

We sinners do beseech Thee to hear us, O Lord God; that it may please Thee to deliver the soul of this Thy servant from the power of his (or her) enemies;

We beseech Thee to hear us, good Lord.

That he may evermore have a sure affiance and trust in Thy mercy;

We beseech, &c.

That it may please Thee to be his defender and keeper, giving him the victory over death, hell, and sin;

We beseech, &c.

That it may please Thee to succour, help, and comfort him in this his danger, necessity, and tribulation;

We beseech, &c.

That it may please Thee of Thy goodness to forgive him all his offences;

We beseech, &c.

That it may please Thee to assuage his pain, and to give him a quiet and joyful departure;

We beseech, &c.

That it may please Thee to guard him with Thy holy Angels, and to take him unto Thy favour, through the merits of Christ our Saviour ;

We beseech, &c.

That it may please Thee to shew him the path of everlasting life, and the fulness of joy at Thy right hand, where there is pleasure for evermore ;

We beseech, &c.

Son of God : we beseech Thee to hear us.

Son of God : we beseech Thee to hear us.

O Lamb of God : that takest away the sins of the world ;

Grant (him) Thy peace.

O Lamb of God : that takest away the sins of the world ;

Have mercy upon (him).

O Christ, hear us.

O Christ, &c.

Lord, have mercy upon (him).

Christ, have, &c.

Lord, have mercy upon (him).

The peace of God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be with him evermore.

The manner of commending the soul into the hands of God, at the very point of time when it is departing from the body.

We brought nothing into this world, neither may we carry anything out of this world. The Lord giveth, and the Lord taketh away. Even as the Lord pleaseth, so cometh every thing to pass. Blessed be the Name of the Lord.

Into Thy merciful hands, O Lord, we commend the soul of this Thy servant, now departing from the body : acknowledge, we meekly beseech Thee, a work of Thine own hands, a sheep of Thine own fold, a lamb of Thine own flock, a sinner of Thine own redeeming. Receive him into the blessed arms of Thy unspeakable mercy, into the sacred rest of everlasting peace, and into the glorious estate of Thy chosen saints in heaven.

God the Father, Who hath created thee, God the Son, Who hath redeemed thee, God the Holy Ghost, Who hath infused His grace into thee, be now and evermore thy defence, assist thee in this thy last trial, and bring thee into the way of everlasting life. Amen.

Christ, That redeemed thee with His Agony and bloody Death, have mercy upon thee and strengthen thee in this agony of death. Amen.

Christ Jesus, That rose the third day from death, raise up thy body again in the resurrection of the just. Amen.

Christ, That ascended into heaven, and now sitteth at the right hand of God, bring thee unto the place of eternal happiness and joy. Amen.

God the Father preserve and keep thee. God the Son assist and strengthen thee. God the Holy Ghost defend and aid thee. God the Holy Trinity be ever with thee, that thy death may be precious in the sight of the Lord, with Whom thou shalt live for evermore. Amen.

Then let be said plainly, distinctly, and with some pauses, these ejaculatory Meditations and Prayers.

Go to thy rest, O my soul, for the Lord hath upholden thee.

From death to life: from sorrow to joy: from a vale of misery to a paradise of mercy.

I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that I shall be raised again in the last day.

I shall walk before the Lord in the land of the living.

In Thee, O Lord, have I trusted: let me never be confounded.

Make me to be numbered with Thy saints: in glory everlasting.

Into Thy hands I commend my spirit: for Thou hast redeemed me, O Lord, Thou God of truth.

I am poor and needy: but the Lord careth for me.

I desire to be dissolved, and to be with Christ.

Thou art my helper and Redeemer: make no long tarrying, O my God.

Come, Lord Jesu, come quickly.

O Lord, let it be Thy pleasure to deliver me: make haste, O Lord, to help me.

Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.

And these to be repeated until the soul be departed.

Then,

O Thou Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, grant him Thy peace.

O Lord, with Whom do live the spirits of them that die; and by Whom the souls of Thy servants, after they be delivered from the burden of this flesh, be in perpetual joy and felicity; We most meekly beseech Thee for this Thy servant, that having now received the absolution from all his sins which he hath committed in this world, he may escape the gates of hell, and the pains of eternal darkness; that he may for ever dwell with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, in the region of light and Thy blessed presence, where there is neither weeping nor heaviness; and that when the dreadful day of the general judgment shall come, he may rise again with the just, and receive this dead body which must now be buried in the earth, to be joined with his soul, and be made pure and incorruptible for ever after, in Thy glorious kingdom, for the merits of Thy dear Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Prayers and Thanksgivings for Sundry Purposes.

A Prayer and Thanksgiving for the whole estate of Christ's Catholic Church.

 With a commemoration of the Saints before us.

ALMIGHTY GOD^a, Who by Thy holy Apostle hast taught us to make prayers and supplications for all men; We humbly beseech Thee most mercifully to receive these our prayers, which we offer unto Thy Divine Majesty^r for all men in general; and more especially for Thine own people, the holy Catholic Church, the Mother of us all that bear the name of Christ; beseeching Thee to inspire it continually with the spirit of truth, unity, and concord: And grant that all they who do confess Thy holy Name, may agree in the truth of Thy holy Word, and live in unity and godly love; being one fold, under one Shepherd, Jesus Christ our Lord. And here, forasmuch as we be not only taught to pray, but to give thanks also for all men, we do offer up unto Thee most high laud, and hearty thanks for all Thy wonderful graces and virtues, which Thou hast declared in all Thy Saints, and by them bestowed upon Thy holy Church from the beginning of the world; and chiefly in the glorious and most blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of Thy Son Jesus Christ our

^a Ex. Liturg. Eccl.

Lord^b; as also in the blessed Angels of heaven; and in all other holy persons upon earth, who by their lives and labours have shined forth as lights in the several generations of the world; such as were the holy Patriarchs, Prophets, Apostles, and Martyrs, whom we remember with honour, and commemorate with joy; and for whom, as also for all other Thy happy servants, our fathers and brethren, who have departed this life with the seal of Faith, and do now rest in the sleep of peace, we praise and magnify Thy holy Name: most humbly desiring, that we may still continue in their holy communion, and enjoy the comfort thereof while we are on earth, following with a glad will and mind their holy examples of godly living and steadfastness in Thy faith: and that, at the last day, we with them, and they with us, may attain to the resurrection of the just, and have our perfect consummation both of soul and body in the kingdom of heaven. For these, and for all other things that Thou, O God, would have us to pray, and to praise Thy great Name, we are bold to call upon Thee, and say, as Christ our Lord hath taught us, Our Father, &c.

For our Parents.

ALMIGHTY God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, of Whom the whole family in heaven and in earth is named; I give Thee most humble thanks, for that Thou didst, of Thy Divine providence, vouchsafe to let me be born of Christian parents, by whose care I was first brought into Thy holy Baptism, and afterwards brought up in Thy holy religion. I beseech Thee, O blessed God, Who art the rewarder of every good work, to recompense them their full reward, even out of the riches of Thy bounty and goodness. Give them peace and plenty; defend them from all dangers both of body and soul; keep them in the steadfastness of Thy faith, and in the obedience of Thy holy commandments: that so, having Thee their merciful and gentle Father, after many happy days here in this life, they may at last be brought unto life everlasting, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

Another for our Parents.

ALMIGHTY GOD, Who hast strictly commanded us to honour our father and our mother next unto Thee; Grant me, of Thy goodness and grace, so to love and to honour my parents, to fear and to obey them, to help, and to pray for them, as Thou in Thy holy Word hast directed and charged me to do; that both in their life and at their death, their souls may bless me, and by Thy fatherly mercy I may obtain that blessing which Thou hast promised to those that honour their father and their mother; and that Thou, seeing my unfeigned heart and reverence towards them, mayst become my loving heavenly Father, and number me among those Thy children who are heirs of Thy glorious kingdom, through Thy well-beloved and dear Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For our Children.

ALMIGHTY GOD, the Father and Maker of us all, Who of Thy blessing and goodness hast vouchsafed to make me a father (or mother) of children; Be pleased also to accept my hearty thanksgiving and devout praise for the same. And grant me Thy heavenly grace and assistance so to train them up in Thy godly nurture, virtue, religion and discipline, that they may continually serve, honour, and obey Thee, their heavenly Father; and that Thou, acknowledging and blessing them as Thy children here, mayst bring them to the blessing prepared for Thy children hereafter, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer to be used by Women that travail with Child.

ALMIGHTY GOD, the Father of all mercy and comfort, of Whose only gift it is, that the womb becometh fruitful; Graciously behold me, Thine humble and unworthy handmaid; that as by Thy good providence I have conceived a child within my womb, into which Thou hast breathed a spirit of life, so, by Thy continual aid, I may be preserved with it from all perils; and at the fulness of my time may safely bring it forth into the world, to the joy and comfort of my own soul, and to the glory of Thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Another.

MERCIFUL LORD, Who, when Thou tookest upon Thee to deliver man, didst not abhor the Virgin's womb, but when the fulness of time came, wast Thyself made of a woman, I beseech Thee, for Thy tender pity and goodness, to protect and strengthen me against all the dangers and pains of my labour and travail; that, through Thy most mighty aid, I may be safely delivered of this happy fruit which Thou hast created in my womb. And when it is born and brought forth into the world, vouchsafe also that it may be born again by Baptism, and brought up in Thy holy religion, till it be finally brought to Thine everlasting kingdom, where, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, Thou livest and reignest, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

A Thanksgiving after Childbirth.

GRACIOUS GOD, by Whose providence we are all fearfully and wonderfully made, Who beholdest us when we are yet imperfect, and in Whose book are all our members written; I humbly beseech Thee to accept this my reverence of Thy power, and to receive this my most hearty praise and thanksgiving, which I now offer up unto Thy Divine Majesty, for Thy blessed favour and goodness towards me, in vouchsafing to assist me during the time of this my dangerous travail, and to bless me with a joyful benediction, even the fruit of mine own womb. Behold, O Lord, what Thine own hands alone have fashioned; and grant that this little infant, which Thou hast made by Thy power, may be preserved by Thy goodness, and forthwith enjoying the benefit of Thy holy Baptism, may be made a lively member of Thy Church, and be carefully brought up to serve Thee in all godliness and honesty; through the merits of Thy well-beloved Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Thanksgiving for Recovery from Sickness.

PRAISE the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me praise His holy Name; Who hath saved thy life from destruction, and crowned thee with mercy and loving-kindness. O Lord my God, I cried unto Thee, and Thou hast healed me; therefore will I sing of Thy praise without ceasing, and I will pay my vows, and give thanks unto Thee for ever. Amen.

A Prayer in the time of War.

O ALMIGHTY GOD, King of all kings, and Governor of all things, Whose power no creature is able to resist, to Whom it belongeth justly to punish sinners, and to be merciful unto them that truly repent; Save and deliver us, we humbly beseech Thee, from the hands of our enemies; abate their pride, assuage their malice, and confound their devices; that we, being armed with Thy defence, may be preserved evermore from all perils, to glorify Thee, Who art the giver of all victory; through the merits of Thy only Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Thanksgiving for Peace and Victory.

O ALMIGHTY GOD, Who art a strong tower of defence unto Thy servants, we give unto Thee most hearty praise and thanks for that Thou hast delivered us from our enemies, and from those many and fearful dangers wherewith we were lately compassed; acknowledging Thy goodness that we were not consumed by them, and beseeching Thee for Thy mercies to establish us in this happy peace, and to continue on Thy loving-kindness to us, Who art our only Saviour and mighty Deliverer, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer in the time of any Common Plague.

ALMIGHTY GOD, Who in Thy wrath in the time of King David, didst slay with the plague of pestilence threescore and ten thousand, and yet remembering Thy mercy didst save the rest; Have pity upon us miserable sinners, who are now visited with great sickness and mortality; that like as Thou didst then command Thine Angels to cease from punishing, so it may now please Thee to withdraw from us this plague and grievous sickness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Thanksgiving for Deliverance from any Plague.

O LORD, Who hast wounded us for our sins, and consumed us for our transgressions, by Thy late heavy and dreadful visitation; and now, in the midst of judgment remembering mercy, hast redeemed our souls from the jaws of death; We offer unto Thee ourselves, our souls and bodies, which Thou hast delivered, to be a living sacrifice unto Thee, always praising and magnifying Thy mercies in the midst of Thy Church; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer and Thanksgiving for every True Subject, upon the Anniversary Day of the King's Reign.

LORD, by Whom kings do reign, and princes are set up to bear rule over their people, and by Whose gracious Providence Thy servant and our dread sovereign King Charles was as this day placed in the royal throne of his kingdom; Accept, we beseech Thee, the grateful commemoration which we now make before heaven and before Thee, of this Thy great goodness and blessing towards us; that, while we offer up our vows and sacrifices of thanksgiving to the praise of Thy glorious Name, Thou mayest bless the king with Thy favours, and crown him with continual honour; granting him a long, prosperous, and religious reign over his people, and granting us a true, quiet, humble, and obedient subjection under him: that he, ruling us prudently with all his power, we may obey him loyally with all lowliness and cheerfulness of mind; and that both he and we, evermore endeavouring to set forth the beauty of Thy Church militant here on earth, may be at last exalted to the glory of Thy Church triumphant in the heavens, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

*A Prayer and Thanksgiving upon the Anniversary
Day of our Birth.*

ALMIGHTY GOD, the Father and Maker of all things, by Whose blessed goodness I was fearfully and wonderfully made in my mother's womb, and unto Whose blessed providence I have been left ever since I was born, and hung upon my mother's breasts; I praise and magnify Thy glorious Name for this Thy great goodness towards me: most humbly beseeching Thee that I may be taught to number my days, and to apply my heart unto wisdom; that I may know to what end I was born, and had both body and life given me, even to serve Thee the living God; that I may bewail my sinful years past, and spend the rest of my time here in a godly, righteous, and sober life; that as I have now finished . . . years of my life here in Thy favour, so I may continue and finish up the remainder of my days in Thy fear; and that, as Thou didst upon this day take me out of my mother's womb to live here a little time, so Thou mayest at the last day take me out of my mother's womb again, even the grave and the womb of the earth, to live with Thee for ever, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

*A Prayer and Thanksgiving upon the Anniversary
Day of our Baptism.*

O LORD, Heavenly Father, Almighty and everlasting God, Who of Thine infinite goodness towards me, when I was born in sin, and was no other than an heir of everlasting wrath, didst vouchsafe that I should, as upon this day, be born again of water and the Holy Ghost, in the blessed laver of Baptism, being thereby made a member of Christ, and an heir of eternal life; For this Thine inestimable favour I do here gratefully commemorate that happy day, and in most humble and hearty wise I do extol the abundant riches of Thy glorious grace, in Thy sight, and in the sight of Thy holy Angels, with all the company of heaven, renewing that sacred vow which was then made in my name, to forsake this wicked world, and to live as a Christian ought to do, in obedience to Thy holy faith and commandments: most humbly beseeching Thee, of Thy great mercy, to pardon me all former breaches of my solemn promise, and to endue me so with the assistance of Thy Holy Spirit, that henceforth I may walk in newness of life, worthy of that blessed estate whereunto Thou hast called me; and keeping myself unspotted of the world, the flesh, and the devil, I may daily die unto sin, for which cause I was baptized into the death of Christ; and as I have had my part this day in the first regeneration, so I may at the last day have my part in the second and great regeneration of the world, to live and reign with Thee for ever, through the merits of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer wherewith St. Augustine began his Devotions; admiring the unspeakable Majesty and Attributes of God.

WHAT art Thou, O my God; What art Thou, I beseech Thee, but the Lord my God? For who is Lord besides our Lord, or who is God besides our God? O Thou supreme, most powerful, most merciful, most just, most secret, most present, most beautiful, most mighty, most incomprehensible, most constant, and yet changing all things; immutable, never new and never old, and yet renewing all things; ever in action, and yet ever quiet; heaping up, yet needing nothing; creating, upholding, filling, protecting, nourishing, and perfecting all things.

Thou lovest, and yet Thou art not transported: Thou art jealous, yet Thou art void of fear: Thou dost repent, yet Thou art free from sorrow: Thou art angry, and yet never art unquiet: Thou takest what Thou findest, yet didst Thou never lose any thing: Thou art never poor, and yet Thou art glad of gain: never covetous, and yet Thou exactest profit at our hands. We bestow largely upon Thee, that Thou mayest become our debtor: yet who hath any thing but of Thy gift? Thou payest debts when Thou owest nothing: Thou forgivest debts, and yet Thou lovest nothing. And what shall I say, O my God, my life, my joy, my holy, dear delight? Or what can any man say, when he speaketh of Thee? And woe be to them that speak not of Thee, but are silent in Thy praise: for even they who speak most of Thee, may be accounted to be but dumb. Have mercy upon me, O Lord, that I may speak unto Thee, and praise Thy Name. Amen.

A Prayer wherewith to conclude all our Devotions.

ALMIGHTY GOD, Who hast promised to hear the petitions of them that ask in Thy Son's Name, I beseech Thee mercifully to incline Thine ears unto me, who have now made my prayers and supplications unto Thee; and grant that those things which I have faithfully asked, according to Thy will, may be effectually obtained, to the relief of my necessity, and to the setting forth of Thy glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing.

The peace of God, which passeth all understanding; the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost; the virtue of Christ's blessed Cross and Passion be with me, now, and at the hour of death. Amen.
